

has tendered to the poor at district 20 brls. of wheat, at market price.

Curran, diocese of Cork, value lost by the death of Rev. B Morris, shop.

offered by Government for the letter recently received by the Mullabrin, Kilkenny.

Hartrick, curate of Carrickfergus, Stees, Chaplain of the Magdalen Com of the Rev. J. B. Monsell.—didates.

report the death at Muscat, in Thomas Brockman, of Sandgate, oriental scholar, who had been on in the ancient land of Job.—hope uninjured, are of great validation of history and Scriptural non hitherto scarcely noticed by Mr. Brockman was as much esian virtues as he was valued for nts, and is sincerely regretted. He nephew of the Rev. T. Locke, of Dallas, of Wonston, recommends isis of Ireland, as a most desirable teachers of the Irish Society to country with copies of the Holy Scrip- al wants of the destitute poor.

Mahony, of Dromore, Kenmare, t, "we are in a deplorably desti- provisions, though the sufferers are e of food, if it could be got."

Esq. thankfully acknowledges the he Hon. Mrs. Grant, for the Pro-

Huolihan, R. C. Curate of Castle- promoted Parish Priest of Keel and

Bandon sent from Castle Bernard, ynes, P. P., of Desert, Bandon, k, a horse load of bread, all the ng dairies could supply, and other Bethlehem Convent, Sexton-street, the superintendance of the new and, accompanied by Sisters Byrne, lker, an English lady.

convent of Tralee, supply breakfast te of the children attending school. for the Propagation of the Roman ived, from the 5th of October to the eluding, per Rev. D. Buckley, P.P. rishes Munchin and Mary, per Rev.

Mr. Espy, a guardian, for the dismis- urphy, R.C. Chaplain of the North for having tampered with Protestant of the ground, for want of a seconder.

Trieste, and one from Malta, with ed at Cork, on Wednesday. One ed next day at £15 per ton.

phy is grinding Indian corn for the ttee at £1 per ton. The consump- or depots is 46 ton per week.

Cork workhouse are glad to lay down mber in the workhouse, 3,800.— se built for 800, contains 1300

Adora Marie Cope, sister of Mr. Sergeant Wilkins, Shaftes- bury House, Kensington.

At Brighton, Sir Francis John Ford, Bart. to Cornelia Maria, eldest daughter of General Sir Ralph Darling.

At Cairo, Henry Baldwin Herrick, of Bombay, Esq. barrister at law, to Isabella Shawe, daughter of the late James Willes, of Cork, Esq. M.D.

DEATHS

At Mallow, in the bloom of youth, to the inexpressible grief of her family and friends, Maria, daughter of the late Sir John Allen De Burgho, Bart. of Castle-Connell, and sister of Sir Richard De Burgho, Bart.

At Gortnamona, the seat of Patrick Blake, Esq. John, second son of the late Lieut. Colonel Henry Blake, of the Galway Militia, and brother of Lord Wallscourt.

At Lorrha, county Tipperary. on Friday, Charles Walsh, late Fort Major of Sheerness, formerly of the 3rd Buffs, who saved the colors at the battle of Albuera, 1811.

In Kingstown, Bridget, relict of Captain Richard Malone, and nephew of the Right Hon. Anthony Malone.

At Ivy Hall, county of Tipperary, Eleanor, relict of the late Rev. James Rogers, Vicar of Skeirke, diocese of Ossory.

At the residence of her brother-in-law, Captain Adderly Bernard, of Mayence, Elizabeth, daughter of Captain Walker.

At Ashburton Terrace, Ann, relict of the late Wm. Gosnell, Esq. aged 78 years.

At Portarlinton, aged 75, Mary, daughter of the late Rev. Ralph Carr, and aunt to Sir Charles Henry Coote, Bart.

At Rosenarra, county Kilkenny, of water on the chest, the Rev. Benjamin Morris, of Mount Pleasant, King's County, and Rector of Ringcurren, Diocese of Cork.

At Kilmore House, county Dublin, Ellen, relict of the late Ralph Smith, of Milford, county Tipperary, Esq.

At his brother's, the Rev. C. W. Mercier, Ballitore, Francis Joshua Mercier, Esq.

Henry Patterson, Esq. of Laurel Cottage, Trim, in the 71st year of his age.

At Clonmel, Mrs. William Nunan.

At Hollymount, Drogheda, Mr. John Crawford, Secretary to the Grand Jury, &c.

At Marlborough House, Kingstown, Robert John Farrell, Esq.

At his residence, Newcastle, county Wicklow, William, second son of John Revell, Esq. of Sea Park.

At Bowerville, Domybrook, Elizabeth Letitia, relict of Wil- liam Henry Bowyer, Esq.

At Inn's-quay, Mrs. Ellen Herkes, aged 72.

At Rathjernee, county Wexford, Edward Pierce, Esq. M.D. Medical Attendant to the Bridgetown Dispensary.

In Chichester, Maria Anne, relict of the late Major General Fraser, of Ashling-house, Sussex.

At his residence, Oliver's-terrace, J. S. Scatcherd, Esq. of the East India Company's Service.

At Peterstone Court, Brecknockshire, the residence of her son-in-law, Captain Browne, Isabella, relict of the late Wm. Forman, of Pennydarran, Merthyr Tydvil, Glamorganshire.

At Belfast, Mary, wife of Thomas Marson, of the Excise.

At Boston, Lincolnshire, Maryann, wife of Mr. Edgar Macklin, Supervisor of Excise, late of Belfast.

At Jacob's River, New Zealand, George Richards, Esq. son of the Rev. George Richards, Rector of Coolstiffe, Wexford.

In John street, Berkeley-square, Ellen, the wife of Robert Pollock, Esq.

In York-place, Walworth, John Harris, Esq. aged 90.

At the seat of her son, Lord Manners, Fornham Hall, near Bury, Lady Jane Butler Manners, aged 67 years, sister to Richard, first Earl of Glengall, and widow of the late Baron Manners, Lord Chancellor of Ireland..

At Carnock, N.B. the seat of his mother, Lady Stewart, Patrick Maxwell Stewart, Esq. M.P.

Aged 76, Isaac Lloyd Williams, Esq. of Lincoln's Inn, and of Cwmcynselin, in Cardigan.

who may be otherwise day, from 6 to 9 p.m. the Sc University, the Royal Militar neering Profession. Terms—T Taylor-street

The following Exercises in are proposed to "My son, Joh

No. 1.—How will you plac baked by your father, betwe break it with the greatest faci

No. 2.—A Diving Bell form pyramid, side of the greatest b 4 feet, altitude, 20 feet, is dr same depth, when the mercury thermometer at 56 degrees, h rise within the bell, and supp square inch opened at the top, be exhausted of air.

No. 3.—A Horse-rider or T which is 15 hands high, at the in a ring whose diameter is 6 is the inclination of the horse

No. 4.—A travelling to Lon mile-stone a flock of Sheep, pr miles in 2 hours, and in 2 Waggon moving at the rate of travelling at the same rate, ov 45th mile-stone, and met the V he came to the 31st mile-stor when A reached London?

N.B.—The above is the last the head of Quadratic Equatio Mathematics, for Engineers. Answer by simple Equation; a of Common Arithmetic.

TEET

FROM the very liberal p LIOCK, Surgeon Dentist

he has been in Limerick, he b and those Ladies and Gentlem professional aid, that he will, this his permanent residen sionally.

Mr. W's. method of treatr 25 years' practice, will ensure tion of his patients generally, tual, and free from the slighte

Residence—MISS RYAN'S * * Hours of Attendance fr

TO BE

FROM THE 25TH OF THE HOUSE, OFFICE SHEPPI

SITUATE in the County fit for immediate occup for extensive farming—the L tillage quality, containing 5 including walled-in Gardens one mile of Newmarket-on- thirteen of Limerick.

Application to be made to Upper Mallow-street, Limer