

letter was read from Mr. Patrick
ning his office as guardian for the south
In the house, 1180 paupers.

car fell in at the lower lock of the Canal
ed rapidly down by the flood-gates, under between the Malls, under the new Bridge,
-house, where a row boat came to the e poor struggling animal was secured by who cut the harness, and brought him
o Arthur's-quay, where hundreds were ehold the horse again on terra firma.

ow two companies of the 49th will arrive
at Carrick-on Shannon.

Adams, 49th, Athlone, and Col. Bun-ublin, are gone on leave of absence.

s of the English Militia have been ordered return of the Officers of their respective with a view of superseding those that are d supplying their places with young men.

py to announce the promotion of Assist-Robert Bernard, son of Dr. John Bernard, also of the Royal Navy, to the rank of ference to the respect which the Admi-
the memory and services of the late Asn Sidney Bernard, of the Eclair.

or J. Kelly, of Wexford, succeeds the late M'Sweeny, at Arthurstown.

Rev. Dr. Kennedy, R. C. Bishop of Kilom Rome, Nov. 25, thus:—"My visit had no relation whatever, directly or the Colleges' Act, the Bequests' Act, or
t. To discharge a duty to which I was ed on the day of my consecration, and to y own eyes the wonders of the 'Eternal
d shall continue to be, its sole, its exclu-Indeed, though I have been here for the
, and have had the honour of paying my Holiness, and to some of the Cardinals,
at I have not had, and it is equally true, desire, to have any conversation on such r with those exalted personages, or with owever remotely connected with the Court with any other Court."

el Paper of this day states—Various ru-circulation, in consequence of the abscondof the clerks in the National Bank. We rned that the deficiency created by the the parties is £2,200. The clerks have fled.
arn, who was extensively engaged in the
, and brewing business, was arrested by n suspicion of being implicated in the de-two highly respectable gentlemen entered or his appearance at next assizes.
ng Mr. Hearn left his residence in Bag-nd proceeded to his brewery in Morton-he committed the rash act of suicide, by self in one of the vats. He was discovered to the head in water that had lain there for at and cravat were placed on top of the vat.
event was known the town presented a consternation. Some of his heaviest creat his establishment, and his desk being e of his connections four letters were dis-ed to different persons, communicating the that before their contents should be peru-
be no longer an inhabitant of this world.
as a man of unexceptionable character up and has left a young wife and two chilay speculations, to a large amount; it e the cause of the difficulties which his t bear up against, and after a patient
e Wm. Ryan, Esq. coroner, the jury dict that "the deceased was drowned in bouting under temporary derangement."

At Tirhoot, Bombay, D. Russell Crawford, Esq. to Alicia Baldwin, only daughter of the late Captain T. Chatterton, of the 3d Buffs.

DEATHS.

At his residence at Newcastle, after a long and protracted illness, which he bore with Christian patience, James Armstrong, Esq. Sub-Inspector of Police.

From fever, at his residence, Ballybunnion, the Rev. Robert Bell, curate of that parish.

At his residence, Great George's-street, Cork, Thomas Newsom, Esq. after a protracted illness. Mr. Newsom had been engaged in trade for years in Limerick.

At Monkstown, Cork, of inflammation of the throat, Mr.
James Barry, Hotel-keeper.

At Skibbereen, Margaret, relict of the late Wm. N. Wade, Chief Officer of the Coast Guard, Skull.

At Clonmel, suddenly, Mr. Alexander Seyton, son of Mrs.
Seyton, of the Theatre Royal, Cork.

At Tralee, Tryphena, wife of Mr. William Anderson, C.E.

At his residence, Baggot-place, South Circular Road, Doctor John O'Brien, late Fellow of the King and Queen's College of Physicians. For thirty years senior physician to the Fever Hospital, Cork-street.

At his residence, Nuns'-island, Galway, Wm. O'Grady, Esq.
M.R.C.S.L.

At Portarlington, Mrs. Mary Magdalen Breen, of the Presentation Convent of that town, in the 70th year of her age, and the 41st of her religious profession.

At her residence in Upper Dorset-street, in her 82d year, Mary, relict of Hamilton Cross, Esq. late of Dublin, and formerly of Clones, county Monaghan.

In Summerstown, county Meath, at an advanced age, Mrs.
Ingham, relict of the Rev. Charles David Ingham.

At Phibsborough, Mr. Henry Blundell, Printer.

In the 110th year of his age, at his residence, Springvale, Mayo, Henry Blake, Esq.

At Pearmount, Donnycarney, the residence of her son, Mrs.
Carrick.

Justice Brennan, Esq. Rockfield, Wexford.

At Parsonstown, in the 83rd year of his age, Mr. Sargent Pratt, late of Viewmount, Queen's County.

Richard Joseph, son of the late Joseph Montgomery, Esq.
Eccles-street.

Teresa, daughter of Charles Frazer Frizell, of Stapilin House, county Dublin.

Suddenly, at Tivoli-place, Cheltenham, Mary, relict of Captain Edward Herbert, R.N. and mother of Mrs. Gregory.

At Torquay, Captain the Hon. Charles Leonard Irby.

At the Lodge in Hyde Park, Mary Cecilia, daughter of Henry Frederick and Lady Mary Stephenson.

At Cambridge, Eliza, wife of Zachariah Scrope Shrapnel, of St. Peter's College, son of the late Lieut. Gen. Shrapnel, R.A.

At Cunningham-place, St. John's-wood, Richard Barney, Esq.

In Wyndham-street, Bryanston-square, Miss Wyatt, aged 75.

At Paisley, the Very Rev. Dean Wade.

At Dunoon, Sarah Rowena Lang, wife of Mr. John Russell, merchant, Glasgow.

William Stocks, Esq. Accountant, Union Bank of Scotland, Glasgow.

Suddenly, at Glasgow, Jane M'Intyre, relict of Captain George M'Gie, R.M.

At Lathrow, Kinross-shire, William Blackwood Macara.

At Shaw-street, Greenock, aged 76 years, Mr. John M'Farlane, late harbourmaster.

Suddenly, at the Mause of Dallas, the Rev. William Tulloch, aged 70 years.

Mr. Cornelius Ashley, of the Strand.

At Weston House, Norfolk, Hambleton Thomas Custance, Esq.

In Somerset-street, Portman-square, Mrs. Harriet Cheshire.

At Calcutta, John Campbell Dick, Esq. Bengal Civil Service, son of the late M. Dick, Esq. of Richmond Hill, Surrey.

At Halifax, Nova Scotia, Mary, wife of James C. Tobin, Esq.

At Halifax, Alice Power, wife of Mr. Thomas Mooney, a native of Kilmacthomas, county Waterford.

At Quebec, Grace, wife of Mr. R. C. Todd, artist.

At Bath Lodge, Ballycastle, Jane, wife of the Rev. Thomas Hincks.

At the residence of her nephew, Mr. T. Carmody, confectioner, Patrick st. Miss Margaret Rice.

At Ballinderra, county Westmeath, aged 86 years, Grace, relict of the late Walley Archer, Esq. of Portarlington.

At Bellefield, Roebuck, of scarletina. W. Kinahan, son of D.
Kinahan, Esq.

George, infant son of A. Nolan, Esq. Nenagh.

At Digges-street, Mr. Abraham Beeres, apothecary.

At his residence, Blackhall-place, James Hurke, Esq. Town Councillor for St. Paul's ward.

At Belfast, Henry J. Blake, Esq. second son of the late James Blake, Esq. Cross Castle, county Galway.

At his residence, Summerhill, Mr. Michael Hogan.

At the Vicarage, Wadhurst, Sussex, in the 75th year of his age, the Rev. Robert Barlow Gardiner, vicar of that parish.

with a litter of Horses, pair of B
well bred, a capit
and trained to ca
an excellent Hu
Fashionable Lig
same as new; L
moving seats, e
shilling outlay;
Limerick, not s
two horses; an
light, and stylis
German Blinds,
Top, Imperial & Double set of Harness; Hunt
Bridles, Horse
on raised Stan
Cart and Tacklin
Scuffler, Turnip
Cots, Dairy Ves
prime Crow Pot
40 barrels of Wh
of superior Uplat
of Swedish Tur
lots; one Acre of other Farming re
Terms—CASH
commission, in a Recollec

December 13.

46
OR T T THAT part of
between Ger
ing about 8½ Acre
ingly rich, tastefu
for building.
Apply to RYAN
mission Agents,
receive application
pied by Thomas street, near the C
ing 10,000 Barrels

27
THE
MR. M
121.
R RETURNS tha
Limerick, a
for the flattering
his stay in Limeri
patrons and the p
their advantage a portunity of gettin
in Oils or Daguer
for the Continent
Portraits in Oi
reotype Portraits

THE USUAL
bers to the C
HOSPITAL, will tel
LEVILLE, on WE O'Clock.

December 13.