

refuge in the workhouse, where, having received in his last of the provision made by his faith for the preservation and health of his two little fatherless just arrived at that age when is so indispensable. These before the committee, and tho' miserable clothing and appearance the cleanliness of their person of their countenances, with of their answers, confirmed the father had done, in his life time, this interesting group will now, receive a frugal, industrial, and amidst the trials and vicissitudes of better feelings will be drawn out treatment which they will receive. little girl, of nearly nine years, or shoe maker, one who feared the end; three of whose children asly admitted, the whole family their own roof-tree with their rted, protected, and carefully a gracious Providence, thro' this benevolent society. The asioner whose father faithfully ough her battles in 2d Bat. R. trictism and pure religion s widow and three children ges of real church fellowship. rdered to be apprenticed. One a the Society's list and now ; another to a very respectable n industrious and comfortable was awarded to a female ly served out her apprentice- as voted to another female who and had lately married to the ttee. These facts demonstrate ellent charity, and the blessing ce continually bestows upon its

was ordered to be given to ing month, on account of the season of the year.

Following public meetings were n the present month:—Rath-May; Pallaskenry, Wednesday, ay, 29th; Adare, Friday 30th. hese meetings cannot be too ependent of the pure and va- ed, the encouragement afforded portunity so nobly taken ad- o manifest their subjection to eir active sympathy and gene- poorer members, there is an ffect, with annually increas- ng of the society's machinery, its funds. The last statement st published, whence it appears ling was contributed by the e during the past year, and as hews an increase in the number t the country, the very poorest f his poverty a larger attentaining a first class premium in Practical Anatomy. This gentleman also distinguished himself on a similar occasion last year.

In allusion to Counsellor Clements, a Repeal leader, being blackballed at the Royal Irish Academy, Mr. John O'Connell, at the Conciliation Hall, gave expression to his mind thus:—"The petty, mongrel, factious, intolerant, bigoted set, who disgraced the national title, by applying it to their miserable coterie, blackballed an amiable and worthy individual."

Counsellor Doheny, the delegate sent down by the Association, has cured the schism of the Loughrea Repealers, after a dinner with Bishop Coen, and a meeting where that Dignitary presided. One of the Repeal wardens publicly apologised for having torn down a placard, with the Bishop's name to it.

The greatest exultation was manifest at Galway on the arrival of the intelligence that the House of Commons had, against the standing orders, admitted the Dublin and Galway bill.

The average cost weekly of paupers in Ennis and Tralee workhouses is 1s. 2d. per head; in Limerick it is 1s. 8d.

A letter was read at the Swinford board of guardians from the Lord Chancellor's secretary, to the effect, that the receivers on the estates in the union should pay the rate, and if any well-founded complaint should be preferred against those persons, his Lordship would take cognizance of the same.

The Revenue Police, under Lieut. Browne, stationed in Balla, Mayo, within the last few days seized in the parish of Turlough two hundred stone of malt, three hundred gallons of potale, a still, head and worm, and made five prisoners.

A woman named Ellen Murphy was found drowned in a hole in the Quarry of Tralee on Sunday. It is supposed that she got drunk the night before and fell in.

A mason of the name of Ryan, from Limerick, was killed on Tuesday, by the fall of a mass of new stone work at the portico of Jenkinstown house, Kilkenny, the seat of Lieut.-Colonel Bryan. A workman of the name of O'Hara was killed by the same accident.

In M'Garry, on the part of the publicans, v. Pape, collector of Excise, Dublin, the Court of Exchequer decided on Wednesday that the annual bond and payment thereon was legally right and proper, the others having contained that one general bond was sufficient.

A poor Irishman and his child fell overboard the Tiger steam-packet on the voyage from Cork to London, and perished. The casualty occurred from collision with a brig, which stove in the steamer's bows at night, off Dover.

Duprez is engaged at Liverpool and Manchester, with a French opera company. Duprez is also engaged by Mr. Calcraft for a few nights in Dublin.

The following extract is from a brutal and scandalous letter in the English Churchman newspaper:—"The Marquis of Downshire is dead! He left Hillsborough on Friday for Dublin. On Saturday he was riding out near Blessington, when he dropped off his horse and was taken up a corpse! Thus, he who would not respect the house of death and mourning in the case of Archdeacon Mant, now makes his house, by lying in it a corpse, a house of death. Thus he who joined in a demand on the Archdeacon to resign his living, has our last.

A notice was posted threatening death to widow Kennedy's

The Rev. Walter Rectory of Caher.

The Rev. John ter, was on Saturday to suspension for Miss Robertson bequeathed £100 in connexion with the

The Roman Catholic go into retreat on Linnell, under the direction of Clongowes Wood

The annual meeting will be held in London

Milch cows and Fair of Fedamore, many beasts of this Colonel Mansel to-morrow.

At Erina, the Lady

At Castlebar, the Inspector Constabulary

The Lady of Richard

At Tralee, the Lady

ter.

At Oakwood, King

Smith, Esq. of a son

In George's street,

At Leeson street,

son.

At Upper Leeson-st

of a son.

At Derry, the Lady

On the 5th inst. at

Wellesley, of a son a

In Hereford-street,

Dawson, Esq. barrister

At Hyde-park-gard

a daughter.

The Lady of John

At Gibraltar, the L

Regiment, of a daugh

At Saugor, the La

lery, of a daughter.

At Loudianah, the

gade, of a daughter.

The Lady of Edmu

race, Rathmines, of

At Drumcondra Hi

a son.

At Sommer-hill, t

daughter.

The Lady of the R

At Charlotte-squa

Streatfield, (late 87th

In St. Mary's Church

rister-at-Law, eldest

Rector of Tullow, to

Abraham Whyte Bak

At Kilkee Church,

quently at the house

P.P. Miss Mary Ann

Hynes, grocer, Kilk

brig Ninian, of this p