April 9. 12 BARRY COLLINS, Registrar

TO BE SOLD By Private Contract,

THE Interest in the Lease of the Beautifully-situated Dwelling-house, Demesne, and Farm of MYSHELL, within 10 miles of the City of Cork, containing 14 acres of Mallow and Bandon, contiguous to the Post Town of Coachford; through which the Cork and Killarney Mails, &c. pass daily.

The Lands contain 157 Statute Acres, held for an unexpired term of 773 years, at the annual rent of £170, which includes the Tithe Rent Charge. The House is modern, in thorough repair, a large and desirable residence for a family of distinction. It contains a large front Entrance Hall, Drawing-room, Parlours; Library, 6 Principal Bed-rooms, Servants Hall, spacious dry underground Cellar, Water-closets, and Bath-room, Pantries, Scullery and Wash-house. Large Kitchen with new improved Range and Sinking Apparatus, supplied with a constant flow of purest Spring Water. The Out-Offices attached to the Dwelling-house consist of Coach-houses, extensive Stabling and every requisite accommodation—a well stocked walled-in Garden.

The Farm Yard, a suitable distance from the Dwelling-house, contains an extensive Barn, Granary, Stable, and Farm Houses, Store-house and Drying House, and a long range of Cow-houses, Boiling-house, and new Steaming Apparatus, all recently and permanently erected.

The situation of the house and beauty of scenery to be viewed to be appreciated; commanding a view of that picturesque ruin, Dripsey Castle, and its extensive wooded Demesne; it overlooks a sumptuously situated Glen, in which are four beautiful Lakes connected each other by lofty waterfalls, forming in its scenery the most delightful retreat imaginable—the whole situated in the midst of a thickly and most respectably inhabited locality.

The Lands are of superior quality, and in the highest state of cultivation. Irrigation is conducted to a great extent, as water can be carried over the greater part of the farm.

MYSHELL offers to the Sportsman a never-failing source of amusement. The game has been strictly preserved for a long period—the Lakes and Rivers, and Dripsey are abundantly stocked with fish. There is an extensive Gorse Fox Cover in the Plantations, a favorite resort of the Muskerry Hunt.

The Plantations consist of a large quantity of Ash, Elm, Beech, Larch, Spruce and Scotch Fir, in the most healthy and thriving condition, the right of which is most valuable and will be possessed by the purchaser.

The entire is well enclosed, protected by high gatehouses, and intersected by carefully laid out roads and avenues.

For further information as regards Title or other particulars apply to F. HERRICK, Esq., Solicitor, South Mall, Galway, or the proprietor, JNO. GALWAY, Esq., on the premises from 1st to 20th April.

The Steward, Mr. LEARY, will show the premises.
