

the road.
 found for the Plaintiff places this week, were Mr. Arthur, and Lord Warriston.
 has purchased the land at Belfast, and Newry, lately
 "Vesper," of Sunderland, which was sent to Galway port, was would, entering the bay, she was in a fishing boat, with a was the sinking of the vessel, Coleman Hynes, Bartholomew and Anthony season was sold in Dublin this week.
 pecuniary penalties at the rate of 10s. for having drawn a net to the fishery laws.
 London medical student, who was killed by a bull, which assailed him Gravesend.
 Commissioners in the County of Limerick, Mr. Jeffares, Esq., was elected in the room of James Gaffney, Esq. whose term of office expired. Mr. Jeffares Vexford. He is a Protestant, and as such was elected in preference to the of the Liberator. — The Liberator's Corporation and Mr. Delahunty are ap-£40,000 for the Corporation.
 Town Councillor of Waterford, appointed Alderman at the the Clonmel Assizes, for the County of Tipperary, near Killenaule, was ex-masons in Scotland is now about 18s.
 at the Assizes, an action of ejectment, the jury were dis-Mr. Bray's novels has just appeared, replete with highly and notices of scenery and persons, of Fitz-Ford, a legend interest, and the style of the work is beautiful, easy, and grace-accomplished Addison.

Earl's Court, Brompton.
 William Gainfort, Esq. of the Bank of Ireland, to Maryanne, only daughter of the late Samuel Sams, Esq. of Bath.
 James Benn, jun. Esq. of Belfast, to Mary, daughter of the late Charles M'Master, Esq. of Armagh.
 At All Soul's Church, Langham-place, George Buchanan, son of H. S. H. Wollaston, Esq. Welling, Kent, to Julia Adye Catharine, daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel Gilbert Buchannan, Royal Engineers.

DEATHS.

At Faha House, in this County, on the 13th inst. aged 54 years, Catherine, the beloved wife of George Tuthill, Esq. The remains of this much esteemed and lamented lady will be interred on Monday in the Church of Kilkeedy.
 At the North Strand, in this City, much regretted, Miss Anne Fisher, daughter of the late Renben Fisher, Esq. of Youghal—a member of the Society of Friends.
 At Summer-hill George Decimus, son of the late George Greene, Esq. of Upper Rutland street, and nephew of Colonel Greene, of Kilmainham Castle, county Waterford.
 At Ballinlea, county Wexford, Mary Marchant, wife of Francis Stephen Richards, Esq.
 Mr. Jeremiah Harrington, of Clonmel, printer.
 In Killarney, Miss Ellen O'Leary, sister to Mr. Arthur O'Leary, of Tralee.
 Suddenly, in Dungarvan, Miss Sullivan, late of Ballyleggat.
 At Castlebar, the residence of his uncle, the Rev. Richard Gibbons, P.P. William, son of the late James Gibbons, Esq. of Westport.
 Suddenly, in Bishop-street, Derry, Lieut. Renwick.
 At Kingstown, William Geake, Esq. late Supervisor of Excise.
 At Waterlodge, near Duddalk, Michael Kelly, Esq. one of the oldest and wealthiest merchants of that town.
 At Kirkcassock, Joseph Christy, Esq. late Manager of the Ulster Branch Bank, Lurgan.
 At the Roebuck Inn, Wokingham, William Crawley, Esq.
 Lieutenant 4th (King's Own) Regiment.
 At Bothwell Park, Mrs. Anne Hamilton, relict of Alexander Gray, Esq. Attorney General for Canada.
 At Bellevue-crescent, Edinburgh, James Haldane Tait, Esq.
 Rear Admiral of the Blue, aged 74.
 At Sidmouth, Robert Foote, Esq. one of her Majesty's Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber. He served the office of High Sheriff for Kent in the year 1815.
 William Montagu, son of Basil Montagu, Esq. Q.C.
 At Dumbarton, John M'Alister, Esq. timber merchant, in his 81st year.
 At Blackheath-park, Mary, relict of Captain Sharp, R.N. of Ramsgate, aged 77.
 At Columbo, Ceylon, Henry Thomas, eldest son of William Henry Fortescue, Esq. of Great George's-street, Dublin.
 In Paris, Frances, only child of Bishop Luscombe, Chaplain of the British Embassy.
 At Sawantwarre, East Indies, Lieut. Sidney Waller, 3d
 Madras Light Infantry.
 At his residence, Glasnevin. James Archdall Crauford, Esq.
 late Captain of the 59th Regiment.
 In Kildare-street, Mr. Thomas Singleton, of the firm of "Singleton, Brothers," Dame-street.
 Mr. John Hickey, of Athlone, at the advanced age of 105 years.
 The Rev. William Moriarty, of West Derby, near Liverpool, son of the late Sir Thomas Moriarty, of Roscommon.
 At St. Katharine's Lodge, Regent's Park, Charlotte Mary
 Louisa Taylor, only surviving child of the late Lieut.-General Sir Herbert Taylor, G.C.B.
 At Frankfort, General Field Marshal Baron V. Raditzky, President of the Military Commission of the Germanic Confederation.

A resident in Munster, 20 years of age, of respect-ceived a liberal mathe-
 The Instruction he Civil Engineering mo-
 Agricultural Improvem-
 The theory and pra-making, Draining, Irrings and residences, S-vegetable and animal the reclamation of m-ment of old cultivated The intention of the education in such a mathe term of four years discharge the duties extends over more th-variety of geological The pupil will be tra-proper attention will
 The family is English.
 Terms may be know-
 C. E. LIMERICK CHRO

ST. JOHN
 THE business of the
 D. V. on THURS-
 T. W.
 July 30.

COUNTY
 NOTICE is hereby mates and Spec-
 A CO
 In or near the to-
 at the Grand Jury Se-DAY, the 22d of Oct-
 A sum of £30 w-approved of, and £1
 The cost not to ex-

TO Back
 of the best Bloohalf Old, perfec-Grouse shot over t-they will be sold for Application to be
 Esq. Donogroque Ca-