JUNCTION RAILWAY.

THE Provisional Committee of management beg to state for the information of parties interested, that the Plans, Sections, and Books of Reference of this Line have been duly lodged with the Board of Trade, Clerks of the Peace and of the Unions, and in the Parliamentary offices within the time required by the Standing Orders. Also, that the Notices to Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers have been duly served, and that every necessary step has been taken for going before Parliament for a Bill in the ensuing Session. They feel perfectly confident that a line of Railway so essential to the interests of two large Cities, which shortens the distance between them, as compared with any Railways yet projected 25 miles, and which is supported by all the landed proprietors and residents along its course, cannot possibly fail to obtain the sanction of Parliament in the approaching session. They cannot declare their perfect assurance of this result, and of the accuracy of the surveys, notices, &c. more decidedly than by stating, in accordance with the recommendation of the London Committee, that all persons taking shares in this Company, shall be returned their deposits without any deduction, whatsoever, if the Bill should not pass the Standing Orders of the House of Commons

DEAR SIR—In answer to your enquiries, I beg state the Potatoes I planted with Guano were i equal to those planted with farm-yard manure, that in all cases both with regard to my own and th belonging to the country people, whom I recomme to you, the potatoes planted in Guano have l

Mr. Joseph Robinson.
DEAR SIR—In answer to your enquiry as to how crops turned out with the Guano which I had from last year, I am happy to inform you, that they l proved as good as those manured with the best dun If what you have coming now, be equal in qua 4th January, 1846.

DEAR SIR—Agreeably to my promise to you April, on the result of my trial of your Guano in cultivation of Mangel Wurzel, I beg to say th manured three rods of land, one with Limerick st dung, one with farm-yard manure, and one with Guano
The Mangel Wurzel manured with your Guano v tated much sooner than the others, producing ri and larger leaves, and continued green until Septen and October, when they were given to the Cows; the Bulbs of the Mangel Wurzel produced by the Gu were decidedly one-fourth more than those grown i the other manures.
I am, Dear Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
