

DOWEL UNION.

MEMBERS of this Union will receive supplying the Work-House for Twelve FIRST of September next, with and CUTTINGS in equal proportions, MEAL, per Ton.

will be received by me up to the Board on THURSDAY, the 3rd of next, on which day they will be con-

required for the due performance of

By Order,
PATRICK HINCHY,
Clerk of the Union.

Stowel,
846.

BUILDERS, & Contractors.

TENDERS will be received on or before next, the 29th instant, at 12 o'clock, to be executed in the House, TONTINE lately held by Captain RICH, and agree- ment to be seen at the Office of Mrs. RICH & SON, who will show the Premises, and information required.

A MEETING of the Proprietors of Ton-George's-street, is particularly requested to be held on SATURDAY next, at 12 o'clock, to open Tenders, declare Contractor, and business which may relate to the Company.
GLOBE INSURANCE OFFICE,
3, Tontine Buildings.

Relief Committee.

THANKS.

Meeting of the Bruff Relief Committee, held at instant, by Mr. GODFREY MASSY, in the Chair, Mr. John Fitzgerald, Esq., and seconded by Mr. Robert Carey, Esq.:

Resolved—That we cannot separate expressing our most grateful sense of the very assistance given to us in our long and arduous and onerous duties of Treasurer and Secretary with satisfaction, and presided at our meetings on a most convenient opportunity, with dignity and kindness, the value of these services is greatly enhanced by the fact of the comparatively slight claims made on the District, on Mr. Low's very benevolent and exertions."

Resolved—That the foregoing Resolutions be published in the Limerick Chronicle, and Limerick and Clare termaster General of the Bombay Army, daughter of Captain Arnold Thompson, late 81st Regt.

GODFREY MASSY, Chairman.

DEATHS.

At his residence, Cashel, August 23rd, aged 70 years, Benjamin Newport White, Esq. Deputy Mayor of Cashel—deeply and deservedly regretted.

Yesterday, on Charlotte's-quay, in child birth, Anne, wife of Mr. John Humphrys, grocer and druggist—sincerely regretted by her family and friends. She was daughter of the late P. Goulding, Esq. corn and provision merchant.

In Londonderry, Mr. Dennis Shine, Pictorial Artist, late of this City.

In Clare street, Mr. John Cartin, nephew of Garrett Sheehy, Esq.

At Inchiquin Cottage, near Corofin, Miss Susanna O'Donnell.

At Bettyville House, county Galway, Malachy Kelly, Esq. aged 80 years.

At the Wood-quay, Galway, Mary, wife of John Kelly, Esq. of Gurtbeg.

At Abbeyland, county Galway, Henry Butler, Esq. late of Carlow.

At Harold's-cross, John Joseph Murphy, Esq. Solicitor.

At his residence in Molesworth-street, James Archbold, Esq. Henrietta Anne, second daughter of the Rev. J. D. Hurst, Rector of St. Catherine's, Dublin, aged 17.

Mr. Henry Fitzgerald O'Brien, of Mecklenburgh-street.

At Ballynure, Mr. W. R. Goyer, formerly teacher of the English department of the Belfast Academy, under the late Dr. Bruce.

Miss Dundass, daughter of the late James Dundass, Esq. of Aghmaldoney, county Fermanagh.

At Gortnamoyagh, near Garvagh, Hercules John Heyland, Esq. J.P.

At Hill-street, Belfast, Mary, wife of the late Mr. James Shannon.

On the 21st inst. at Taplow House, Maidenhead, the Marquis of Thomond.

At Stoke Newington, David Langton, Esq. aged 88.

At Southill, Bedfordshire, the daughter of Commander Charles C. Grey, R.N.,

Professor Bentley, of King's College, Aberdeen,

At the Vicarage, Shabbington, the Rev. Phipps Long, in the 75th year of his age.

At Moffat, Captain James Galloway, R.N. of Edinburgh.

At Burrow-hall, Kirkby Lonsdale, William Rix Beloe, Esq. son of the Rev. William Beloe, the translator of "Herodotus."

At Christchurch, Hants, Charlotte, eldest daughter of Lieut. Colonel Cameron, aged 19.

At Tenby, C. Thornton, Esq. of Carmarthen.

At Portsmouth, Eliza, the wife of Col. E. Parkinson, formerly of the 33rd Regiment.

At the Calverley Hotel, Tunbridge Wells, John William Spicer, Esq. late Captain in the 1st or King's Dragoon Guards.

At Shelton Rectory, Bedfordshire, Mary, wife of the Rev. Daniel Crofts.

At Sea, W. B. M'Alpin, Esq. Captain and Paymaster of Her Majesty's 94th Foot.

At Bruges, Captain C. Tyler, R.N. son of the late Admiral Sir Charles Tyler.

At Cork, Dr. Anthony Mann.

On Wednesday last, near Mallow, aged 78 years, Cornelius O'Leary, Esq. M.D. cousin to Mr. O'Connell.

At Killarney, Mr. Richard Ruddle.

On Wednesday last, in Dunmore East, Mrs. White, wife of Samuel White, Esq. of Waterford.

At Kells, county Meath, Margaret, wife of Doctor William Dyas.

Mr. William Boucher, of Dublin.

At Coolmoney Cottage, county Wicklow, Miss Hunter.

At his residence, Dalkey, in the 70th year of his age, Mr. John Helton, proprietor of the extensive hotel in that locality.

On the 16th inst. at Chatham, in the 83d year of his age, Lieut. General George Wulff, Colonel Commandant of the 9th Battalion Royal Artillery.

Mary, youngest daughter of General Sir George Cockburn, G.C.H. of Shangana, county Dublin.

At Barham-wood, Herts, Margaret, daughter of the late Sir John Halkett, Bart.

At Bruges, Pierser Francis Barron, Esq. son of the late James Barron, of Sarahville, county Waterford, Esq.

On board the Childe Harold, on his passage home from Bombay, Captain James Unwin, of the Bombay Artillery.

informing him the paragraph was refusal he, on the name an hour the Mr. Miller and Mr. one o'clock, and w o'clock, but neith though I remained Limerick up to Su from either of the Fitzgerald, that previous to his (M nesday evening, having made an a Such are the ex which would neve were it nor for th explanation (ma have given a v creditable to h (virtually under of our enforci this country) w nion, the most should be satisfie for, Mr. Miller fi and then amply a I have stated th words of Mr I themselves." Limer

Sir—Understa duct in the Su last, was intende company, I beg, had such intent belief could onl your part.

To Doctor Mi

Sir—As it ha perfect satisfact have insulted m Friday last, and under such m hereby express beg to apologise Cluna, Augu

To Robert R

With referer in the supper- we are authori given by one c conception on the most ample ter amicably ad