

commensurate with by even annual pay-payments for a limited ascending scale.
 ality exercised by the ms, the Company will die within one month es due, provided the lated period.
 no fraud is suspected,
 d to arbitration.
 any kind are exacted
 s beyond the cost of may be obtained at the

LIMERICK, OBINSON.
 y and Secretary

ble Roofing,
 ED BY E & SONS,

to direct the attention
 nitects, and the Public PHALTED ROOFING
 s, out-Buildings, Corn slates or thatch, at a ofing by the ordinary ong fibrous materials oletely saturated with hich renders it totally

 and not liable to crack s of temperature, they g it as the most efficient hitherto discovered.

onsist in its cheapness,
application; a handy large house in a few

ONLY ONE PENNY
 OR EIGHT PENCE WIDE.

Webbs of 32 inches nd parties giving the ve it cut off from the ns, thus saving unne-

quantities punctually out delay by N, AGENT,
 Warehouse, 3, George's-
 ick,
 rous FELT for Linng
 lace of Lead.

January ~4.

At Messina, D. Francesco de Corné, son of the late D. Giovanni de Corné, Secretary of Roads and Bridges in the kingdom of Naples, to Rosina, daughter of Captain Drew, R.A. aud niece of the Marquis de Montobello.

DEATHS.

At Woodville, Sandford, Mrs. Leland, widow of the late Thomas Leland, Esq. of Fitzwilliam-square.

On the 24th instant, at Castle-Connell, to the inexpressible grief of a truly disconsolate and afflicted husband, Elizabeth, the dearly beloved wife of Matthew St. George, of Kilcolgan Castle, in the county of Galway. The best of wives, a most anxious and affectionate parent, and a truly warm-hearted and sincere friend. To quit this world of trial, after years of suffering under a harrassing and painful illness, was to her, indeed, a happy release, trusting as she did implicitly in the righteousness of her REDEEMER and his finished salvation, filled with that blessed hope which removes from death its sting and the grave its victory, she sank into blissful repose, without a sigh or a struggle, and fell asleep in JESUS, chaunting with faultering accents

"Come thou long expected JESUS, Born to set thy people free."

At Askeaton, Mrs. Quin, daughter of Mrs. Sheshy, of Adare.

At Charlotte Quay, Cork, John, son of Bartholomew Gib-bings, Esq.

At Ballinderry, Kilconnell, Mary, daughter of Thomas Bodkin, Esq.

At her residence, George's-street, Cork, at an advanced age, Miss Upton, daughter of the late Giles Upton, Esq.

Mrs. Freeman, relict of the late Mr. John Freeman, of the Royal Hotel, Boyle.

At Cabinteely, Joseph Richard, only son of the late Mr.
 Joseph Carson, of Lower North Cumberland-street, Dublin.

At her residence, Selskar, Wexford, Harriet, relict of Captain James Brunker, 5th Dragoon Guards.

At Hillsborough, Thomas Nesbitt Moorehead, Esq. M.D.

At the residence of his daughter and son-in-law, in Gloucestershire, Isaac Ryall, Esq. M.D. father of Dr. John Ryall, LL.D. Vice President of the Queen's College, Cork.

Suddenly, while preaching a funeral sermon in the parish church of Spaxton, of which place he was Rector, the Rev.
 William Henry George.

In Westbourne-street, Miss Pakington, daughter of the late Sir Herbert Pakington, Bart.

The Hon. Mrs. G. G. Lynn.

At Acomb, near York, Joseph Tate Wilkinson, Esq. Patentee of the Theatres Royal, York and Hull, in his 77th year.

At Edinburgh, Alexander Gillespie, Esq. of Sunnyside Lodge, near Lanark.

At Hurrock Wood, Ullawater, in his 77th year, the Rev.
 John Hutchinson.

At Bath, Mrs. Partris, foundress of the retreat of the widows and daughters of clergymen, named "Partris College."

At Monkrigg, near Haddington, the Hon. William Keith, Captain, Royal Navy.

Mr. Nicholas Winsland, of the firm of Winsland and Holland, builders, Duke-street, Bloomsbury.

James Thompson, Esq. of Moresdale, Westmoreland, brother of Alderman Thompson, M.P.

At Gresham-terrace, Dalston, Captain J. Taylor, in his 74th year.

At Bath, Charlotte, relict of Lieut.-General W. H. Cameron, in her 82d year.

At Coln Lodge, Twickenham, Captain Robert Cockerill, formerly of the 67th Regiment.

At Paris, Constantine Korke, Esq. son of the late Andrew Rorke, Esq. of Tyrell's Town, county Dublin.

At Aix-la Chapelle, Sir John Rousselet Whitefeord, in his 88th year.

At Montserrat, West Indies, on a visit to his sister, the lady of E. F. Furlonge, Esq. Rowland, son of the late Michael Burke, Esq. of St. Christopher, and grandson of the late Admiral Sir George Tahie.

to the 31st December wish to insure their l
 the opportunity they so soon to be declare posals.

The following are t rance of £100 for the half credit may be allo
 may remain unpaid at ducted at Death from

Example.—A pers premium of £2, be attaining the age of 7 die before arriving at

Age.	Withou
	£
20	1
30	2
40	2
50	4

Annual premium f
 xed age, or at death
 attains that age:—

Age when assured,	AGE	Six
		£ s
20	2
30	3
40	4
50	10	1

Every Information
 to the Resident Direct Waterloo Place. Pro
 nesdays at three o'clo ance may be made Frederick Hale Thon
 geon, is in attendanc
 For the convenienc they may make their examination before Leeks, Esq., 4, Scot
 and S. F. Youde, Esq.

Cork, Messrs. T.
 Tralee, Daniel Sup
 Esq., Solicito
 Listowell, Edmon
 Dundalk, Alexand
 Dublin, Mr. Alde
 Belfast, Thomas M

AG Willia
 LAND AGENT, 16