

square, Dublin, 17th Dec 1846.
I made any allusion to you in the which was not warranted by the
from the Rev. Dr. Miley, I am y apology in my power for the
ev. gentleman's letter is now ben read at the last meeting of the ou can point out any matter, ined, I am ready to retract it in the r you please.

sorry that you think it right to s on the physical force question, only vital point upon which the l, and is now so likely to continue.
I say, that I deem it a sacred duty
a against making light of the physi-
It involves your present safety, admit, is not a paramount consid-d; but it also involves the safety of e same object which you have in e for the re-admission into the many of the Seceders if they would force principle; or if, without association would still be a legal aphatically, it would not; and it is point, and this alone, that I onference, as a preliminary step to on.

assing the topic upon your mind—
f respect and courtesy; whilst I you should not consent to be a ascertainment of the effects in admixture of the physical force principles and proceedings of the o expect to make any impression

e declarations of mine; but, you rust, when you recollect that the mbers of the Association from any ion is the first, and most sacred,
I can never be a party to any t, which does not, in the first ne due obedience to the law, and fect protection of the members om any well-founded legal pro-

e, perceive that your refusal to on the legal question, in the first e from the possibility of carrying stment. 'Till the point of legality
r arrangement is possible.

be, your's, very faithfully,
DANIEL O'CONNELL.
rien, Esq., M. P.

PRESENTS!
! Presents!!!
Daily of Amusing, Pleasing, Active Christmas Presents, at W. S. CIVET CAT,
PATRICK-STREET, LIMERICK.
Belfast, and No. 16, Dame-street, Dublin.
An endless variety of Blue and Goods, Silver Mounted Canes, Musical Boxes, Chess Men,
Knit-work Toys, Games, Con-Lanterns, Accordians, Papier
h, English, and German Toys,
Cases and Desks, Work-boxes, Combs and Brushes, Juvenile
es, China Ornaments, Purses, e present season.
and cheapest House in Ireland,
Depot.
and Retail, 17, PATRICK-STREET,

December 23.

barrister at law, to Anna Diana, daughter of the Rev. F. Close, of Cheltenham.
J. S. Menleath, son of Sir C. Menleath, Bart. of Closeburn, to Jane, daughter of J. Bailey, Esq. M.P. Glanusk Park.

DEATHS.

At the residence of her brother-in-law, Wilson Gun, Esq. High Sheriff of Kerry, Mary Matilda, daughter of the late Henry Allen, Esq. of Bath. Miss Allen, in the prime of life, fell a victim to fever.
At Kingstown, after a protracted illness, on the 17th inst. Wm. Purefoy, Esq. of Greenfield, county Tipperary, Lieut.-Colonel of the Tipperary Militia, aged 46 years.
At Altamira, near this City, Mr. Patrick Hourigan, aged 90 years, a respectable master stone-cutter.
At Dickson's-lane, Boherbuoy, Mrs. Sparling.
At Athluncard-street, aged 104 years, Mrs. Egan, formerly of Mary-street, feather and skin buyer.
In Clonmel, Mr. John Boate, dentist,
At his residence, Richmond-hill Cottage, Richard Abernethy, formerly of Cork.
At her residence in Bandon, Mrs Baldwin, relict of the late William Baldwin, Esq. of Nelson-place.
At Patrick's Hill, Cork, Wm. Adams, Esq. aged 84.
At Clare Grove, county Dublin, Clarinda, wife of General Cuppage.
At Tower Mount, James O'Connor, Esq.
In Miltown, Theodore, aged 15 years, and Charles, aged 13 years, children of Charles Newton, Esq.
Mr. Jeremiah Troy, an old inhabitant of Clonmel.
At Drumcondra Hill, Eliza, wife of L. Desmond, Esq.
On the 13th inst. at Kingstown, after a short illness, Mrs. Harriet Kelly, relict of the late Capt. John Kelly, 77th Regt.—deeply and deservedly regretted by all who knew her.
At Summer Hill, Edward Connor, Esq. aged 81 years.
Thomas O'Reilly, of Jervis street, Esq. solicitor.
At his residence, Collan, county Louth, Patk. Norris, Esq.
At Rathmines-terrace, Anne, second daughter of Colonel Shee, of Kilkenny.
At his father's residence, South Circular-road, George, youngest son of R. Cooper, Esq. aged 21 years.
At her son's residence, Aberystwith, Sarah, relict of the late Thomas Deane, of Dublin, Esq. and daughter of the late Thos. Kitt, Esq. of Cork.
At Waterloo-road, Phoebe, relict of the late Rev. Walter Riky, Rector of Jonesborough, county Armagh.
At his residence, Sandymount, Mr. James Kane, head cook and steward in Trinity College.
In Wexford, Dr. Healy.
At Drumdoe, the residence of his mother, the Rev. Michael Doherty, Parish Priest of Kiltubrid, county Leitrim.
In Ballyshannon, Mrs. Christiana Britton, relict of the late Captain Britton, of Whitehill, county Donegal.
At his son's residence, Prussia-street, Mr. Thomas Keogh, sen. aged 80.
Georgina, daughter of George Papworth, Esq.
At the Royal Hospital, Louisa, relict of the late Henry R. Bowles, Esq. aged 70 years.
At Leamington, Mr. John Walsh, of Liverpool, merchant, formerly of Dublin.
On the 1st inst. at Rome, in the 20th year of her age, Octavia, eldest daughter of Colonel Bryan, of Jenkinstown, county Kilkenny.
At Belfast, at an advanced age, Mrs. Letitia Fisher, relict of the late Mr. Samuel Fisher, of Portadown.
At his residence in Donegal, Arthur Gore Donleavy, Esq.
At Culmore, Derry, Mrs. Thomas Steen, aged 83 years.
At Dungannon, Sidney, daughter of Mr. Thomas Monahan.
At Crevagh, the Rev. John Hogg.
At Preston, in Lancashire, Capt. Burrowes, District Barrack Master, formerly of the 8th or King's Royal Irish Hussars.
At Plymouth, Mr. Spinks, of the Veteran Battalion, aged 86.
Lieut. Walter Groset Everest, R.N.
At Devonport, Mr. Elwall, Government contractor.
In High-street, Plymouth, Mrs. Nichols, aged 87 years.
At Widey Court, Devon, Elizabeth, widow of the late Col. Anderson Morshead, R.E.
At Mylor, Capt. Duperier, Barrack Master and Storekeeper at Pendennis Castle, aged 75 years.
Joanna, the wife of Peter Fry, Esq. of Compton House, Somerset, aged 79 years; and Peter Fry, Esq. aged 77 years, surviving his wife one hour.
At Queen's-place, Kemington, Mary Anne, daughter of the late Thomas Caldwell, Esq. of the Clapham road.
At Glasgow, Mr. Andrew Paterson, manager of the Monkland Canal.
At Shandwick-place, William Colvin, Esq. R.N. Deputy Inspector of Hospitals.
At Leicester, Major William Heyrick Macauley, 21st Madras Infantry.
At Woburn-square, J. Bellamy, Esq. housekeeper of the House of Commons, aged 73.
At Chatham, Capt. Joseph E. Deere, of the 94th Regt.
At Hamilton-place, the Right Hon. Thomas Grenville, aged 91.
At Stubton, Lady Heron, wife of Sir R. Heron, Bart. M.P.
At Brunswick-terrace, Brighton, Rebecca Martin, daughter and heiress of the late Sir J. M. Lloyd, Bart. of Lancing.
At Salisbury, W. H. Hatcher, Esq. author of the "History of Salisbury," &c.
In Maryland, United States, at the seat of her son-in-law, John Maclavish, Esq. Mrs. Caton, mother of the Duchess of Leeds, the Marchioness Wellesley, and Lady Stafford.