Agricultural and Commercial BANK OF IRELAND.

IN CHANCERY—IRELAND.

James Dawson and others, Plaintiffs; John Miller and others, Defendants.

IN PURSUANCE of an Act passed in the session of the 8th and 9th years of the reign of her present Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled "An act to facilitate the winding up of the affairs of the Agricultural and Commercial Bank of Ireland," notice is hereby given that a decree has been pronounced in this cause, bearing date the 19th day of JANUARY, 1846, whereby it was ordered and decreed that it should be and it was thereby referred to EDWARD LITTON, one of the Masters of the high court of Chancery in Ireland, to TAKE an ACCOUNT of all the ASSETS, property, and effects of, and debts due and OWING to the said COMPANY, and of ALL the DEBTS due by, and liabilities chargeable and OUTSTANDING AGAINST the said COMPANY, or affecting the assets thereof or any part thereof; and also to ENQUIRE and report WHO ARE the SHAREHOLDERS and parties LIABLE at law or in equity to, or who ought to contribute to the payment of the debts and liabilities of the said company, and where such shareholders and other parties respectively reside, and whether any and which of such shareholders and other parties had become bankrupt or insolvent, and whether by reason of such bankruptcy or insolvency or any other and what circumstance it might be found impossible or inexpedient to enforce payment against any and which of the said shareholders of the sums to which they might respectively be liable to pay or contribute to the said company, or to the payment of the debts and liabilities thereof, and whether it would be expedient (in reference to the interest of the shareholders at large of the said company) to abstain from taking proceedings for the purpose of enforcing contributions against any particular parties or party found liable thereto, or from whom it might be found impossible or inexpedient by reason of such bankruptcy, insolvency, or otherwise, to enforce payment thereof. And it was further referred to said master to ascertain and report what sum of money in the whole, and what sums of money as proportionate parts of the whole, or what sums of money from time to time on account, ought or would be proper or necessary, having regard to the legal and equitable rights and liabilities of all parties, under the act of the sixth year of his late Majesty King George IV., and the deeds of settlement of the 1st day of December, 1834, and the 10th day of August 1836 respectively, in the pleadings mentioned, and also to the several calls, contributions, debts, and demands actually paid or then due and in arrear by the several and respective members of the said company, to be raised by calls or contributions, whether before or after the assets of the said company should have been fully realised from the respective persons liable to such contributions for the payment and satisfaction of all the debts and liabilities of the said company or any part thereof, and of the costs of and incidental to and the expenses incurred in and about the winding up and settling the affairs of the said company including the costs of said suit—And it was FURTHER ORDERED that all CREDITORS of the said company should be at liberty to come in before the said master and PROVE their respective DEMANDS, and that the said master should be at liberty to make a separate report, or separate reports, from time to time, as he might think fit, as well in relation to the sums necessary to be raised by calls or contributions from the respective persons whom he should find to be liable to such calls or contributions, for the payment and satisfaction of the debts and liabilities of the said company as in relation to the several matters thereby referred to him or any of them. And NOTICE is hereby ALSO GIVEN, that all and every the Shareholders of the said Company should be bound by the said decree, in manner and pursuant to the provisions of the said act.

Dated this 3d day of March 1846.
