

ent day, the principles of Life Assurance known, and its advantages so justly appreciated, little explanation is required, The duty of the contingencies to which life is subject admitted. To all persons engaged in the of the Church, Army, and Navy, Law, in s; Medical and other Professional men; se incomes depend upon their own exertions Life Assurance, to enable them to provide ost for their wives and families, is evident ount. Among its other advantages may be the security offered to Creditors by Assu- es of their debtors; Fines payable on res- s on lives may be provided whenever they d for; Loans effected on Life Interest, and ned or annuity may be secured; Marriage may be effected.

t increase of Insurance Societies that has red, manifests that their utility is more whilst the multiplication of Offices has in- petition leading to a ruinous reduction of he consequences of which are too disastrous at.

inciples on which this Company is founded ed after mature consideration; and to the offers the combined advantages of the most establishments of its kind that have been ate years—moderate rates of premium and a rtion of profits. The soundness of its prin- the extensive influence exercised by the have placed the Company on a sure basis; umulations have been so considerable as o benefit the Policy holders.

cts of the Company extend to assurances on urvivorships, and every other contingency, chese of Life Interests and Annuities. s of Premium adopted by this company have est of twenty years' experience, and are cal- such equitable and correct principles as en- e the confidence of the public.

are prepared, enabling persons to insure eicipating in profits, or at the least possible he former method they realize all the objects urance, and benefit by their own longevity, e speculative risk of Mutual Assurance urances for limited periods, or for securing ble Society's Bonus of 1850, the rates of this will be found peculiarly advantageous.

Investigation of the affairs of the Company made for five years ending 31st December of the Profits thereby ascertained to have ur-fifths have been apportioned among the y the participating scale, for the whole term one or more year's standing, in proportion a paid by each; and appropriated, at the he assured, either as a Reversionary Bonus, hen the Policy becomes a claim, or its value the reduction of subsequent premiums. The y Bonus averages 31 per cent. on the premiums g the last five years. The equivalent re- Premiums payable during the next five years. y of notice, that the profits of the Life Assu- are not subject to any diminution from pay- ment to proprietors.

ra premium will be charged on the Lives of r Nival Men, unless they enter or are called

DEATHS.

On Monday night last, Mary, the beloved wife of H. N. Seymour, Esq. of Shelbourne, North Strand.
 On Sunday last, at her house, in Glentworth-street, Jane, relict of the late Mr. William Massy, of this City.
 At his residence in Old Clare-street, Mr. Stephen Drysdale. In Ballingarry, on Sunday last, aged 23 years, Eliza, eldest daughter of the late Mr. Wm. M'Carthy.
 At his residence, Castleview, Montenegro terrace, Cork, Denham Franklin, Esq. Solicitor.
 William Armstrong Creed, Esq. formerly of the 4th (or King's Own) Regiment of Foot.
 At Ballina, Henry William Knox Gore, Esq. late Lieutenant of the 69th Regt. son of the late James K. Gore, Esq. and Lady Louisa Knox Gore.
 At Galway, Mr. Bartholomew Flaherty.
 At Gort, Mary, wife of Mr. P. Burke.
 In Leeson-street, Bartholomew Bourk Mahon, Esq. Christopher Ormsby, Esq. of Cummin, son of the late John Ormsby, Esq. of Cummin, county Sligo.
 At Killevie Castle, county Armagh, Sarah Selina Welsh, relict of the late Robert Welsh, Esq. Barrister at-Law.
 At Carnaleck, county Sligo, Alicia, wife of John Gray, Esq. Henry, second son of Mr. Robert Meredith, of Sligo.
 Alicia Agnes, wife of Edward M. Kennedy, Esq. civil engineer.
 At Proby-square, Blackrock, Ellen Lucy, daughter of the late Richard Darling, Esq.
 At his residence in Eccles-street, Robert Norton, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.
 At Drimnagh Castle, county Dublin, in the 20th year of his age, Peter Christopher, son of the late Edward Cavanagh, Esq. Mr. Hugh M'Gottigan, of Creevy, parish of Mervagh, brother of the Right Rev. Dr. M'Gottigan.
 Jane Christiansa, wife of Patrick O'Sullivan, Esq. of Cottage, county Roscommon
 At River-view, Derry, Alexander, son of Harvey Nicholson, Esq.
 At Ballyhenry, county Wicklow, Thomas Norman, son of Livingston Thompson, Esq.
 Mr. John Glenn, of Derry, merchant.
 Louisa, relict of the late John Robinson, of Herbert-place.
 At the Molyneux Asylum, Peter-street, Edward Robert, son of Alexander H. Marks, Esq. M.D. Kingstown.
 At Tremadoc, Carnarvonshire, William Augustus Riddell Mapwell, Esq. late of the 2d West India Regiment.
 Joshua Anderson, Esq. of Carlisle, surgeon to the county gaol.
 At Huntly-place, Inverness, Mr. Donald M'Donald.
 In St. George's road, Southwark, Miss Grey, aged 98, sister to the late James Grey, Esq. partner of the late James Perty, of the Morning Chronicle.
 At Turnham Green, Miss Mary Preston.
 At Tunbridge Wells, Margaret, widow of A. F. Dobrée, Esq. of Guernsey.
 At his residence, Maida-hill, A. Gibbs, Esq. in the 70th year of his age.
 At Stonehaven, North Britain, Hugh Fullerton, Esq. Sheriff Substitute of Kincardineshire.
 In Upper Norton-street, Portland-place, Anna Maria, relict of the late William Humby, Esq.
 At his residence, Rookcliff, near Lymington, Hants, Sir James Rivett Carnac, Bart.
 At Charlton, Kent, Lieut.-General Sir Frederick William Mulcaster, K.C.H. late Inspector General of Fortifications, aged 74.
 At Baltimore, Mary, relict of the late Thomas M'Corkell, formerly of Derry.
 On Thursday last, at Killarney, George William Russell, Esq. late of George's-street, in this City.
 Saturday, on Charlotte's-quay, much regretted, Mr. John Browne, an old and respectable citizen.
 Theresa, daughter of Mr. Bannard, of Nenagh.
 At Cork, suddenly, James H. Brocas, Esq. eldest son of the late H. Brocas, Esq. of Dublin.
 At Newington Terrace, Rathmines, Maria Charlotte Burroughs, relict of the late William Burroughs, Esq. of Greenfield, county Dublin.
 At Kingstown, Henrietta, widow of the late Frederick Spear, Esq. of College-green.
 At his house, Margaret-street, Cavendish-square, Henry Rhodes, Esq. of her Majesty's Wood and Forests.
 At Marple Hall, Cheshire, Mary Anne, wife of Walter Skirrow, of Lincoln's-inn, Esq. Q.C. Commissioner in Bankruptcy.
 By a fall, at Bagnigge Wells, the Rev. W. Jones, Baptist Minister, aged 82.

A MEDICAL begs to inform Perfect Curing A PERSON Application 3, Upper Cam FEE—TWO

19 PERF IN TEN MIL

PULM

THE most SUMPTI ORDERS of t where perform Cures of Read the follo

Gentlemen, nies of relief a consumption, gratify me to really anxious they have deri I enclose a test genuine expe

Another Cur Read the follo Mr. Edward Hull, dated " Sir—Grat by the use of tressing asthm for the last fo surprising cur of those suffer

From " Sir—I ha my wife is a g your valuable day she took

" Dec. 31, Remarkable C

Sir—My li suffered lately uvula, so mu sional duties success, unti Wafers. Th and a cure s them, I find the voice. I c over without might make larly sufferin 49, Gre