

...in readiness to prison, when the friends of to their respective homes. were all unmarried. Hayes and Fogarty, 25 years of age. The executioner Bryan Seery, in Mullingar. near a declaration from their in their anticipations, as the utter a syllable.

...whom, in mercy, we shall as known, by report, in the in the barbarous murder of Finnoe—and it was no secret to his moral guilt, there was no the crime was incomplete.

HILL AFFRAY.
...of the informations sworn M.M. in this case, at Nenagh,

The Information of George Maunsell, Esq. of Birdhill, in the parish of Newport, barony of Owny and Arra, in said sworn on the Holy Evangelists, on Saturday, the sixteenth Going, the Sub-Sheriff of this at Bird-hill, aforesaid, Lewis, Sub-Inspector, and a purpose (as I have heard and writ of habere. Saith that I use at the time, nor was I on me to execute said writ, as threatened that he would hand-hol if I appeared there. Saith in the house at the time the that admittance was not de- id house from any of them, the said Samuel Going pro- nce, with his bailiffs, armed ble end of the house, in order, as the said Samuel Going h therein. Saith that subse- and Henry Bouchier were rther provocation, shot and ce, and that the said Samuel Lewis were accessory to and committed.—Sworn, &c.

Royal
AN HOTEL,
GENERAL
Establishment,
A LEE.
N WALPOLE
acquaints the Nobility, Gentry, the public, that he has, at great alterations and additions to furnished in all departments ishment in the Kingdom. tion to the wants and wishes their confidence and support. merical Gentleman, and visi- ned Killarney Lakes, or any find this a very desirable appointed One, Two, and to and from Tarbert Island to Lower Shannon, from thence istowel, Ballybunnion, Tra- ; also, to all other parts of all Walpole's Cars have his TRALEE, June 24.

Mr. Richard Clutterbuck, of the Protestant Registration Society, Upper Sackville-street, to Miss Theresa Connell, of Garden Villa, Portobello.
Robert T. Corbett, Esq. M.D. Glasgow, to Jane, daughter of the late John Campbell, Esq. Riccarton, Ayrshire.
At Trinity Church, Chelsea, the Rev. Edward Burney, M.A. son of the late Wm. Burney, Esq. LL.D. to Caroline Amyatt, daughter of Col. Brown, Commandant of the Royal Military Asylum, Chelsea.
At Nether Cerne, W. S. Davis, Esq. Lieutenant of the 15th Madras Native Infantry, to Elizabeth Grace, fifth daughter of J. B. Knight, Esq.

DEATHS.

At Kingstown, in her 78th year, Rachel, daughter of the late Mark Scott, Esq. of Mulhubber, county Tipperary, and niece to John, first Earl of Clonmel.
At her lodgings in William-street, in this City, at the advanced age of 84 years, Mrs. Margaret Weldon, relict of the late Rev. Robert Weldon, for many years Vicar of Ennis, in the diocese of Killaloe. Amiable and beloved while living, she died deeply lamented by her family, and regretted by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.
Yesterday, in Rutland-street, Mr. P. Garton, divisional Superintendent of the Metropolitan Police, Dublin, and son of the late Mr. Arthur Lacy Garton, of this City, Professor of Music.
At his father's residence, Upper Dromore, near Mallow, C. F. P. O'Leary, Esq. a relative of Mr. O'Connell.
In the 18th year of his age, at Tralee, Christopher, eldest son of the late Mr. Thomas Bunton.
At Clonmel, in advanced age, Mrs. Daniel, widow of the late John Daniel, Esq.
Ellen, daughter of Mr. Edward Moss, of Omagh.
Andrew Sproule, Esq.
In Galway, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Bonyng, Margaret, eldest daughter of the late Dominick Martin, Esq. of Westport.
At Cremorne Green, Ellen, wife of John Jackson, Esq. Secretary of the Grand Jury, county Monaghan.
At Ticknevin, county Kildare, Isabella, relict of Arthur Magenis, Esq.
At Portarlinton, Queen's County, Mrs. Elizabeth Palmer, relict of Cochran Palmer, Esq. of Rush Hall.
At his residence, Erin Terrace, Rathmines, R. Collier, Esq. Veterinary Surgeon.
At her residence, North King street, Mrs. Sarah Russell, aged 84, relict of Mr. William Russell, of Beresford-street.
At Booterstown-avenue, John Emerson, Esq. Royal Navy, commanding her Majesty's steam packet Urgent.
In Warrington-place, at the house of her son, H. Clare, Esq. of the General Post office, Mrs. Rachel Clare, in her 88th year.
In Dublin, in the 73d year of his age, Edmund O'Neill, Esq. of Ture House, county Donegal.
Mrs. MacEwen, wife of James MacEwen, Esq. late a Manager of the Provincial Bank of Ireland.
At Virginia, Cavan, Mary Love, wife of Doctor Love.
Mrs. Anne Philips, who held the situation of Matron of the County Derry Infirmary, at the advanced age of 98 years.
The Rev. Alex. Britton, of Bready.
At Ballymoney, Ellen, daughter of Mr. Samuel M'Affee.
At Fort William, near Belfast, George Langtry, Esq. He was the first to establish steam communication between Belfast and other ports.
The Rev. J. Price, Rector of Great Munden, Herts, and formerly vicar of High Wycombe, Bucks, in his 83rd year.
At York-place, Pimlico, Sarah Julia, eldest daughter of the late Colonel Stirke, 12th Regiment.
At Hitchin, Herts, Lora, widow of the late T. Wilshere, Esq.
H. M. Conyers, daughter of H. J. Conyers, Esq. of Copt Hall, Essex.
In Wilton-crescent, Mrs. Ibbetson, relict of the late H. Ibbetson, Esq. of St Anthony's, Northumberland, in her 91st year.
At Gravesend, James, son of the late Mr. W. Abbott, of Headborough, Sergeant of 39th Regiment.
At Powerscourt Glebe, Alexander Barrington Kennedy, aged 21 years, eldest son of the Rev. R. M. Kennedy, Rector of Powerscourt.
At Kildare-street, Elizabeth, second daughter of the late William Studdert, of Clonohan, King's County, Esq.
At Gracehill, county Antrim, the Rev. Charles Frederic Reichel, Minister in the Church of the United Brethren.
At Pelham place, Brompton, the Rev. Wm. Thomas Clarke, late of Melton Mowbray.
At Devonshire-road, Wandsworth-road, Capt. John Percival Robinson.
At Glasgow, Mr. Alex. Whitelaw, editor of the "Popular Encyclopedia," "The Casquet of Literary Gems," "The Republic of Letters," "Book of Scottish Song," &c.
Very suddenly, at her residence, Kentish Town, Sarah, relict of the late C. Finch, Esq.
The Rev. Henry Dyson, Rector of Wexham, Bucks, aged 82 years.
In Park road, Regent's Park, the Lady Jane Muirhead, sister of the late Duke of Atholl.
At Ditton Park, Jane Caroline, daughter of the late Lord Montagu.
At Monte Video, Angelo Lewis Vanzetti, Esq. Master of her Majesty's ship Eagle.

tion of the Curacy of ... with which you have in a large various pastoral duties, as a M amongst us, for the space of ever gratefully remembered by that both yourself, Mrs. B prosper in the sister country and we trust and pray that of Almighty God may bless y tual and temporal welfare of may in future be called to mi

Believe us to be, Rev. ar
Your humble Servan
THOMAS E. DAVENPORT
ARTHUR CHAMPAGNE,
THOMAS MORRIS, M.D.
CHARLES FOSBERY,
EDWARD H. DAVENPOR
WILLIAM MASSY GREEN
GEORGE HEACOCK,
THOMAS HILL,
And on the part of the Pari
WILLIAM WALLER, Clk
JAMES RYAN,
and
THOMAS DOWNES.

ANSW.

MY DEAR FRIENDS,
I receive, with every sent thankfulness, this very kin expression of your regard and re
Whether or not I have succe and prayerful desires to pro means, your temporal and spi now for me to determine. I gracious aid, and if any good it is not to me but to God alo
Your partiality has far over I have been, through God's while ministering to you the g was the weakness and insuffic was your kindness which bore it was your prayers, which wh Divine grace to make me stro mere instrument planted, it increase.
It is, indeed, a matter of m from friends who could think s be assured it will always affor suppose I have in any degree g
I cannot but feel this mome We have often met together in the pastor and the flock, that concerned must now be broker probability may on earth meet be a meeting between us at the and I must there give an acco among you, and you must t judged either as having profite or having its neglect registerd tion against you. How much require, and therefore though unite in prayer that God may washed from our sins in the at Jesus.
For your prayers and good v mine I most heartily thank yo to bless the ministry of him wh him the care of, and who let your souls, and that there ma a workman whose labour shall Lord. I would say farewell you to God, and the word of h build you up and give you an those who are successful.
Your's faithfully
JOH
Glebe, June 16th, 1846.