

...of the company, with Mr. present, while a concourse of the people witness the interesting ceremony, amidst repeated shouts of applause. The Directors present Meagher, chairman; William J. W. Millwood, Capt. S. Newport, J. R. J. Riall, Esqrs.; also C. Vignolles, R. B. Osborne, resident engineer; W. J. secretary, &c.

RENT.—In pursuance of the resolution of the Trades, read to Mr. O'Connell at a meeting of the Repeal Society on Friday last, a meeting of the Repeal Society was convened for Monday evening, for the reception of the masters and wardens of the company only mustered six representatives from different wards. One of the speakers speaking as the bone and sinew of Limerick, the temple of this second Conciliation Hall; Mr. Robert Peel was one of the most damnable who held the reins of Government!! Before the meeting it was stated that Mr. James O'Connell accepted the invitation of the Repeal Society, to put himself in nomination for the office of Alderman, vacant by the death of Mr. Franklin. The speaker who abused Sir Robert Peel, and who abused the character of Mr. Kelly, and who said that it was necessary for them to do so, that gentleman would be one of the proper place. The speaker then spoke up with cheers for Repeal, O'Connell, and "our noble selves."

Mr. Kilmartin, a farmer near Newcastle, was the early hour of seven o'clock on Monday, and was surrounded by armed men, who took off a musquet. A six-mile-bridge was a scene of tumult on Monday, during the Rev. Mr. Mathew's reading of the pledge, and the drunkards who were present did not respect the precincts of the church, and some of them commenced fighting at the same time while the Rev. gentleman was engaged in reclaiming the victims of dissipation. Mr. J. J. O'Connell, Esq. Manager of the Tipperary Joint Stock Bank at Roscrea, is appointed to Nenagh, and Mr. J. J. O'Shea, Esq. removed to Carlow.

Mr. J. J. O'Shea, Esq. M.P. was chairman of the Sligo Repeal Association near Castlebar, on Monday, and Mr. J. J. O'Connell exhorted them to elect no members for Guardians, but those who are up for election at Lucan was groaned at the meeting, and Mr. J. J. O'Connell said his lordship was not worth that notice!

Mr. J. J. O'Connell, 4th Light Dragoons, though bailed, was arrested at Hounslow barracks.

Mr. Charles Rowley, G. C. H. late Comptroller at Portsmouth, died on Saturday last. His son, Lieut.-Colonel Rowley, late 1st Dragoon Guards, succeeds to the Baronetcy. The late gentleman was years a commissioned officer, and took part in the late war.

ter of William Barton, of Grove, county Tipperary, Esq.

Owen Anthony M'Dermott, Esq. son of the late Captain M'Dermott, to Sophia Mary, eldest daughter of P. Walsh, Esq. M.D. of Spring Gardens, county Kildare.

Mr. Wm. O'Brien, of Cork, late of Kilrush, to Bridget, daughter of Daniel Keller, Esq. of Ballinhassig.

At Kinnigad Church, James Rooney, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, to Sophia Winifred, daughter of Thomas Lakeman, Esq. of Torquay, Devonshire.

In St. Mary's Church, Mr. Francis Long, Printer, to Catherine, daughter of Mr. W. Campbell, of Dollymount.

In St. Paul's, Knightsbridge, Rev. Charles B. Stevenson, rector of Callan, county Kilkenny, to Mary, daughter of the late Lieut.-General Glegg, of Backford Hall, Cheshire.

At Douglas Church, William M. Smyth, Esq. M.D. to Frances Grace, relict of W. Hay, Esq. late Captain 80th Regiment.

At Powtown, Wigtown, the Rev. J. Lawson, vicar of Buckminster Leicester, to Jane, daughter of the Hon. Montgomerie Stewart.

In Bath, Captain Arthur Pigott, of the 89th Regiment, to Jane, youngest daughter of Rear Admiral Buckle.

In Edinburgh, the Rev. W. Walter, Dean Rural of Yarborough, Lincolnshire, to Susan Coutts, daughter of the late Captain James Hall, of the 83d Regiment.

At Greenock, Anthony C. Heugh, Esq. Algoa Bay, to Isabella Jane, daughter of Hugh Hamilton, Esq. Greenock.

At St. John's Church, Chester, Joseph Barningham Miller, Esq. son of the late Major James Miller, of Lanarkshire, to Catherine, only daughter of the late William Harwood Folliott, Esq.

At Madras, Captain Marshall, 22d Madras Native Infantry, son of the Rev. George Marshall, of Donagh, county Donegal, to Charlotte, daughter of the late J. Lambert, of Aggarelhouse, county Galway, Esq.

At Bangalore, Madras, Captain Lachlan Macqueen, 3d Light Cavalry, Deputy Judge Advocate General, to Harriet, daughter of the late John Greig, and niece of Lady Rollo.

DEATHS.

At Clontarf, Lieut.-Colonel Moore, K.H. 54th Regiment, son of the late John Moore, Esq. of Drumbanagher, co. Armagh.

Abraham Orpen Palmer, Esq. solicitor, son of Abraham Palmer, Esq. of Lower Dominick-street.

In Tralee, Henry, son of Thomas A. Blennerhassett, Esq. Mr. Patrick Dalton, town councillor of Waterford.

At his residence, Ardrinane, Kerry, Rowland Morphy, Esq. In Mungret-street, Mary, wife of Mr. John Nealon, baker.

At Sunday's Well, Mary, daughter of Mr. Dan. O'Keeffe, Church-st. Cork.

At Shandrum-house, William Allen, Esq.

At her residence, Sunday's Well, Cork, at an advanced age, Elizabeth, relict of the late William Swinburn, Esq.

On Sunday last, at Tully, parish of Glenroe, of fever, Mr. Dennis O'Halloran, a celebrated performer on the Union Pipes. He was a man of correct conduct and inoffensive manners—much respected by all his acquaintance. He was patronized by many families of rank in the counties of Limerick, Cork, Tipperary, and Waterford. His demise will be regretted by all lovers of our national music.

At Rathyark, Wexford, Sarah, wife of Surgeon Robert Cardiff.

William Patterson, Esq. merchant, Donegal-street, Belfast. Amelia, wife of Captain J. Salvin, Nottingham-street, New-road.

At Broomrig, Clackmannanshire, Captain John Francis Erskine, of the Stirlingshire Militia, eldest son of the Hon. Henry David Erskine, and grandson of the late Earl of Mar.

At Cornwallis, Nova Scotia, Eliza, widow of Lieut. P. W. Burke, late 2d Garrison Battalion.

On his passage to Porto Rico, Charles Stewart, Esq. sub-inspector of her Majesty's Customs, Barbice.

In Tralee, of fever, William Bateman, Esq. Stamp Distributor for Kerry.

At Clare Street, Mrs. Scanlan.

At Kinsale, Joseph S. Irwin, aged 18, eldest son of Captain Irwin, Inspecting Commander of Coast Guard.

At Dinapoor, Bengal, H. W. Davenport, Esq., Lieutenant 39th Regiment, son of Admiral Sir S. H. Davenport.

cant, to the those the Moneygariff lying and be Upper Court unsold port to be sold in for the purpose Dated this

The above House, and 100 statute with an abutment Town of Ballymore are distant Rathkeale,

For stated apply to Messrs Attornies, Rathkeale, Esq. the Re

The Rev. E. Conyers, others.

Pierce Cross and several

Chambers of to the highest Towns and heige, Dun Clahandyse, otherwise I macaddy, Caherulla, Meenogahar Tulloghna, County of Lisboughtin Aghnagreen Iraghticonn competent mentioned.

The above 12th day of aforesaid.

For rental apply to Messrs Attornies, Rathkeale, STOKES, Esq. Gloucester.