

received from Cork, by Sub-Inspector Williams, accused her of deserting her child—she was accordingly committed. Informations were ordered against James and John M'Namara, for stealing potatoes. Michael M'Namara, apprentice, was ordered to return to his master, John Fitzgerald. Henry O'Brien was fined 5s. or three months imprisonment for malicious injury to paintings belonging to a dealer named Peter Taylor.

Doctor White, Inspector-General, was met by the Governors of the Lunatic Asylum, in this city, on Wednesday, when he intimated that the Government intended to extend the building, by adding to the wings, and removing the patients from the county Kerry to a district asylum, to be erected either at Millstreet or Charleville, will afford accommodation to the claims of many, who are now precluded admission, by want of room. The Inspector also visited the County Gaol, where several insane persons are frequently confined.— Doctor White also visited the Workhouse, and particularly inspected the Lunatic wards, under Mr. and Mrs. Simpson. The Inspector was well pleased with the regularity, cleanliness, and good order which prevailed.

Thomas N. Jones, Esq., of the National Bank, in this city, has been appointed accountant of the branch at Mallow, and Mr. Feely is appointed manager at Mallow. Bindon Blood and Luke Brady, Esqrs. are elected Ex-officio guardians of Ennis union, in the room of Michael Finucane and Piers Carrick, Esqrs.
