brothel nuisance in Old Post-office-lane, at the prosecution of Constable Hardy, City Police. The Ballast Board has ordered a monster fog bell, at the instance of Mr. Steele, cost £400, for the Baillyrock, near Howth light-house. The convicts at Norfolk island killed four policemen in a riot there last August. Chief Constable Smith was amongst the victims. The late John Egan, Esq. of Tuam, has left his immense property to Doctor Egan, of Dublin.

Miss Mary Wallace, late of this City, whose death we announced, bequeathed £100 to the Magdalen Asslum: £100 to the Sick poor of the parishes of St. Michael, St. John, St. Mary, and St. Munchin, and £25 to the Presentation Convent School.

The Mayor of Belfast presided at a public meeting. on Thursday, to memorial Government for suspension of distillation from grain. Pat Tiernan, Catherine Walsh, Bernard Regan (son of a butcher from Limerick) Michael Moran, John Ruane, and an old man, name unknown, died victims of starvation in Mayo, last week, as proved by the verficts at Coroners' inquests ! In the parish of Skull, adjoining the equally wretched distress of Dunmanway and Skibbereen, the Roman Catholic clergy average the deaths from hunger at ten per day, and several bodies are interred without coffins. One starving family was seen devouring their cabin dog, which was killed for want of other food !

Ministers have refused the entreaty of the Skibbemen guardians for a Queen's letter, to make a general charitable collection for relief of the distress in Ireland. The clergy of Castlebar have made a return of thirtyone deaths from starvation in that Union, for the last month!

Michael and James Mitchell, children, died of starmin at Castlegregory, Kerry, on Tuesday.

A poor man named Denvir, who came into Castlebar, to seek for food to support nature, died of exhaustion, and was interred without a coffin.

There were nine paupers dead in the Mallow workhouse on Christmas day.

The Hibernian Bank has subscribed 2300 for the poor in Ireland. A new treasurer will be appointed to the Nenagh Dispensary on Saturday, in place of Mr. Burr. In Mary O'Connell and Maria O'Connell, a minor, Laurence O'Connell, and John Quirk, as executors, mapplication to the Rolls Court for a receiver over thouse, rent only £6 a-year, at Cashel, and the apmintment of a Guardian to the minor, the Masster is dismissed the case with costs against the mother of the minor. Miss Faucit is playing with Mr. Seymour at the Cork

Mrs. George Vincent, Erinagh, begs to acknowledge from the Irish Relief Association a grant of £10 for the bonass soup fund, and £2 from Mrs. Colonel Vincent, lingstown, her second subscription to that fund. William R., Yielding, Esq. has directed his agent, Mr.

mossor, to allow the several tenants on the lands of Sensharold, Knockfinisk, and Carrigkerry, in the County Limerick, 6s 8d. in the pound off their rents. The attendance at the Concert by the M'Grath amily, on Monday night, was not so full, from to uninviting appearance of the evening, a mist ed fog prevailing. There was obvious impoyement in the instrumentation from that of he first concert. The solo from, De Beriot, on violin Master J. M'Grath, was the most admired in the enformance, and at the conclusion he was warmly aphuded. Next in estimation was the duet for violin ad piano-forte by Mr. Wood and Mr. M'Grath, both a this and the fantasia on piano-forte, by Mr. M'Grath, a displayed great execution and precision. Miss WGrath in her songs and duets displayed a purity and duiness of style rarely met with. The vocal duets om Donizetti and Balfe, were encored and sung in a duste and pleasing manner. Mr. Wood displayed his nated coolness and ability as a leader and director.

We refer to the Advertisement of Mr. Ryan, Drawing Vister, as families are much in want of such a profesthal gentleman in this City.
