

Matthew R. Mill-
Wm. H. Riall, Lorenzo
ower, Samuel Cooper,

rs and men of the
are awarded £700
an barque, stranded
and which was saved

Lent,
SECURITY,
NT.
fer to the Principal.
June 25.

ET,
AND FARM,
TY ACRES of good
walled-in Garden,
the 29th September
modious and beautifulty, ten miles from n Cloughjordan, with n the Steward, who or to Mr. WILLIAM limerick, July 16.

IA
Company,

red by this Company.
ums for the first five
for the whole term of able Annually, Half-ion in profits—Age

sted to the detailed which may be ob-

P, ESQ.
TWORTH-STREET,

ANKLIN, M. D.
July 12.

TER,
for to supply 120
safe and handsome
s in use in the con-& Son, and can be concerns, Prospect-Glentworth-street.
limerick, July 12.

DEATHS.

At Richmond-street, Dublin, on the 15th inst. aged 72, Henry White, Esq. His afflicted friends "sorrow not as those who have no hope," being fully persuaded that he having fallen asleep in Jesus, has entered into that rest which remains for the people of God.

On Sunday night last in Clare-street, sincerely and deservedly regretted, Margaret, relict of the late John D'Arcy, Esq. of Ennis, Supervisor of Excise.

In Abbeygate-street, Galway, in the 79th year of his age, Mr. Henry Duggan.

At Kilkenny Barracks, Ensign William Harman, of the 48th Regiment.

At Kilbeggan, county Westmeath, George Palmer, Esq. coroner for the King's County, and Sub-Sheriff.

At his brother-in-law's house, P. Sherlock, Esq. Killaspy, Nicholas, son of the late John Coghlan, Esq. Kilcop House, county Waterford.

At College-road, Galway, Mrs. Kelly, relict of the late Mr. John Kelly.

At Youghal, Elizabeth Anne, wife of Dominick P. Ronayne, Esq.

Mr. Patrick Bergin, proprietor of the Commercial House, Athlone. His earthly existence terminated on Thursday, and the universal feeling respecting his premature demise is deep and sincere regret. Mr. Bergin's conduct as a citizen, gained for him numerous friends. He was upright and just in his dealings, and the call of charity always found in him a generous response.

Mr. Andrew Waugh, of Gill Abbey.

In the Manor, Waterford, Mrs. Margaret Sinnott.

At Rathlarnham, Miss Nicholson.

Thomas Lahey, Esq. Middle Gardiner-street,

Of apoplexy, at Killybegs, A. Murray, Esq. M.P. for Kirkcudbright.

Mrs. Hamilton, widow of the late William Hamilton, Esq. Sligo.

Manus Ward, Esq. jun. second son of Manus Ward, Esq. of Dooue Castle.

The Rev. Patrick Teevan, R. C. Curate of Ballyjamesduff, nephew to the Rev. Mr. Brady, P. P. of Ballynagh.

Mrs. Ryan, mother of Henry Ryan, Esq. of Kilfera, county Kilkenny.

At Mullingar, Eliza, wife of Mr. Hanlon.

At Bath, Miss Butler, aunt to Sir Thomas Butler, Bart. of Ballintemple, county Carlow.

Of hooping cough, Charles Siborne, son of Mr. Charles Mettam, Merrion Row.

Alexander Murray, Esq. of Broughton.

At her house in Woburn-place, Russell-square, Susanna, relict of Francis Thwaites, Esq. aged 83.

At Stratton, the Rev. Jacob Hawker, Vicar of that parish.

At Duntocher Mill, Mr. John Bullock, miller, aged 96.

At Port-Glasgow, Mary Shaw, aged 78 years, wife of George Renwick, Esq. merchant.

At Sidney Cottage, Chatham Hill, Captain George Wardell, late 28th Regt.

At Kingstown, Dorothea, relict of the late Thomas Sadleir, Esq. Clerk of Peace, county Tipperary.

At Clogheen, Margaret, wife of William Casey, Esq. T.C., of Cork.

At his house in Midleton, aged 24 years, William Rose, Esq. only son of Captain Rose, Castlemartyr.

At his house, Patrick-street, Cork, at an advanced age, Mr. John Condon.

At Cloyne, in her 79th year, Eliza, relict of Timothy M'Carthy, Esq. M.D.

At Edgefield Rectory, Norfolk, the Rev. Hewitt O'Bryen, son of the late Hewitt O'Bryen, Esq. of Whitepoint, county Cork, and brother-in-law of the Dean of Achonry.

Suddenly at his residence in Canterbury, John Le Grand, Esq.

At her residence in Bath, Elizabeth Taylor, widow of Lieut.-Col. George Taylor, C.B.

At Luton, Beds, Edmund Waller, Esq.

At Woolwich, John Adam Forbes, son of Quartermaster J. S. Forbes, of the Royal Artillery.

Mrs. Caroline Dent, relict of Major T. Dent, formerly of 10th Infantry,

ROYAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY'S Improvement IRELAND

THE next Great AGRICULTURAL SHOW of BALLINASLOE, TUESDAY next, and the days following

Premiums to the amount of £1000 and upwards, will be given in encouragement and exhibition of Horses, Sheep, Swine, Agricultural Wool, Butter, Poultry, See the particulars of which can be had of the Secretary in Dublin, or Assistant Secretary, Ballinasloe, sheets, and blank forms of Stock, &c. can be had on application.

WEDNESDAY, the 10th

the last day for serving Notice

The first or Council Dinner DAY, the 30th September, on which occasion the EARL of the Council, will preside.

The GRAND BANQUET will be given at the Agricultural Hall, Ballinasloe, first of October, when his Grace the President of the Society, will preside by the vice Presidents of the Society.

Admission to these different meetings is confined to members of the Society who have paid up their subscription to the Local Fund for defraying the expenses of the show, and such strangers as shall honor the meeting with their presence.

There will be an Auction of the produce after the show, of which full particulars will be published hereafter.

Arrangements have been made in honor of Professor KANE to deliver a course of Lectures on the principles of Vegetation, Chemistry to Husbandry; and a course of Lectures delivered on other Industrial objects of the meeting.

The proceedings of the meeting will be followed by a GRAND BALL and SUPPER on the 2nd of October, under the patronage of the Nobility and Gentry, and the presence of the Nobility and Gentry.

Persons desirous of entering into the details of the show, are requested to apply to the Secretary as above, in order to obtain full information on the subject.

Sign

Society's Rooms,
41, Upper Sackville-street, Dublin.