

...day, the 26th inst.
 ... this week at Cashel,
 sentenced Pat. Hogan on, for robbery.
 Councillor of Cork.
 tenant is prepared to the counties of Leitrim, giving a requisition to The troops encamped secure their comfort;
 with timber flooring,
 d. Several log-houses, constructed under the officer, to house the cannot be procured for able of containing ten which fold up into the
 of them armed with a Pat. Ryan, of Firmount, horn and shot-pouch.
 party went to the house in, near Roscrea, and down into the bed-room sleeping, the ball striking Ireland at present is declaration of Mr. O'Gorships at Newfoundland, and the Rhydol from in May last, was occasioned among the icebergs, gustuous and hazy. Ford's company 24th, will e it has been replaced by Ennis.
 arrives at Belfast this day surrender themselves for on to-morrow, for the duel.
 ve guardians attended the this day, Mr. Cullen in asacted was unimportant, admitted. The collectors commence the collection
 . In the house this day, his day, beef sold so high Knowles have arrived in rd, on Saturday, the Rev.
 of Trinity College, Dublin,

to Jane Adelaide, daughter of J. Alexander, Esq.
 At Mullafarry Church, Henry Augustus, son of the late Annesley Gore Knox, Esq. of Rappa Castle, to Eleanor, youngest daughter of the late William Knox, Esq. of Netley county Mayo.
 Laurence Brock, Esq. to Martha, daughter of the Rev. Thomas Brock, Rector of Guernsey.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at Tervoe House, near this City, in his sixth year, of scarletina, to the great affliction of his parents, William, the dearly interesting and only child of William Monsell, Esq. D.L. and Lady Anna Maria Monsell, and grandson of the Earl of Dunraven.
 At Lisnure House, Eliza, relict of the late Colonel Kettlewell, R.A. and mother of the Rev. Thomas Kettlewell, master of the Endowed School, Clonmel.
 At his father's residence, Duncan-street, Cork, Mr. James Wright, of the firm of Allen & Wright, of this City.
 In Clare-street, Mr. Cotterell Hyatt, retired Tide Waiter of this port.
 In Waterford, the mother of Bishop Welsh.
 At Cove, suddenly, Mr. Henry M' Mullen, Tide Waiter.
 In Ennis, Ellen, daughter of the late Mr. Denis Gallagher.
 At Greenmount, near Omagh, aged twenty-one years, William Thomas, son of the Rev S. G. Rogers.
 Mrs. Mary Behan, of Camden-street.
 At his residence, North Frederick-street, Joseph Pasley, Esq. son of the Rev. Joseph Pasley, Prebend of Donaghmore.
 At his residence, Langrishe-place, Murtagh Malone.
 At Fern-hall, county Roscommon, John Irwin, Esq.
 In Lurgan, at an advanced age, Dorothea, relict of John Hazlett, Esq.
 In Leeds, aged 75 years, William Hincks, Esq. brother of the Rev. Dr. Hincks, of Belfast.
 At Hampton Court, Arthur Shakespeare, Esq. formerly Captain in the 10th Royal Hussars At Bath, Ellen, wife of Captain Peter La Touche, of the India Company's Service, and Brigade Major at Nusserabad.
 At Clapham-common, Henry Pelham Humphery, the ninth son of John Humphery, Esq. M.P.
 At the Rectory, St. Martin's, Guernsey, Sophia Ann, eldest daughter of the Rev. R. Pottenger, M.A.
 At Bedford, the Rev. W. B. Winning, M.A. late of Trinity College, Cambridge.
 At Newick, Sussex, Colonel Newhouse, late Royal Artillery, aged 78.
 At Hillindon, Kent, Sir Wm. S. Wiseman, Bart. Captain Royal Navy.
 Edward L. Carey, Esq. of Philadelphia, senior partner in the house of Carey and Hart, the publishers.
 At Cape of Good Hope, George Broster, late 75th.
 At Mucktul, Bengal, Lieut. W. M Berkeley, of the 27th Grenadiers, son of Major-General Berkeley.
 In Shannon-street, on Sunday, father suddenly, Mr. Thomas Benn, nephew of the late Mr. Timothy Mackey, architect.
 Henry Thomas, son of T. J. W. Jervis, Esq. of Fitzgibbon-street.
 At Dungannon, Mary, wife of John Brydges, Esq. and daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Shuter, of Ballinderry.
 Thomas Rowan, Esq. Manager of the National Bank of Ireland, Athlone.
 At Cheltenham, Major Charles Johnston, 3d Regiment Bombay Infantry.
 The Rev. George Hall, Chaplain to Lord Brougham.
 At Harrogate, the sister of Sergeant Ludlow.
 At his house in Bedford-square, Mr. Serjeant Atcherley.
 At the advanced age of 84 years, Stevens Dineley Totton, Esq. Barrister, of Lincoln's Inn, Prothonotary to the court at Madras.
 At his residence, Kensington House, near Liverpool, J. Todd Naylor, Esq.
 Thomas Longworth Dames, Esq. late Captain King's Dragoon Guards.
 At Belize, Honduras, Mr. H. Gifford, of her Majesty's ship Hyacinth.

prior to the day
 proved after sale, w
 J. ABRAHAM'S
 he has only to app duals for whom he ness, for testimon forwardness in hi commencement in where he resided fo the plan which he Auction departmen discerning public.
 their own clerks
 cent; immediate.
 These terms appl
 as at the Auction
 miles of Limerick,
 J. ABRAHAM'S h
 by entirely unrese
 most useful Good ticulars in future l

29 LA
Boarding
CONVENT OF

UNDER THE
THE RIG

THE Public is
 gious of th
 Boarding School
 fully and agreeab
 view of the Shan most convenient
 These Ladies c
 France, Italy, Sw
 and one in Liver
THE
 Comprises Engli
 Globes, Botany, Arithmetic, the Italian are taugh
 every kind of O
TERMS,
 The
Music,
Drawing,
Dancing,
Payments
 The Day Scho
 late Lord Visco
 conducted by th
 For further p
 Convent, Laure