

ars to me there was fact, a sort of regular ulated sum of money ed to perpetrate the a regular trade has as taken place, for it have been employed committing murder
 rtures to the party ered to confess all to uld give them a sum y were to receive for Grand Jury, if this things be permitted
 be made a vile trade d to such a trade, I Gentlemen, it is in-request you will take crying evil; let me ngent course, for if ed to exist—if this o continue—if men o resist this sort of oldly and fearlessly, will end. The case before you in the ersons, who, it is the deed. I have vations to you, and ountry, for I address uphold the law, and f society. Having learned Baron said to the Whiteboy curred previous to d in a great measure trusted that their be heavy, and in all m where the evidence hem in sending per-ore a judicial tribu-lt on the nature of here is only one necessary to address ords, not so much Gentlemen in this y be summoned to ng panel. When and the suppress-tion is held out,
 is necessary that
 to. Those who o are interested in ave arms for the erty, it is most etable jurors, who ake it a point of ssessed of property, nciple, will not per-es, it is against all

At Glasgow, Thomas, only son of Captain Benson, 23th Regt. to Henrietta, daughter of Richard Benson, Esq. of Newry.
 Robert R. Jeffriss, Esq. M. D. Dalkeith, to Catherine, daughter of the late Archd. Blackie, Esq. merchant, London.

DEATHS.

On the 23rd inst. at his residence, Shannon View, in this County, aged 66 years, Thomas Odell, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, son of the late Colonel William Odell, M.P. for this County formerly, and for many years Commissioner of Excise for Ireland—a gentleman eminently distinguished for uprightness and integrity, as well as for kindness and amiability in both public and private life, and whose many good qualities long commanded the esteem and affection of all who had the good fortune to form his acquaintance. His loss is deeply and deservedly regretted, and he has left many friends, but not one enemy. He was a sincere and faithful Christian, and departed this life resting in the full assurance of faith on the all-sufficient efficacy of the blood and righteousness of our blessed REDEEMER.

At his seat, near Tramore, county Waterford, George Roche, Esq. of Granagh Castle, county Kilkenny, at the advanced age of 86, elder brother to Thomas Roche, Esq. and William Roche, Esq. present High Sheriff of this City. He was a gentleman of rare endowments, of extensive travel, of unbounded philanthropy, and possessed, undiminished, his faculties and powers of mind, to the last moment.

At Tralee, Mrs. Barry, relict of the late Thomas Barry, Esq.
 Prince of Wales' Fencible Infantry, and grand-daughter to the first Baron Ventry.

Yesterday, in Denmark-street, deeply regretted by her family and friends, Mary, relict of the late Mr. Michael Grogan, Book-binder.

The beloved wife of Dr. Lyons, of Cork, after a premature confinement.

Miss Catherine Woulfe, of John's-gate.
 In Ennis, at the age of 85 years, Mary, relict of the late Mr.
 Gilbert O'Dea.

James, son of Mr. James Stack, saddler, of Tralee.
 At Fitzgibbon-street, aged 15 years, Adelaide Louisa, daughter of Major Cottingham.

Charles Carpenter, Esq. M.D. and his brother Edward, sons of A. Carpenter, Esq. Williamstown-avenue, county Dublin, on their passage to Port Phillip, in the ship Cataraquf, wrecked at Basse's Straits.

At Waterford, Mr. John O'Brien, Apothecary.
 William, eldest son of William Dooly, Esq. Elm-grove, Par-sonstown.

At Melbourne, Port Phillip, George Eagle, Esq. formerly of Dublin.

At Abbey-street, H. W. Burnside, Esq.
 Thomas Leland, son of B. Hone, Esq. of Longford Terrace, Monkstown.

Ann Jane, eldest daughter of the late Abraham Sherlock, Esq. of the Customs, Belfast.

At Exeter, John Salter, Esq.
 At his residence, Blyth house, Hammersmith, deeply regretted, George Lord Jackson, Esq. in his 71st year.

At Bath, Anne, wife of Kenneth Murchison, Esq. late Governor of Penang.

At Upper Wimpole-street, Mrs. Sophia Mordaunt.
 At Surbiton Lodge, Kingston-on-Thames, Margaret, wife of Captain John Rennie Manderson, and daughter of the late George Rennie, Esq. of Phantassie, East Lothian.

Killed, at the engagement of Moodkee, on the 18th of Dec.
 Captain Jasper Trower, of the Bengal Artillery, son of the late George Trower, Esq. of Russell-square.

Emma, wife of David Ryan, Esq. East-road, North Lotts.
 At Harold's-cross, John Quinton, Esq.

Elizabeth, relict of the late Mr. John Hughes, Waterford.
 At Jersey, Capt. Ottley, 2d Bombay Cavalry, son of Brook Ottley, Esq. of Dublin.

At Fintry House, Aberdeenshire, Sir John Forbes, Bart. of Craigievar.

At Edinburgh, Hugh M'Callum, Esq. cashier of the Bank of Scotland.

At Moulmein, Captain Magee, 94th.

situated near the Vict Ground. The House co
 Four spacious Bed Roo Pantrys, and Cellar, Stalled Stable.

Also Two Houses on Furnished, containing T Bed-rooms, Kitchen, house, and Stable if req

An early application i ing to get such an acc months, One House necessary.

Application to be mad place, Passage West, Co

HIGHLY IMPORTANT
UNR
AUC
 Of a Hundred-and-fifty other Cattle, 150 very Sheep, 18 capital C
 Horses and Colts, 100
 Score of Superior V
 Farming Implements,

M R. MARSH begs
 he has received ins of the late WILLIAM H. I without reserve at LISN Three Miles of Castletow nine of Mallow, on Th following day, at the ho the following valuable an

- 73 Highly Bred Dair
- Superior Milkers
- 11 Three year old (i
- 9 Ditto
- 4 Young store Bull
- 25 Handsome Two y
- 25 Ditto Yearl
- 1 Thorough-bred, i
- years old, off.
- 3 Highly bred You
- 85 Superior Breedin
- 66 Prime Fat Sheep
- 7 Capital Working
- 2 Excellent well tra
- 2 Superior Saddle B
- 6 Colts (Three ver
- 1 Brood Mare.

Together with 100 Ton
 Wheat in sheaf, 450 Sc
 Carts, Buts, Ploughs, H Sowers, Dairy Utensils, an of Useful Property, all o the least Reserve.

 Order of Sale—T
 and Bulls on First day; Oats, and remainder of th
 Sc