At the general annual meeting of the Jubilee and Pery Loan Society this day-William Roche, Esq. High Sheriff, in the chair-the report stated the sum turned in the past year exceeded £15,000, the loss none; nett profits after payment of management, £130; of which sum £70 is allocated to charity, including £60 for soup kitchen fund.

The Dean of Limerick thankfully acknowledges the receipt of £30, from the National Bank, per R. F. Goff, Esq. for the Relief fund; as also, the handsome donation of £25, from the West of England Insurance Company, per David Fitz-Gerald, Esq. for the same.

The deputation from Kilkee consisting of Mr. H. Stuart Burton, Rev. Mr. Comyn, Rev. Dr. Martin, and Rev. M. Duggan, waited on Mr. Labouchere to represent to him the condition of the poor of the district. The deputation stated that oatmeal sold in Kilkee at five shillings a stone. The people have not a single stone of potatoes ! Mr. Labouchere recommended the deputation to the attention of Colonel Jones and Sir Randolph Routh, The latter promised that he would cause depots to be established as recommended. He advised that local subscriptions should Esq. M.D. and nephew of the tate Francis Drew, Esq. D.L. of be forthwith collected, but was reminded that in a district of 26 miles there was only one resident landlord, At Carrick-on-Suir, Mary, daughter of the late Patrick Mr. Burton, whose benevolence it was impossible to surpass. They had a gratifying assurance that instructions would be given for increased employment in the At Inch House, in her 74th year, Lucretia, relict of John Eles Madden, of Balbriggan. Esq. and daughter of the late above district. The Tralee relief committee require a credit of £3,000 from the local branch of the Provincial Bank, and the bank is ready to advance half that sum. The committee have applied to Capt. Stokes, Staff Officer, for four active pensioners to be placed on their depot. The Kilkenny Guardians were obliged to call in the whole police force of the city to eject, at the point of the bayonet, the clamorous applicants for "out-door" relief, who had scaled the walls and kept possession of the Workhouse. John Norris Russell, Esq., has sent £5 to the Tralee ladies' soup fund.

There are 1100 paupers in Tralee workhouse, which is so crowded that the Guardians will receive no more.

TO THE RIGHT WORSHIPFUL Thos. Wallnutt, Esq., Mayor.
