done to promote the happiness and comfort of his fellow-citizens. The ceremony having concluded, the court soon cleared, but the mob not content with their gross affronts to the old Mayor, again assailed him with shouts of disapprobation on passing on to the Exchange, whither he was followed, and they even attempted personal violence to him. Shortly after Alderman Geary, surrounded by a few friends, proceeded home, a mob yelling at him all the way in the streets. The new Mayor was escorted to his residence by the Temperance bands, and a crowd of Repealers.

At Petty Sessions, yesterday, John M'Namara and Christopher Flannery, collectors of custom at Thomondgate, were charged by Constable Coe, with instigating three young urchins to steal straw from countrymen's cars, but for want of sufficient evidence, they were let off with a reprimand. Informations were ordered against Margaret Conway, for receiving stationery, stolen from the shop window of Mr. T. M'Auliff, George's-street. Five drunkards were fined 2s. 6d. each, and Patrick Connelly 20s., for attempting to stab his father with a knife.

David Shaughnessy, a carpenter, from Ballysimon, who came into Limerick on Thursday, to make arrangements relative to compensation for his lands by the Waterford and Limerick Railway, was found drowned in the river at the lower quays, yesterday, having, it is supposed fallen in the night before while in a state of intoxication.

Fines to the amount of £25 have been this week inflicted by the Tralee magistrates on five parties, at the prosecution of John Weeks, Esq. Inspector of Weights and Measures, for using illegal weights, &c.

The Christmas day's entertainment for the Tralee paupers increased the average expense of 357 persons from 1s. 6½d. to 1s. 11d.

At Quebec last month the weather had been more severe that it was in the frightful climate of Moscow in 1812. The thermometer was ten degrees below zero, and the snow in heaps more than fifteen feet deep, and falling so thick that it was impossible to see at a distance of a few feet. The broad St. Lawrence is not only covered with floating ice, but it is heaped one piece above another, rendering it almost impossible even for the hardy canoemen of Point Levy to cross.
