At the present day, the principles of Life Assurance are so well known and its advantages so justly appreciated, that little explanation is required. The duty of providing for the contingencies to which life is subject is universally admitted. To all persons engaged in the professions of the Church, Army, and Navy, Law, in public offices; Medical and other Professional men; and all whose incomes depend upon their own exertions the duty of Life Assurance, to enable them to provide at a small cost for their wives and families, is evident and paramount. Among its other advantages may be enumerated:—the security offered to Creditors by Assuring the Lives of their debtors; Fines payable on renewal of leases on lives may be provided whenever they may be called for; Loans effected on Life Interest, and money advanced or annuity may be secured; Marriage settlements may be effected.

In the event of dispute (where no fraud is suspected), the subject thereof will be referred to arbitration.

Tables, and every information, may be obtained at the Office, and at
