LINES

On the deeply lamented death of the Rev. John Whitty.
 Yes! it is past—the final struggle's o'er,
 That manly generous heart shall thro' no more;
 Those eyes, where ever burned affection's light,
 Or soft compassion beamed—are closed in night.
 That voice, whose tones could cheer the saddened heart,
 No more can comfort to our souls impart;
 For Death has triumphed, and we deeply mourn
 The Friend, the Pastor, and the Saint in turn.
 Who shall supply the prompt and vigorous aid
