

interests of justice require. I have that being unwilling to take any step in this painful affair, without giving due notice to those concerned, it is my intention to allow to be published, and that I shall probably take proceedings in the discussions which will take place in the House of Commons upon the Irish Bill.
I have the honour to be,
Your obedient faithful servant,
WILLIAM S. O'BRIEN.
Lord Chancellor
Ireland, &c. &c.

appeared in part of last impression :)
Mr. Taylor has resigned his seat at Bow-street
Court.
The price of wheaten Bread in the metropolis is to 9d. of household ditto, 6½d. to 8½d. per

Grand Jury Act of this present session, of general interest in the south of Ireland, provides for an advance by Government loan of £100,000 only, to meet the demands of several baronial districts for ten times that sum to employ the labouring poor in the construction of public works; but the local assessments in aid of the loan can't be less than £100,000 additional.
The loan is to be executed by contract, as at present, and the Government loan is repayable by instalments at 5 per cent. interest, to be raised by Grand Jury

Meeting was held yesterday at Sallybank, county
Down, at which William Welsh, Esq. of Trough was presided, when several projected works in that county were approved of, for the purpose of employing the poor, many of whom are not only without seed and ground, but without food for their subsistence.
An application was entered into to purchase oatmeal at a low price, and it is thought to be the most necessitous.

The North Midland Railway Bill will be in communication with the Lords on the 23d inst. in the group with the "Enniskillen" project, with which it communicates. The Committee on the Waterford, Wexford, and Dublin Railway, in the House of Lords, will be in session on the 24th, and the Dublin and Kingston, the Dublin, Dundrum and Ennis-kill, and the Dublin and Sandymount projects, will be in discussion.

A call of £5 is made by the Waterford and Dublin Railway Company.
The cargoes of railway iron arrived yesterday
at the Waterford and Limerick railway.
The Grand Jury have petitioned against the corn laws.

The case of a man named Donovan, in the neighbourhood of Fedamore, was attacked last night by a party of men, who beat Donovan in a cruel manner.
A system of Conveyancing, by expert agents, is not confined to purses or reticules of ladies in the street, or engaged in shopping, but has invaded the house of worship. On Sunday, a female was absorbed in prayer at the Franciscan Church, containing 11s. in silver, was dex-terly taken out of her dress.

On Monday evening, there was a meeting of householders in St. John's Parish held at the Temperance Hall, near the quay, to consider the propriety of petitioning for the abolition of Ministers' parishes. Mr. Timothy Carey presided, and, after some discussion, the question was adjourned.

Mr. Ryan, and Bryan Cormick, farm labourers, were committed to Tipperary, on Thursday.
Dr. Ford, son of William Ford, Esq. is to be inducted to the Chapel of St. Paul's, Arran-quay, on the 1st inst. The Rev. Mr. Murphy, lately ordained at the Conception, Marlborough-street, who was removed to St. Andrew's, Westland-row, and whose services have presented £8000, to erect a church in the county and city Waterford.

On Monday, shortly after the Nora Crina left Waterford for Bristol, an accident happened to the vessel which caused her to put back to her moorings, and the remains

At Poonah, Bombay, George Gordon Orr, Esq. of the 23d
Madras Light Infantry, to Sarah Lucas, daughter of Captain Souter, 22d Regt.

DEATHS.

In Toronto, Canada, on the 7th ult. after a painful and protracted illness, Standish O'Grady Bennett, Esq. formerly of Tankerville, county Cork, aged 79 years.
On Sunday last, at his house, Mary-street, after a short illness, Mr. Patrick MacNamara, grocer and tobacconist.
At Corofin, Ann, wife of Doctor Blood.
In Mungret-street, Mr. George Gibbons, of London, one of the principal foremen in the Steam Brush Factory of Messrs.
Egan & M'Cormack, of Thomas-street.
At her residence, Youghal, Miss Elizabeth Godolphin Burslem, eldest daughter of the late Captain Francis Burslem, R.N.
At his residence on the Quay, Waterford, at the advanced age of 82 years, Mr. John Cox.
Mrs. Johanna Power, sister to the late Right Rev. Dr.
Power, Roman Catholic Bishop of Waterford.
At the Presentation Convent, Galway, Sister Agnes Nolan, daughter of the late G. Nolan, Esq. of Curry.
At Tuam, Thomas Higgins, sen. Esq. solicitor.
At Waterford, James, son of T. N. Macqueen, Esq.
James, eldest son of Peter M'Mahon, Esq. of Lower Dominick-street.
Mary, daughter of the late Mr. John Flood, of North King-street.
At his residence, Killeshandra, Doctor Donohoe.
At St. Paul's Chapel, Arran-quay, aged 76, the Rev. John Joseph Ryan.
At Talbot Arcade, Bartholomew Caffrey.
In Longford, Mr. Arthur J. Campbell, apothecary.
At Oakley, near Bromley, Kent, Sarah, widow of the late Archdeacon Wharton, Chancellor of Lincoln.
At his residence, Bloomsbury-square, Richard Pinckard, Esq.
At Girton, Cambridge, in his 82d year, the Rev. Alexander Cotton, Rector of Girton, son of the late Sir John Hynde Cotton, Bart.
At Glasgow, Walter M'Innes, Esq.
At Tradeston, Mr. James Clement, late of the Customs, Glasgow.
At Edinburgh, in her 88th year, Mary, widow of Sir Wm.
Honyman, Bart. Lord Armadale, and daughter of the Right
Hon. Robert Macqueen, Lord Braxfield, Lord Justice-Clerk.
At Edinburgh, Jane, wife of Robert Stevenson, civil engineer.
At Stoneyhill, near Musselburgh, John Taylor, Esq. late Solicitor for Stamps and Taxes for Scotland.
On the 12th inst. in Sackville-street, the Right Hon. Lady Elizabeth Fielding, aged 73.
At Leamington, Mrs. Augusta Campbell, widow of the late General Duncan Campbell, of Lochnell.
At his residence, Ford Abbey, John Fraunceis Gwyn, Esq.
At Bath, Marcus, son of J. H. Somerville, Esq.
At Sproxton, Leicestershire, the Rev. Charles Needham.
In Leicester-square, George Augustus Starling, Esq., aged 73.
Robert John Harper, Esq. of Needwood Forest, Stafford,
aged 81.
In Madrid, aged 83, Ellen, widow of Maurice Roberts, Esq.
of Cadiz.
At Montreal, Mary, wife of Major Coleman, late 15th Regt.
At Scarborough, Canada, Elizabeth, widow of the late A.
Darling, Esq. 56th Regiment.
Mrs. Lucy P. Todd, only sister of Mrs. Madison. This lady had in early life married George S. Washington, nephew of General Washington.
At Dundas, Canada, Captain James Scott, formerly of 54th and 89th Regiments, and subsequently Captain of the Wicklow Militia.
In Quebec, John Cannon, son of Mr. Samuel Evans.
At Montreal, Mr. Fisher, furrier.
At Halifax, N.S. the Hon. S. G. W. Archibald, Master of the Rolls and Judge of the Court of Vice Admiralty.
At Quebec, Mr. Robert Morgan, late Colour Sergeant Grenadier Guards, a native of Nottingham.
At Turin, the Chevalier William de Viry, Equerry to the King of Sardinia, and son in law of Basil Montagu, Esq. Q.C.
In Auckland, New Zealand, Joseph Morris, Esq. M.R.C.S.
At Cape-de-Verdes, Julia Maria, daughter of Charles Pettin-gal, Esq. H. B. Commissioner; and the said Charles Pettin-gal, Esq. father of the above.
Drowned, near Cape Finisterre, in consequence of the loss of the Great Liverpool, Mrs. Archer, wife of Dr. Archer, 17th Foot.
At Wood Cottage, near Fermoy, Mary, wife of Thomas G.
Wallis, Esq.
At Rose Cottage, Roscrea, on Saturday, Mary, the wife of Robert Feun, Esq.
At Clonmel, Mr. Jeremiah O'Leary.
At Tallow, Elizabeth, relict of Stephen O'Hea, Esq. of Hay-mount, county Cork.
In Dublin, on Thursday last, of consumption, the Rev. John O'Brien, heretofore a Priest of the Roman Catholic Church, and Curate of Kilkee, county Clare. The deceased was a native of Newtown, in this County.
At Coolbane, county Cork, Ellen, eldest daughter of Mr.
John Nunan.
At Carrick-on-Suir, Mrs. Graham.
Henry Irwin, son of C. F. Staunton, M.D. Royal Artillery.
At Colmoyln, county Meath, William J. D'Arcy, Esq.
Matthew, eldest son of the late Captain Armstrong, of Hill town, county Wexford.
At Ballinasloe, Margaret, daughter of John Cruice, Esq.
At Torquay, Devonshire, Frederick, son of Humphry Bor-lase, late of Ballinacorney, county of Kildare, Esq.
At Ryde, the Rev. T. Guyer, Independent Minister.
At Adlamville, Torquay, Devon, W. A. O'Halloran, Esq.
At Hitchin, Herts, the Rev. Richard Lucas.

dam Hewson's Lady of the Sun, by King Fer-
of Miss Godfrey, by Trinnon, Great-great Gra-
Lord Clanwilliam's famous Mare, Eel, by Choc
(See Racing Calender.)
He is full 16 hands high and upwards, is imperfectly shaped, fine tempered, muscular, with in proportion, and good constitution, and is by the most critical judges, that for shape, strength beauty, he is not to be excelled.

Just Published.
8vo. CLOTH 9s.
THE LIFE EVERLASTING
IN which are considered the Intermediate Life,
New Body, and the New World; the Man-ven; Angels, the Final Consummate Life, &c.
By JOHN WHITLY, D.D. Rector of Bally-
and Chancellor of Killaloe.
Longinan & Co., and Z. M. Ledger, George-Limerick.

WANTED.
FOR an extensive GROCERY and WINE I-LISHMENT, a young MAN that understand business.—Also a respectable young Lad as an tice.
Application in writing, addressed D. L. Gr-the Office of this Paper, will be attended to.

TO BE LET,
FROM THE 25th INSTANT,
THAT part of the Lands of TOWNAGH, Cragnageerogue, containing about 30 plantation measure, situate within one mile o-
in the county of Clare.
The Tenant will be bound under a penalty
subletting, building houses, or tilling any par-lands.
Proposals will be received by Geo. GLOST-
George-street, Limerick.
A Lease for Three Lives, or 31 Years, will be March

FARRA
English and Agricultural SCHOOL,
Near Mullingar, County Westmeath.
INTO this Institution, established by the Inc-ted Society, Pupils are annually elected foundation, from the Scriptural Schools of the Westmeath, which are under the superintend-the parochial Clergy. Those pupils are gratu-lodged, dieted, clothed, and instructed in the branches of English Education, including Mathe-Surveying, &c. and in the most improved sys-modern Agriculture, including a knowledge of mistry, as applicable to soils; also of Drawing,
most improved system.
The Incorporated Society, wishing to extebenefits of the above Institution, are willing to a limited number of Boarders, who are eligible all parts of Ireland, and who, on payment of annum (quarterly in advance) will participate
the advantages above enumerated, Clothing ex-
The age of admission for Boarders is from 1 years. Certificates of assiduity in learning and conduct, signed by the Clergyman of the P-which they reside; also certificates of health sig-
a respectable Medical Practitioner, will be requi-Each Pupil is provided with a separate Bed, utmost care is paid to their domestic comfort and conduct.
Further particulars may be obtained, on app-
at the Incorporated Society's House, No. 55, A-street, Dublin, from the Rev. G. P. CROZIER, chist of the Institution, Rathconnell Glebe, Ki-
or from Mr. MURPHY, English Master, Agric-School, Farra, Multifarnham.