

...ing been forced to
 house, Patrick-street,
 a use of the boy's death,
 having completed their
 so far as its junction with n-Harbour, the Dublin
 il themselves of the im-
 by sending up daily a
 our, and having a second ce immediately on the mpany's night packet.
 ose extending, as soon
 shall have been comteamers to that impor-
 daily communication Office, has arrived in s of the prisoners charged
 n Carrick-on-Suir.
 has instructed Marcus
 the Killone and Coore-Corofin, £40 to Drum-
 other relief committees.
 hat £100 should be paid
 nd parapet round Kil
 ement being undertaken
 the 1st of Victoria, at or completing the road
 ough the bog of Doora.
 10 to the Carrigaholt
 ncle to the lord of the ointed secretary to the
 25s. per week salary.
 paid £30 to the Relief 30 to Kilmaily, £20 to £10 each to Crusheen,
 nd Cooraclare.
 pper rose up against the
 were called in to pro-Cork workhouse, who
 e guardians, were sen-
 risonment, hard labour,
 ev. John Rigney, of the ed assistant school mis-
 se, vacant by the resig-iminal information is J. Hallinan, where the ers in Cork, complained harleville, for coursing of the former, and the e letter.
 ing on Thursday, the
 itzgerald's Gavotte, Mr.
 Rae's Jack.

Edward Morris, Esq. of Carmarthen, to Fanny Elizabeth, daughter of the late Captain William Foley, of Ridgway, Pembroke-shire.

DEATHS.

On Sunday last, at Greenhills, the residence of Peter Franklin, Esq. after a short illness, Catherine, the beloved wife of Captain Minchin, (formerly of the Indian Navy,) of Rock Abbey, Cashel—greatly regretted by a numerous circle of relatives and friends.

On the 24th inst. Minny Murray Westropp, youngest daughter of Edmund Westropp, Esq. of Ballysteen, in this County.

At Ballyhorgan, Kerry, the residence of his son, Goodnan Gentleman, Esq. Robert Goodman Gentleman, Esq.

At Woodbrook, Emily Caroline, the beloved child of Sir John and Lady Ribton.

At the Rectory, Templeton Killashee, Mrs. Digby, eldest daughter of the late Arthur French, of French Park, M.P. for the county Roscommon, and sister to Lord De Frayne.

Aged 18 years, Alice, wife of John Shortt, Esq. Barrister at Law.

Mrs. Comyn, of Ballinderry, relict of the late Nicholas Comyn Esq. and sister of Patrick Joyce, Esq. of Galway.

At Mayor's-walk, Waterford, John Murphy, Esq.

At the Monastery of Tullow, Brother Patrick R. Rossiter.

Samuel Davys Bowman, of Carrickfergus, Engineer on the Eastern Counties Union Railway.

Of peurperal fever. at Shangana Terrace, Killiney, Anne, wife of Doctor Matthews.

At Sandymount, Mrs. Troy, late of the Ashbourne Hotel.

In Carrick-on-Shannon, suddenly, Mr. Patt Dowd.

In Strabane, Miss Maria Gamble, daughter of the late Mr. Andrew Gamble

At Chapel Glebe, county Londonderry, of scarletina, Fennell Collins, son of the Rev. Mark Bloxham.

At Hastings, Frederick Richard, son of the late Colonel Crewe, and nephew of Lord Carrington.

At his residence, Sherwood Hall, John Need, Esq. in his 86th year. He was the senior Magistrate of the Mansfield district.

At Salisbury, Eleanor, relict of the Rev. Richard Frizell, Minister of Ilracombe, and daughter of the late Doctor Biston, of Waterford.

At his residence, Hyde Park-square, Henry de Bruyn, Esq. in the 75th year of his age.

Lieut.-Colonel Sutherland, Military Secretary to the Resident of Hydrabad.

At Exmouth, the Rev. Henry Ward, of Felmersham, Bedfordshire.

At Leamington, Elizabeth Catherine, eldest daughter of Captain William Harris, of Yealmpton, Devon.

At Bedford-place, Kensington, Lady Sweedland, relict of the late Sir Christopher Sweedland.

Alfred Byron Tegg, of Pembroke College, Oxford, youngest son of the late Thomas Tegg, Esq. of Cheapside, aged 20.

At Ladbrooke-villas, Notting-hill, Dandeson Coates, Esq. secretary of the Church Missionary Society.

Of consumption, on his passage home from Madeira, R. J. Saumarez, eldest son of Captain Saumarez, R.N.

At Kiltrush, George FitzGerald, Esq.—a gentleman deservedly regretted.

At his residence, Douglas-street, Cork, Robert Norcott, Esq.

At Cove, Miss Stacpoole, aged 17, daughter of the late Mathias Staepoole, Esq. of Moymore, county Clare, and niece of Capt. Stacpoole, R.N. of Milview House—a young lady of the most amiable disposition, and sincerely regretted by her family and a numerous circle of friends.

Mrs. Cullen, many years housekeeper in the Stamp Office, aged 83 years.

At Bath, Major Thomas Henry Hewitt Baylie, late 66th Regt.

In London, William Jackson Hone, Barrister at Law, Esq. son of Joseph Hone, Esq. Harcourt-street.

At Willsbridge House, Gloucestershire, Adelaide, relict of the late Philip Henry Crampton, of Fassaro, county Wicklow, Esq. and sister to the Dowager Viscountess Glentworth.

At Ashbourn Hall, Derbyshire, Sir Wm. Boothby, Bart.

Charles Vavasour, Esq. son of Sir Edward Vavasour, Bart. of Hazlewood Hall.

TO
ON SECUR

LATE
 Application to be Solicitor, Kanturk,

£40

WANTED, either
 cont., for wh Appl<sup>to</sup> DAVID street.

GOV

A N ENGLISH L
 desirous to fo
GOVERNESS in a Ro
 the Country. Her in its branches, Geog Arithmetic, with the Ornamental Needle V
 can be given.
 Address M. Y., Go

WANTED in a r
 a good English Young Boys. He is family.
 Apply at the LIME

NEW
JOHN

HAS arrived to hi
 of very superior
SEED BARLEY, with SEEDS, selected from Establishment.
 The Limerick Se
 Ne
 April 25,

Bruff

A GENERAL ME
 Bruff Dispensary
 House at One o'Clock
 for the purpose of aud
 the past year, and tra
 with the Institution.
 By orde

Bruff, April 29.