JAMES BARRY & CO.
PROPRIETORS.
J. B. & CO. were fortunate in procuring a lot of very fine OLD WHISKEY of J. Jameson & Sons make, of Dublin, from a respectable firm deeply involved in Railroad speculation, which will be found of delicious flavour, and much superior in point of age and mellowness, to any heretofore sold in this city. Professions now a day will not do except founded on facts.—J. B. & Co. require only a trial to prove the superiority of this Whiskey.
FOREIGN SPIRITS.
As it may not be generally known that by Sir Robert Peel's new Tariff the duty on BRANDY has been reduced over Thirty-three per cent., J. B. & Co. will be able to give those who may favour them with their orders, the full benefit of the reduction, having this week received a consignment of the choicest Brand, with some very old Jamaica Rum, Hollands, &c.
WINE.
J. B. & Co. will be largely supplied with Port, Sherry, Champaign, Claret, Tenerife, Madeira, Marsala, and with every Wine in general use.
TO THE TRADE.
From the arrangements that J. B. & Co. have entered into with respectable Distillers, they will be in a position to do as well (if not better,) with the Trade, as any other House in this City.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
SIR,—The recent trial which took place before the Assistant Barrister and the conviction of the two Soldiers of the 6th Regiment, for having in their possession a Glass Warb, my property which on the night of the disastrous fire in my bed-room was removed from my bed-room by Mr. Edmond T. Rutledge, of Ellen-street, Plumber, and the subsequent confession of one of the convicted soldiers, all tend to convince me of the purity of Mr. Rutledge's intentions in the part he acted on the occasion, and I feel myself bound to make this public demonstration of my sincere regret at the steps taken against him before the Magistrates on the 27th day of March last, and my conviction that the charge and suspicions against him were quite unfounded.
