

resford, the original
indisposed.

YLUM.

Asylum, finding that relatively been excluded
aritable refuge, have
og by circular the co-k in its support. At a t Rev. Dr. Ryan, in

and seconded una-

Ladies of Limerick
appeal to be made on Magdalen Asylum, and to

charity of our fellow-
tee of the Magdalen
strong reliance upon
of Limerick. It is

naturally encouraged to
ough the medium of
ale can hope to secure

se classes in society
rtunately command
e character, but trust-

the beauty with which
can they more con-
mercy, as the first

mercy; and she who oman of the city, is attent at the feet of

her tears, and wiping Madam, that if the
ad the misfortune to

they labour to imitate
nd that they embrace
ey may be permitted to

their lives, and whence
urn to their humble
ened in religion, and

the afflicted families,
elings they had unhap-
Heaven for one sinner

9 just who had no
you not deserve who
that they ask for at repent. Do not, we ed back into a cold, a

e the hand of mercy

to them the shelter of labour "to make to
b you shall fail, will
ngs."
nmittec,
SYNAN, Secretary.
sylum, Dec. 30.

At Walton-on-the-Hill, Lancashire, Samuel M'Naughton, Esq. to Jane Henrietta, daughter of the late Mr. S. Walmsley, of Everton, and niece to the late General Sir Arthur Brook. At Glasgow, the Rev. Peter Napier, of the College Church, to Margaret Scales, relict of George Glen, Esq.

DEATHS.

On Sunday morning, the 28th ult. at Timoleigue, county Cork, of malignant typhus fever, Mrs. Lucas, wife of John Evans Lucas, Esq. and daughter of James D'Arcy Evans, of Knockaderry House, in this County, Esq. A large circle of sincerely attached friends and relatives have heard with grief of the death of this estimable person, whose conversation, full of gentleness and charity, delighted them as much as her solid and uniform virtues instructed them in all the relations of life. But no words can tell the desolate sorrow of her fond husband, nor the awful loss which her seven young and interesting children have suffered in the death of a mother, whose good sense, benevolent and religious habits, would easily and securely lead them to the practice of every pure and exemplary virtue. Her remains were interred in the family vault at Timoleigue Church on Wednesday last.

At his residence, Carysfort-avenue, Blackrock, near Dublin, James Bateman, Esq. Captain in the Royal Downshire Militia, and a Deputy Governor of that county.

At Birr, aged 84, Stephen Collins, Esq. late senior Major 61st Regiment. He retired from the Army in the year 1807, having served the campaign in Egypt.

At Day-place, Tralee, Mary, only daughter of the late Thomas Hussey, Esq. of Dingle.

At Gortroe, of fever, Stephen O'Reardon, Esq. for many years Coroner of the county Kerry. Mary, wife of Mr. Henry Quinlan. The Rev. Edmond Cronyn, Curate of Odogh.

At Ballinasloe, Jane, eldest daughter of Wm. Murray, Esq. late Supervisor of Excise.

At Clark's Bridge, Mary, wife of Mr. Denis O'Donoghue, leather sutter.

At St. Olave's, Waterford, Mrs. Robinson. At the Fanning Institution, Waterford, Mr. J. L. R. Hackett. Of scarletina, Martha and George, children of George Thompson, Esq. of Cotlandstown, county Kildare.

Thomas Spence, Esq. for 30 years a teacher in the Royal Belfast Institution. At his residence, Kilbogget, county Dublin, Wm. Sherrard, Esq.

At Upper Erne-street, Margaret, wife of Edward Naghten, Esq. of Littleton, county Westmeath. John M'Clintock, Esq. of Newtown House, county Louth. Joseph Wright, Esq. of Carabor, county Monaghan, in the 85th year of his age.

At Poplar Vale, county Monaghan, aged 87, Alicia, relict of Major Richardson, D.L. and J.P. At Harleyford-place, Kennington, Miss Barker. John Searle, Esq. of Molesworth, Huntingdonshire, in the 79th year of his age.

At the Rectory, Settrington, Yorkshire, in his eighty-third year, the Rev. Henry John Todd, Rector of Settrington, Archdeacon of Cleveland, and Chaplain in Ordinary to the Queen. At Clifton, aged eighty-one, Meliora Burges Butler, widow of the late John Butler Butler, Esq. Commissary General in her Majesty's service.

Thomas Watson, Esq. of the Long Room, Custom House, in his 81st year. At Stockwell-common, T. Streatfield, Esq. in his 74th year. At Longdon, Staffordshire, William Houghton, Esq. late of the Irish Exchequer Office, in his 77th year. Philip Boulter Cooke, Esq. solicitor, of Gloucester.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, William Hallett, Esq. At South-hill House, Kingsmill, fourth son of William Pennefather, Esq. of Lakefield, county Tipperary, aged 11 years. At Athy, Charles Bristow, Esq. On Saturday last, at his cousin's house, Cornwallis-street, Edward Bourke, Esq. late Accountant of the National Bank, Kilmash.

At Smithstown, Dunshaughlin, James Logan, Esq. brother to the late Right Rev. Dr. Logan, R. C. Bishop of Meath. At Glasslough, county Monaghan, Robert Killen, Esq. Of apoplexy, at Back-lane, Mrs. Julia Byrne, leather seller. At Guernsey, Miss Elizabeth Le Marchant, in the 84th year of her age. At Guernsey, James William, eldest son of Christopher Daniel Hayes, Esq. of Chapel-house, Isle of Thanet. At an advanced age, Francis Plaistow Trapaud, Esq. late of Potters-bar, Middlesex. At Coatbridge, on the 25th inst. the Rev. John Fraser, minister of Gartsherrie Church. At Greenock, on the 24th inst. the Rev. Angus M'Bean, minister of the Free Gaelic Church. At Holdfast, Worcestershire, Lieut.-Colonel William Lewis Herford, formerly of the 23d Royal Welsh Fusileers.

or on application to Mr. MARSHAL
If not sold by private sale,
AUCTION, at Mr. MARSHAL
next regular monthly sale day
JANUARY.

LYING-IN

ELECTION OF F
THE COMMITTEE of the HOSPITAL hereby give Election for four medical Att
year is appointed to take plac day of JANUARY inst, at the Proxies are admissible, wh
scription of One Pound. Su previously to voting.
Ballot opens at Twelve o'Cl

COBU
United Service
FOR JANUARY, 18

1. The Submarine Propeller, or Archimidean Screw.
2. On the Military Feeling, Institutions, and Instructions of Great Britain.
3. Ziela, the Battle Field of Veni, Vidi, Vici.
4. The Curiosities of War; a Discourse upon the Ancient Fortifications of England.
5. Memoirs of an old Sailor.
6. The Evil Eye.
7. The Cabool Captives. By Captain Airey, 3d Buffs.
8. The Military Constitution of our Indian Empire, No. 3.
9. An Incident in Basque Roads. By Flexible Grummet.
10. The Surprise. An Incident of the late War.

H. HURST, Publisher,
Strand.

TO B

FROM THE 25TH DAY
LONG

THE HOUSE and Dem
in the County of Lin Plantation measure, be order, and on which is situate on the banks of th
Mile of the Town of Rath
cellent order and contain Bedchambers, Kitchen,
with good Offices, and a
Application to be m
JULIUS DELMEGE, Esq
GUSON, Esq. 6, Lower C