

Queen's Bays, has left
has left Athlone to 13th
taken the command
command of the local
to exchange with Capt.
sars, had his leg and
horse at Maidstone, Creagh, were reviewed
at Jersey, on Thursday.
y, well disciplined, and lin, 98th, (late of 1st
Com. Gen. Dalrymple,
ampton, from the West
ort George, Inverness, week from the Rev.

h or King's) will suc-
as Governor of Jersey.
Master-General of the
of health.
ppbell inspected head-
at Castlebar, on Wed-
rs of the mess.
week the Constabulary

ween Captain C., and
Mr. Inspector Walker,
the Magistrates.
embarked on Friday
for Gibraltar, prepa-
Regiment.
on Saturday, by the

the Royal Artillery now
the establishment is
A. in the recruiting months, has not observed 6d. a day retir-great obstacle in every conduct advance of
for a trivial offence.
very successful rais-
have working pay,
will complete the esta-
and Infantry, but the Navy in 1778, died at

At St. Nicholas' Church, Cork, Joseph Spearing, Esq. to Anna, daughter of John Bennett, Esq. of Ballyphehane-house.
In St. Peter's Church, Charles Palmer Archer, jun. Esq.
Barrister-at Law, eldest son of Charles Palmer Archer, Esq.
of Ballybrack, Killiney, county Dublin, to Anna, daughter of the late F. Mills, Esq. of Mountjoy-square, At Spiddal, Galway, Mr. George Brown, R.N. to Susan, eldest daughter of Mr. H. Carr, R.N.
In Ardnaree Church, Charles Atkinson, Esq. Ballina, county
Mayo, to Margaret, eldest daughter of the late John Whittaker, Esq.
In the Cathedral Church of Dromore, Thomas Bullick, Esq. of Aughagallon, county Antrim, to Anne, daughter of the late Ralph Bullick, Esq. of Drumbane, near Moira, co. Down.
At Preston, John Crofton, Esq. Major of the 6th Royal Regiment, grandson of the late Sir Morgan Crofton, of Mohill-court, county of Leitrim, Bart. to Anne Agnes, only child of John Addison, Esq.
James Bramwell, of Whitehall-place, Esq. nephew of Alderman Thompson, M.P. for Westmorland, to Sybal Selby, daughter of James Renshaw, of West Heath House, Kent, Esq.
The Rev. Wm. W. Webb Bowen, Vicar of Camrose, to Olivia, only daughter of the late Captain Charles Duffin, of the Bengal Cavalry.
At St. John's Episcopal Chapel, Edinburgh, Edwin Wodehouse, Esq. R.A. eldest son of the late Vice Admiral the Hon.
Philip Wodehouse, to Catherine, only daughter of the late Captain John Street, R.A.
Richard Byrne, Esq. Cassino, Malahide, son of Thomas Byrne, Esq. Ballybohill, Swords, to Maria Teresa, daughter of James Sheridan, Esq. Eden Hill, Killester.
Thomas M'Cammon, Esq. of Belfast, to Susanna Catherine, daughter of Thomas Plaisted Davis, Esq. R.N.
Richard Keating, Esq. Manager of the National Bank at Cashel, to Ellen Catherine, daughter of late Philip Ennis, Esq.
William Paterson, Esq. M.D. Rothsay, to Rachel, daughter of William Balfour, Esq.
Chevalier John Sobieski Stuart, to Georgina, eldest daughter of Edward Kendall, Esq. of Cheltenham.

DEATHS.

On Tuesday morning, at Churchtown, county Cork, at the house of his mother, George Augustus Barry, son of the late Patrick Barry, Esq. M.D.
Catherine, relict of the late James Donegan, Esq. of Ballin-
hassig, county Cork.
In Cove, Mrs. John Prinville.
In Killarney, Mr. Bertram, Steward of the Earl of Kenmare.
At the Franciscan Convent, Nuns' Island, Galway, Sister Mary Clare French, at an advanced age—sixty years of which she has been a professed religious.
Rev. Patrick Farrelly, for several years Parish Priest of Anna
East, county Cavan, and diocese of Kilmore.
At Telegraph Court, Newry, Margaret, daughter of Mr, James Henderson.
Barbara, wife of John Phayre, Builder, William-st. Dublin.
In Buckingham-place, Edmond Fitzpatrick, Esq. solicitor.
At Hampstead, Anne Murray, widow of the late John Murray, Esq. of Albemarle-street.
At Winchcomb, Mr. Joseph Parris, aged 87.
At Hull, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Geo. Floyd, of her Majesty's Customs at that port.
At Bastard, Canada, Dr. Joseph Elmore, aged 76.
Thomas Wybrants, Esq. M.D. of Springfield, King's County.
In Hatch-street, Mary, relict of the late Henry O'Hara, of Dublin, Esq.
In Hatch-street, Henry Gaven, Esq.
At Little Massingham, Norfolk, aged 10, Frances, daughter of the Rev. C. D. Brereton.
At sea, on the coast of Africa, of fever, Lieut. H. F. Elliot, son of Admiral the Hon. George Elliot.

I have the honor to be,
Your obed
T
55, George's-street, O

25 TO THE M
of the Cou

MY LORDS AND C
BY the death of my ev
Vacancy has occur
your County. From the ceived from many of yo opportunity of Canvassing
myself as a candidate for t
be honoured by your sele pride to endeavour to fulfil satisfactorily, as it has been Years. The afflicted state me from personally solliciti in a few days to be able to
I have the honour to ren men, your most obedient

Corball House, Oct. 15

26 TO Magistrates of
LIMERICK

MY LORDS AND GENTLM
A VACANCY having oc
surer of this County,
as a Candidate for the sit familiar acquaintance with an anxious desire to discha
to the Public, may entitle m ration and support.
I have th
My I

Limerick, Oct. 15.

27 TO Magistrates of LIMERICK

MY LORDS AND GEN
THE death of POOLE GA disposal the Office of
and as I have been warmly
trust that if elected to the C
with efficiency, integrity, a
I have th
My Lor
You

Maryville, Croom, Oct. 1