

and sat down amidst cheers. O'Flaherty, who proposed the aive of confidence in Mr. S.
 approval of his conduct. The aited a deputation to proceed
 an address, on behalf of his conbrien, approving of the course he
 The Mayor, Caleb Powell, M.P.
 B. Costelloe, Robert Potter, and rain fell in torrents during the ted about an hour, when the
 ity meeting, for the same object, Commercial Buildings.
 e Roman Catholic Clergymen, ty Liberal Club, proceeded from Corn-market in procession.
 was held at three o'clock. The ced, and the Mayor was called acclamation. His Worship, in allage, called on them to record
 Smith O'Brien, and their warm duct. (The cheering was enthu-
 speakers were, Mr. F. J. O'Neill, P. Mr. D. Cullen, Mr. Robert
 r. Dore, Mr. Spillane, Mr. J. or Devitt, Mr. Wallnutt, and Mr.
 the speakers adverted to the resod by Mr. Doheny at Conciliation hall, received with groans and hisses.
 gnated a wasp, whose testimonial Smith O'Brien was spurned with rett, of the Pilot, was not over-
 e which appeared in that Paper, Smith O'Brien's conduct, and unt to a recommendation that he his error, and apologise to the House.
 editorial article having been read,
 cries of "We'll have neither of any more," and so enraged was eting, that Mr. Cullen had to tear ritters, in order to gratify those ty of the press! "The base injus-of Commons" towards Mr. S. O'Brien ken of, in order to arouse indignation.
 econded a resolution towards eceedings said if it were necessary, so e dearest blood of Ireland would en—and that there was a Saxon spirit to poison him if they could, or a secret persecution, as in the case of eon, until he was sent to a grave that otch, or Hell could get him out of!!
 r to those adopted at the County
 en carried, with a petition for Repeal Mayor was moved from the chair,
 a called thereto, when thanks were hip, and the meeting separated with ell, Smith O'Brien, and Repeal.

about to institute proceedings in purpose of obtaining an injunction sbermen from fishing from the Lax-ick river.

William Connell, Esq. writer, daughter of the late John Campbell, Esq.

DEATHS.

On Monday night, of fever, in his twenty-fourth year, to the inexpressible grief of his relatives and friends, Gerrard Beveridge, fourth son of the late Captain Beveridge. The premature removal of this amiable young gentleman affords a striking instance of the truth of the warning—"In the midst of life we are in death." He was but one fortnight married, and he is now an inhabitant of another world, leaving a blank in his circle which never can be filled, as he was beloved and respected by every one who knew him.

At Patrick's-well, the infant son of Clement Peat, Esq. M.D.
 At Upper William-street, Miss Julia Forrest.
 On Monday, in the Workhouse, Mr. James Hilliard. His life is heavily insured at many of the offices in this City.
 In Cork, Robert Hatton, Esq. brother-in-law of B. C. Fisher, Esq. of this City.
 At Ennis, Mr. John Hurley, mathematical teacher.
 In Jail street, Ennis, Mr. Daniel Lysaght.
 Mercy, daughter of Timothy E. Moriarty, Esq. of Ballinramin, Kerry.
 At the age of 95, Miss Mary Preston, daughter of Simon Preston, Esq. of Waterford.
 Mary, wife of Mr. Wm. Ahern, Leitrim-street.
 At Coldblow House, county of Dublin, Miss Grace Atkinson.
 At Mountpleasant-square, Miss Charity O'Malley, daughter of the late Samuel O'Malley, Esq.
 Jessy, widow to A. H. C. Pollock, Esq. of Mountainstown, Meath, who survived the loss of her husband but a few days.
 At Upper Baggot-street, Margaret, daughter of the late Wm. Doolan, Esq. of Shurone.
 At Portarlington, Jeremiah Mara, Esq.
 In Leeson-street, in her thirteenth year, Caroline Mary, youngest daughter of Sergeant Warren.
 In Drogheda, Alexander Miller, Esq. many years connected with the Drogheda distillery.
 At Ballydoogan, near Sligo, Isabella, relict of the late Mr. Joseph Hudson, aged 105 years.
 At Lynnfield, at the house of her son-in-law, C. B. Grimshaw, Esq. in her 83d year, Mary, relict of Rowland Osborne, Esq. of Belfast.
 Francis Thompson, Esq. J.P. of Cavan, Capt. in the Dublin Militia.
 In Longford, at an advanced age, Mr. Christopher Creed, teacher of mathematics.
 At Bath, Capt. T. P. Barlow, late of 12th Lancers,
 At Swansea, Sibyl, daughter of R. D. Gough, Esq.
 At Ryde, Isle of Wight, the Rev. Philnot Pownoll Bastard, Chaplain to the Duke of Cambridge.
 Wm. Meikieham, Esq. LL.D. Professor of Natural Philosophy in the University of Glasgow.
 At Glasgow, at an advanced age, Mr. John Bologna, pantomimist, formerly of the Theatre Royal, Covent Garden, and contemporary with Grimaldi.
 Mr. Breaks, Naval Storekeeper at the Cape of Good Hope.
 At the Rectory, Ridlington, aged 74, the Rev. Charles Swann, Rector of Ridlington, Rutlandshire, and Edmondthorpe, Leicestershire.
 At Limehouse, Mrs. Elizabeth Bailey, aged 87.
 At Madeira, Christiana Wilson Paddock, daughter of the late Captain Carruthers.
 At Grenada, Rebecca, wife of D. W. Gibbs, Esq. and daughter of George Webster, Esq. Deputy Ordnance Storekeeper at Antigua.
 At Cossiny Lodge, King's County, Anne Nesbitt, aged 76, relict of Henry Nesbitt, Esq. of Ahamore, Longford, and daughter of the late Ottiwell Wood, First Sergeant at Law.
 At his house, Great George's-street, Cork, Mr. John Rice.
 At the Governor's house, county prison, Cork, Agnes Eliza Fitzsimons, daughter of the late John Robert Fitzsimons, Esq. of Galway.
 At Lower Sherrard street, Anna Maria Manning, youngest daughter of the late Francis Manning, of Drakestown, county of Louth, Esq.
 At Edinburgh, Robert Rattray, Esq. W.S.
 Harriet, wife of William Greig, Esq. stockbroker, Glasgow.
 Thos. Cockside, Esq.
 At Hamburg, Francis, eldest son of the Right Hon. Edward Lucas, of Castle SHAUe.

Splendid Sheffield Edges, viz., Sett of Frame, Cruet, Liqu sticks and Branches Salvers, Sett Desert Case; Ivory Haften Kitchen requisites. The Bed Room viz.—Mahogany Four suitable draperies; Full Length Cheval Quilts, Large Mah Drawers, Dressing T Ware, Carpets, Bid steps, Clothes Horse Light Fashionable or two Horses, not Plated mounted Har patent axles, nearly Axles, Lancewood S Heppenstall, London Cloathing, Oat B Tables, Fixtures, & Sale at 12 to the mi The Vehicle.

JAMES

96

LAW

John Fogerty, Plaintiff, John O'Connell, Defendant.

next, at the hour of the Defendant's Charge Five Dwelling House Ground, with the A of ASKEATON, in the under and by virtue Facias to me in this Dated this 30th W. H.

The above is well newly built, and situated in the Town of ASKEATON, years, from the 25th rent of Eight Pounds Premises now yielding Pounds annually.

JOHN BARRING worth-street, Lim Dublin.

The above Sale is the 16th Inst., at afternoon.

W. H.

May 13.