

ered to charge the costs of the proceedings on the revenues of the see, so that a portion of them will fall on his successors.

The House of Commons on Monday voted a sum of £146,294 to defray the charges of the disembodied militia in Great Britain and Ireland.

The Criminal jurisdiction of Assistant Barristers (Ireland) bill went through committee of the House of Commons on Monday night.

In the Bill which has passed the Lords (now before the House of Commons) it is provided that persons keeping billiard or bagatelle-tables shall be licensed.

Mr. Fitzroy Kelly, Solicitor-General, was on Tuesday elected M.P. for Cambridge, after a close contest with Mr. Shafto Adair and by a majority of 13 only.

Monday, the 14th July, has passed over, and Mr. O'Connell, Mr. Smith O'Brien, and Mr. John O'Connell have not been called, though noticed to that effect, for service on select committees of the House of Commons, but which they had distinctly signified their determination not to regard.

Yesterday, the Chief Baron discharged the City Grand Jury from further attendance in his Court, until Friday next, at 11 o'clock, the Grand Jury having disposed of all the bills sent before them. The presentments were also passed yesterday.

The Earl of Clare will entertain the Lord Chief Baron, Judge Burton, and a select party to dinner to-morrow.

The special case of Hon. Waller O'Grady and others v. Lord Guillamore, is fixed for trial on Tuesday next, by the Lord Chief Baron, who will commence the county Records on Monday.

Mr. George Bennett, Q.C. yesterday signified, incidentally, in Court, his intention of not again coming this circuit, to the great regret of the members of the bar, and of his very many friends on the Munster circuit.

There was no capital convictions at Ennis assizes.

Mr. Cullen has tendered the resignation of his seat as guardian at the board of the Limerick union, and on his retirement from the establishment the guardians unanimously passed him a vote of thanks. Mr. Cullen has been a most vigilant, trustworthy, and efficient guardian of the union. Mr. M'Namara, collector of the Castle-Connell district, which is deeply in arrear of the poor rate, was suspended for neglect of duty.

Catherine Browne, a young servant girl, washing clothes at the slip of Bank-place on Thursday evening, fell into deep water was carried off by the current and drowned.

At Newcastle butter market held on Thursday, the Limerick buyers purchased 110 firkins of butter, the highest price was 47s. a firkin.

Best full grown salmon in the London market is only 6d. per lb. and it is 9d. the lb. in Limerick this week.

The Ballyeigh Races, Kerry, commence on the 26th August next. Articles in our advertising columns.

The result of the Inspector General of prisons inquiry into the conduct of Mr. Jonathan Smith, governor of Nenagh gaol, in connection with the recent death of a turnkey shot by his comrade, is understood to be the dismissal of Mr. Smith, and the appointment of Mr. Thomas Roche to succeed him.

The following were admitted last, in the cathedral Llewellyn W. Jones, Edward Blacker, John L. Robinson, Fitzgerald, Simon J. Faust, Charles L. Bell, Deacons priest; Henry Wolfenden, Robert H. Rodgers, priest deacon for Limerick.

The Bishop of Chester held last at Durham, when the Priest—George Marshall, Deacons—Anthony A. Edward Robert W. Russell, and John College, Dublin.

The Rt. Rev. Dr. Ryan, a of confirmation this week to and adults, in the parish of St. Mary, St. Patrick, St. M subsequently was entertained of the respective parishes, o sion, in two instances, that other guests. The consideration that fell from a certain high is not to be disregarded when ness are so prevalent.

On Monday the Right Rev confirmation at Thomond-g from the union workhouse, with the answering of all, an appearance.

The Most Rev. Dr. Croll of John Boyle, who was shot at Armagh. A troop of the S of the 26th attended to p neighbourhood is greatly ex and the Roman Catholics, th the aggressors, threaten ret Pensions recently granted Fraser Tytler, 200l. a year; late Thomas Hood, 100l. a (Susan, Mary, Eleanor, and Robertson Macdonald, and Robertson, the eminent his Jane, Caroline, and Frances Lieut.-Colonel Stoddart, (m year each; Madlle, Augusta and Clara Maria Susanna I Sir Hudson Lowe, 50l. a year.

The Hon. Martin Joseph is to be Chairman of the "Liberator and Repeal Mar The salary of Dr. Kane, Resources of Ireland, is to be the scientific department in lishment.

Mr. Denis Moylan, and this week appointed poor r union, the former in Bally Dromcolloher.

At Liverpool, £1500 was by the fire at Quebec, and