money. He next wrote to Mr. Donovan, the attorney, of Kilrush, begging of him to attend the inquest, and see that all would be conducted fairly, and gave him the names of certain parties he was to challenge off the jury. He also wrote subsequently from the gaol of Ennis, giving directions about his farm, and his other affairs, as concise, and systematic, and regular, as if nothing had happened, and from which it may be inferred he is a most hardened scoundrel, if not the victim of a singular derangement of the intellect. Some persons will have it that he was non compos mentis, at the time of the murder. James Breen was a very comfortable farmer, and is worth, in hard cash, from £2000 to £3000, a good part of which is lodged in the Provincial Bank, Kilrush. The deceased was a very respectable woman; she was niece to the Postmaster of Kilrush, and cousin to the late Tomkins Brew, the Police magistrate.

Michael Delany, in the employ of Mr. Lock, distiller at Kilbeggan, while in a state of stupor from the effects of drink, fell into a large tub or vat of boiling water.
He was taken out immediately and sent to the Tulla-moore dispensary, where he languished in the greatest agony until death put a period to his sufferings.

Mr. Armstrong's Star of Erin won the subscription plate of £50 and a sweepstakes at Lusk races on Thursday. Mr. Davis' Crib won the Hunters' stakes.

The Nenagh guardians have commenced law proceedings against Mr. D. Kennedy and Mr. W. Hogan, sureties of Michael Kennedy, poor rate collector, deceased, for the amount of his arrears.

The unfortunate patent saw mill concerns of Mr.
Wilson, Cork, are ordered to be sold by the assignee.

An investigation was held on Friday at Gunsborough Petty Sessions, in consequence of an outrage committed on the property of Mr. Thomas Dowling, one of the inspectors of the Irish Society, who lately commenced building a house near Ballybunnion, in order to reside there. The timber was destroyed at night; also thirty barrels of lime were rendered entirely useless by being mixed up with earth and stones. The foundation of the house, which was dug, was levelled by being filled up with stones and mould. Also a gate was cut to pieces.
The magistrates assured Mr. Dowling that they would use every exertion to discover the perpetrators of the outrage, and advised him to endeavour to procure information on the subject, and lay it before them.
