

February 16, 1846.
 measure I send, for your
 and, to use a familiar meal of Indian corn.
 there is a mixture of in another, one-third composed of Indian Indian meal.
 trials by the contradic-
 the best mode of con-tious palatable food.—
 present from Canada,
 and by myself and my at I then esteemed a a luxury. I am of agree with me, that the flour is superior to also excellent. I have called Hommony of the ed, and seasoned with his to be an excellent
 s grain for human food.
 to our people is, to al as they have been d to cook oaten meal.
 ntages from what at will be deterred from for food; and I have e was a value set upon tion of potatoes, and thrice a day, and the in their drudgery that much cheaper food.
 now before us, of suf-
 e whole unemployed
 in the expectation of o its proper position desh meat, &c. as an
 to be esteemed as an or hogs.

occupying so much of me, with high respect,

BALD MATHEW.

ERICK CHRONICLE.
 m, Feb. 17th, 1846.
 m the public, through ated paper, that Fever, raging here. There is e localities here that is
 y. I am sorry to add, a great degree, by the servant,

 FITZGERALD.
 Croom and Fedamore

Bermuda.

In Ennis Church, by the Rev Charles Ward, John Morisy, Esq. to Anna Maria Antonia Volatti.

John Jackson, Esq. son of John Jackson, Esq. of Spynan'shouse, county Wicklow, to Margaret, daughter of Bartholomew Burland, Esq. of Loggan, county Wexford.

Mr. Charles M'Dermott, to Teresa, daughter of Mr. Joseph Brannan.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at his residence on Charlotte's-quay, Patrick Goulding, Esq. Town Councillor for John-street Ward—an active and benevolent citizen, whose patriotic arder, and strong sense of public principle, were not less admired by all who knew him, than his true kindness of heart and warmth of feeling in social and domestic life.

On the 19th instant, at Thomas street, aged 4 years, Jane, the beloved child of Mark T. O'Shaughnessy, Esq.

On the 19th inst. at his house in Leeson-street, Dublin, John Smith Furlong, Esq. Q.C. a highly respectable member of the profession, esteemed and regretted as a lawyer, a gentleman, and a friend. His remains are to be interred in the family vault on Monday.

Catherine, widow of the late James O'Shaughnessy, Esq. of Ballybricken.

In Ennis, Anne, wife of Mr. James Curtin, Printer.

At Harmony Avenue, Donnybrook, aged 71 years, the Rev.
 W. Kidd, Wesleyan Methodist Minister.

At Woodstown, Waterford, Bridget, daughter of Mr. Patrick Bolger.

At the Presentation Convent, Carrick-on-Suir, Mrs. Butler, aged 76 years. She had been blind for the past eight years.

In Waterford, Mrs. John Fahy.

At Gallen, on the Grand Canal, Mr. Andrew Morgan, in the 30th year of his age—50 of which he spent in the service of the Grand Canal Company.

At Upper Mount-street, Marcus Beresford, son of the Rev.
 Guy L'Estrange.

Julia Fitzroy Baillie, sister of John Maclean Baillie, of Sherwood Park, county Carlow.

At Braham, suddenly, the wife of the celebrated vocalist, Mr. Braham—a beautiful woman, formerly Miss Bolton, and mother of Lady Waldegrave.

Carroll Satchell, Esq. late Quartermaster 5th Royal Veteran Battalion.

At his seat, Ravensbourn Park, Kent, H. H. Doughty, Esq.
 Aged 94, Anne, relict of the late Isaac Dobrée, Esq. and sister of the late Lord De Saumarez and General Sir Thomas Saumarez.

Caroline, wife of Michael Prendergast, Esq. of Castle-street, Holborn, barrister-at law.

At Palace House, Lancashire, Elizabeth Holden, relict of the late J. Greenwood, Esq.

After an attack of measles, Mary, daughter of the late Sir Edward Mostyn, of Talacre, Flintshire, Bart.

At Bath, George Hartwell, Esq. late of the Bengal Civil Service, and of Laleham, Middlesex.

At Thornbury, Gloucestershire, suddenly, the Rev. Richard Whalley, Curate of that parish.

In Hyde Park-place, Mrs. Mackinnon, at an advanced age.
 Sir George William Lefevre, M.D. late Physician to the British Embassy at St. Petersburg.

At St. John's, New Brunswick, William, son of the late Captain Kenah, of the 104th Regiment.

At St. Mary's, Jamaica, Mr. Anthony Dogherty.

At Barbados, James Lynch O'Connor, Esq. M.D. of Trinidad.

In Upper Merrion-st. Maria, wife of John Scott Mills, Esq.
 Aged 80 years, Mr. Patrick Fallon, of Surrey-grove, Walworth.

At the College, Salisbury, John Campbell Wyndham, Esq.
 of Dunoon, Scotland.

Mr. J. D. Loder, violinist, leader of the Ancient and Philharmonic Concerts.

but they must be app-
 to sale.

Mr. CHARLES FAV
 heavy Railroad contrquire his entire and i interest in his present attached 10 acres of pr Kilmore contain 127 a session, are likewise t
 Particulars of the er

JA

February 14.

HIGHLY IMPOR

UN

AU

Of a Hundred-and-fift
 other Cattle, 150 v
 Sheep, 18 capital
 Horses and Colts, 1
 Score of Superior
 Farming Implemen-

MR. MARSH beg
 he has received of the late WILLIAM H
 without reserve at LIS
 Three Miles of Castlet nine of Mallow, on following day, at the
 the following valuable.

- 73 Highly Bred D
- Superior Milk
- 11 Three year old
- 9 Ditto
- 4 Young store B
- 25 Handsome Tw
- 25 Ditto Ye
- 1 Thorough-bred
- years old, off.
- 3 Highly bred Y
- 85 Superior Breed
- 66 Prime Fat She
- 7 Capital Worki
- 2 Excellent well
- 2 Superior Sadd
- 6 Colts (Three
- 1 Brood Mare.

Together with 100 T
 Wheat in sheaf, 450
 Carts, Buts, Ploughs, Sowers, Dairy Utensils
 of Useful Property, al
 the least Reserve.

Order of Sale
 and Bulls on First da Oats, and remainder c