

Mr. Egan deserved great credit, to establish such a factory in order to encourage those in his line. In some nuisance cases the Court

KINGDOM
Insurance Company,
15, PALL MALL, LONDON.
 A Division of Profits of this year declared in the ensuing year, on the participating Class effected previous to 1840. Parties, therefore, who have not, should avail themselves of the opportunity of sharing in the Bonus by immediately making proposals for annual premiums for the assurance of a whole period of life, on which interest is allowed for five years; which credit is at the rate of 5 per cent. Interest, to be deducted from the sum insured. A person aged 20, by paying an annual premium of £100, on his policy, or to the same sum should he die at age.

Profits.	With Profits.
d.	£	s.	d.
10	1	18	8
10	2	8	2
1	3	3	4
0	4	10	7

assuring £100 payable at a death should it occur before the party insured.

TO BE ATTAINED.
d.	Sixty-five.			Seventy.
	£	s.	d.	£	s.	d.
1	2	2	4	2	0	0
0	2	15	2	2	10	6
0	4	0	3	3	9	7
0	7	8	1	5	12	2

be afforded, on application to Edward Boyd, Esq., of No. 8, Pall Mall, proposals may be accepted on Wednesday and any other day appearing at half-past two o'clock, when Mr. Boyd, Esq., the Company's Sur-

LIMERICK
Henry Hall,
15, PALL MALL, LONDON.

Hospital, Chelsea, to Maria, daughter of Richard Pinder, Esq. of Hill House, Newnham.
 At Llanfyllin, the Hon. and Rev. Thomas Henry Noel Hill, son of Lord Berwick, to Harriet Rebecca, daughter of the late John Humphreys, Esq. of Llwyn, Montgomeryshire.
 Sir Frederick Bathurst, Bart. to Miss Brooke, daughter of Sir Richard Brooke, Bart. of Norton Priory, Cheshire, and sister of Lady Brabazon.

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, at her mother's house in George's-street, to the inexpressible grief of her family and friends, Eliza, daughter of the late Thomas M. Rose, Esq.
 At Cragleigh, on Monday last, Eliza, the fond wife of William Kenny, Esq. After a long life, marked by the purest love and most unbounded charity, she died as one "in whose soul there is no guile," leaving a husband and family in such affliction as time alone can allay. Her remains will be interred at the family vault, Dysart, on Thursday.
 At Littleton, county Tipperary, Miss Susan Russell, aged 74, daughter of the late John Russell, of Ballydavid, Esq.
 On Sunday last, at his lodgings in Aungier-street, Dublin, after a few days' illness, William Finucane, Esq. late of Ennis.
 At Templemole House, the residence of her son-in-law, John Enright, Esq. Mrs. Ledger, wife of Robert Ledger, Esq. of London.
 At his father's residence, Belmont House, Stillorgan, John Babington Smyth.
 Mr. James Giles, clerk of the parish of Castleisland.
 At his residence, Mountrothe, county of Kilkenny, James Brennan, Esq.
 At Tuam, Mr. John M'Hugh.
 At his residence, Bailina, James Fallon, Esq.
 Bernard Maguire, Esq. of Belmont, Kilbeggan, county of Westmeath.
 At Port, county of Leitrim, John Hamilton Edward, son of Bernard Peyton, Esq.
 At Hollybrook, near Randalstown, Charles, only child of the late Charles Atkinson, Esq. C.P. and grandson of the late Charles Atkinson, Esq. of Rehins, county Mayo.
 At Killargue Glebe, county Leitrim, in her 91st year, Juliet Frances, relict of Major R. T. Hearn.
 At Putney, Mrs. Longley, relict of the late John Longley, Esq. aged 92.
 At his mother's house, Stafford-street, Liverpool, Simon M. Malone, Esq.
 John Ridley, Esq. one of the magistrates of the borough of Ipswich.
 At Leamington, Lt.-Col. Kaye, R.A.
 At Oxford, aged 27, the Lady of the Rev. Henry Wellesley, M.A. Vice Principal of New Inn Hall.
 At Paris, John Maugham Connell, Esq. of Cornwall.
 At Fort William, Calcutta, the Hon. Captain H. Stapleton.
 At Kunawas, Capt. Appesley, of the Bengal Artillery.
 At Ferozepore, of cholera, John Magrath, Esq. Surgeon of the 8th Light Cavalry.
 At Wexford, Robt. Woodcock, Esq. in his 83d year.
 At Bundoran, Alexander Hassard, Esq. J.P. and formerly Captain in the Inniskilling Dragoons.
 At his residence, Summer-hill parade, Dublin, Marmaduke J. Richardson, Esq. formerly a Lieutenant in the Rothsay and Caithness Regiment.
 In Cork, Mr. George Osborne.
 At her residence, Camden Terrace, Camden Town, in the 74th year of her age, Miss Mary Abington, sister of the late Wm. Abington, Esq. of the East India House.
 At Wingham, Kent, Caroline, daughter of the late Charles Matson, Esq.
 Elizabeth Anna, daughter of Sir Thomas Hatton, Bart. of Long Stanton Hall, Cambridgeshire.
 At Rothsay, suddenly, Mr. Borthwick, of Edinburgh.
 At Islington, William Upcott, Esq. librarian to the London Institution.
 At sea, on passage from Bombay, Mrs. Moore, wife of Lieut. Moore, 28th Regt.
 At Naples, of apoplexy, Lady Coventry.

50 do do Ju
 60 Tons of M
 Farmers, Merc
 A large supply
 Sash, Plough,
 English and Iris
 Carpenters Too
 Ship Carpenters
 Crow Bars, Pic assortment of
 Also the Cargo burgh, containing
 80 Tons of Clo
 60 Casks of T
 10 Tons of Oa

15 S
Life Ass

THIS IS THE
 of the Compa
 necessary investiga
 sons assuring befor
 that Division.
 The Standard, in come, and in point
 Proprietary Office
 which has attended gulations, are such
 and increasing adva

3, George-street,

OFFICE
Boa
 William White, E
 Commerce.
 Thomas Roche, Es
 William Roche, Es
 Francis Spaight, E
 Poole Gabbett, Es
 Limerick.
AGENT AND S
STE

Towns.
 Banagher—John B
 Cashel—Daniel Ky
 Ennis—Edward Gal
 Galway—John M. C
 Kilrush—P. W. O'
 Nenagh—E. J. Ken
 Roscrea—Darius Jo
 Thurles—James Fog
 Tipperary—James F