

less" labour rate act. The sum total of the applicas for road work amounted to £102,287 1 and of e presentments were passed to the amount of 1541

W. D. Butcher, Esq. C. E. has arrived at Ballymote, o, from Tulla, county Clare, to replace Captain on, inspecting officer of the Board of Works.

Mr. Robert Bouchier, Deputy Clerk of the Peace, is ointed Secretary pro tem to the Longford Grand y, in room of the late Mr. Geoffrey.

At Longford Sessions, Mr. Nelson, the Assistant rister, sentenced six offenders to transportation for bery of money and provision.

The Board of Works has taken measures to render fisheries available as a source of food and employ-nt in this distressing season. Three stations have en established on the Western Coast at Roundstone, nty Galway; Belmullet, county Mayo; and Killybegs nty Donegal. Agents have been appointed for erintending the purchase of fish from the fishermen as to keep them employed; the fish is cured so as to der it nutritious and palatable when eaten with lian or other meal. Mr. Kennan is appointed to erintend the Killybegs fisheries.

Captain Hay, Inspecting Officer of the Board of orks, is laying out a public garden and walk for the izens of Waterford.

The Sligo Corporation has granted the inhabitants a ld of three acres for a public cemetery.

Henry M. Bond, Esq., is appointed Inspector of ainage for the County of Longford.

Captain W. Martin, R.N., of Springmount, is ointed a magistrate of the county Cork.

Sir Robert Peel has subscribed £200 to the fund for ief of the destitution in Ireland, and the English fund ow amounts to £20,000.

Sir Mathew Barrington & Co. have subscribed £100 to the central relief committee, Dublin; Mr. R. L. llis, of Cambridge, £100; Lady Lucy Foley, £100;
nd the Wakefield ladies' committee, £100.

Mr. Michael Sheil, Inspector of the night Watch for e parishes of St. Mary and St. John, last night rested a cyprian in Post-office-lane, who was after bbing a gentleman of £14 in notes. The owner has ot since applied for them.

The last act of the life of Mr. Joseph Gurney, of Norwich, banker, was to subscribe £500 to the Irish Poor Relief Fund.

The daily average number of persons employed on Public Works in Ireland for the last week was 418,264.

At Clare barony extraordinary sessions, Tuam, such was the necessity of the labouring poor that it was found expedient to vote £13000, or 7s. in the pound on the poor law valuation of the barony.

For a long time there has not been so heavy an amount of civil business in Kerry, during the last fortnight—reaching in Killarney 1200 entries, and in Tralee to 1800. The criminal calendar has been also very heavy, particularly in cases of larceny.

Captain Thomas Clayton, of the barque Helen, was drowned at Belfast on Saturday night.

Carlow Quarter Sessions were adjourned, because of the severe illness of Mr. Schoales, Assistant Barrister.

A pauper who cut his throat in the Tralee workhouse has died of his wounds. His name was Shea, a tailor.

The Cork Corporation has just paid the annual vote of £100 to the Orphan charities of that City, £75 for Roman Catholic, and £25 to Protestants.

The Cork Town Council, on the motion of Alderman Lyons, have adopted a memorial to the Queen, and a petition to Parliament, for dissolution of the legislative Union. Another motion for the dismissal of Lord John Russell from office, was lost on a division.

It is the intention of the Board of Works to give employment to 1400 persons in Tralee district.

The Cork Temperance Societies are beginning to import "bread stuffs" from Liverpool, for their own necessities, the local market is so dear.

Mr. Sinclair and Mrs. Wood have announced concerts at Liverpool, this week.

The Marquis of Londonderry refused to pay his hotel bill at Londonderry last month, denouncing the charge to be exorbitant for bad accommodation. His Lordship said there was not a good hotel in the "maiden city."

John Thompson, Esq. of Rathnally, Meath, is found to be a lunatic by the commission in Dublin.

Not one penny of County rates has been collected in the baronies Bear and Bantry, County Cork. An application will be made at the ordinary sessions to the Lord Lieutenant to relieve them from the tax.

The steamer Dragon, a powerful Government vessel, is loading at Greenwich with food for Castlehaven and the ports along to the Shannon, which is to be distributed under the direction of Colonel Fielding, brother to Lord Denbigh.

daughter of Major General Conyers, C.B. on the local Staff.
At Fort Beaufort, Cape of Good Hope, the Rev. W. R.
Thomson, of the Dutch Reformed Church, Stockenström, to Isabella, daughter of the late A. Smith, Esq. of Laurieston, Kincardineshire.
Mr. Isaac Howard, of Merchant's-quay, shipwright, to Miss Mary Ann Leddy, of the Little Island.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at his residence, Newgrove House, Tulla, Thomas Browne, Esq. D.L. one of the oldest and most respectable Magistrates and Grand Jurors of the county Clare. His private virtues and social qualities had endeared him to all the resident gentry of his native County. A numerous tenantry will long deplore the loss of their kind, indulgent landlord.

At Odleville, near Ballingarry, on Monday last, Eliza, wife of Daniel Dickson Power, Esq. and daughter of the late Colonel Wm. O'Dell, of the Grove, M.P. for this County.

At the house of her brother, Captain W. Oake, Catherine-place, Miss Mary Oake.
This morning, in Upper Cecil-street, Sophia Mary, the beloved child of Mr. David George Boyd.

In Cove, at an advanced age, Catherine, relict of the late Rev. John Kent Dawson, and daughter of the late Thomas Herbert, Esq. of Muckross, county Kerry.

At William-street, Mr. Thomas Moore—a young gentleman much regretted by his family and friends.

At her house in Middleton, Anne, relict of the late Warham Durdin, Esq. and daughter of the late Thomas Garde, Esq.

At Clonlara, suddenly, where he held a situation under the Board of Works, Mr. P. Powell, of Ennis.

Thomas French, Esq. of Caramore, one of the oldest solicitors in the county Galway.

At Bagenalstown, Carlow, of decline, Lieut. Joseph Cuffe
Barrett, 14th Dragoons.

At Castlebar, Ellen, wife of Mr. A. Bole, proprietor of the Mayo Constitution newspaper.

At Bantry, Ellen, wife of Michael Cronin, Esq.
At Corbally, Cork, the residence of her father, Jane, eldest daughter of Patrick Shine, Esq.

Mr. Samuel Mathews, Printer.
In Dublin, Charles Pakenham Roddy, Esq. Paymaster of the 89th Regiment.

At her house, Prussia-street, Mrs. Susanna Dodd.
In Clonmel, Caroline Minchin Weekes, relict of the late William Weekes, Esq. of Ballintubber, county Cork.

John, son of John Lynch, Esq. Solicitor, Tralee.
At her residence, Erin Terrace, Rathmines, Barbara, relict of the late Thomas Bewley, Esq. of Palmyra, county Dublin.

At his residence, Belfield, Donnybrook, on Saturday last,
Thomas Wallace, Esq. Q.C.

At Summer-hill, Mary, wife of Andrew Vance, Jun. Esq.
At Tralee, aged 82 years, Mrs. Read, relict of the late Thomas Read, Esq. 11th Veteran Battalion.

John W. Breen, Esq. of Slade, county Wexford.
At New Ross, James Braddell, Esq. aged 82.

At Leeson-street, Thomas William, eldest son of the Rev.
Dr. Luby, F.T.C.D. in the 21st year of his age.

At Carracloe, Wexford, Mary, wife of Mr. W. Talbot.
In Wexford, Louisa, wife of Mr. Thomas H. Rowe.
Suddenly, at Sligo, Mrs. Palmer, relict of the late Thomas Palmer, Esq. of Beaview.

At Morington, Owen Daly, Esq. J.P. Westmeath.
At Danville, Kilkenny, Christopher James, Esq. Barrister.
At Goodwin's Garden, county Kilkenny, Mrs. Nowlan.

In Carlow, Miss Honoria Crotty.
Joseph, son of Thomas Mulhall, Esq. of Erin Lodge, Carlow.

Mr. James Weldrick, of Great Britain-street.
At Maynooth, Elizabeth Mahon, in her 74th year.

At Monkstown, Jane, relict of James Waring, Esq. Newry.
In the Royal Military Hospital, Phoenix Park, Dublin, Corporal Patrick Kelly, of the 47th Regiment, son of the late Mr. William Kelly, of Castlemore, county Carlow.

At Enniskillen, Mrs. M'Millen, wife of Doctor M'Millen.
At Rathgar, Katharine, wife of Edward Lucas, Esq. late Captain in the 68d Regiment.

At Bellaghareden, the Rev. Thomas Ellison, Minister of the Presbyterian Church, Banagher.
Sarah, wife of Mr. Samuel Quigley, merchant, Belfast.

At his seat, Wrotham Park, on the 10th inst. in the 83d year of his age, George Byng, Esq. Member for the county of Middlesex in fifteen consecutive Parliaments, and during a period of 67 years.

At Guernsey, the Lady of Major Rynd.
At Studham, Herts, Thomas Sweeney, Esq. surgeon.

In Henrietta street, Cavendish square, Mary Louisa, eldest daughter of Captain Manners, R.N.
In the Citadel, Plymouth, Brevet Lieut. Colonel Malcolm McGregor, 5th Fusiliers, aged 69, from injuries received by a fall from his horse.

Suddenly, at his residence, Sherwood Lodge, Battersea, in his 83d year, the Right Hon. Sir Edward Hyde East, Bart.

At Rudgeway House, Alveston, near Bristol, in his 20th year, William, the fifth son of Rear Admiral Milward.
At Shrewsbury, William Egerton Jeffreys, Esq.
At Newcastle-upon-Tyne last week, Mrs. Eliza Martin, formerly Miss Inverarity, a celebrated vocalist.

Lieut. Charles Peake, R.N.
At Clifton, Major Macky, late of the Enniskillen Dragoons.
At Esher, Surrey, the Rev. Philip Le Geyt, Vicar of Marden, Kent, aged 71.
At Bridlington, Commander W. E. Curlewis.
Mr. A. Dickson, of Cursitor street, Chancery lane.
At Allsop terrace, A. Fraser, Esq. of the Stock Exchange.
In Hyde-park-terrace, Lady Mary Shepherd.
At Woodville, Isle of Man, Sir William Hilary, Bart. equerry to the late Duke of Sussex.
At Invergowrie, Margaret, widow of General David Hunter.
At Upper Clapton, John Dyer, Esq. formerly chief clerk at the Admiralty, and secretary to Greenwich Hospital, in the 80th year of his age.
At Edinburgh, J. Henry Davidson, M.D. one of her Majesty's Physicians.
At Andover, in his 83d year, Philip Henry Poore, M.D.
senior liveryman of the Society of Apothecaries.
At Sloane-street, Mrs. Hunter, aged 69.
At Woolwich, Lieut. Col. P. Sandilands, late of 3d Guards.
At Norfolk-street, Straud, Mathew Stritch, Esq. of the Middle Temple.
At Boulogne-sur-Mer, J. Ibbotson, Esq. of Ealing, Middlesex, aged 71.
At Calcutta, Thomas Young, Esq. of the Bengal Civil Service, son of Sir William Young, Bart. of Bailieborough Castle.

To Sell by strictly Unreserved Auction at BARRAGE-ANE, on

MONDAY NEXT, THE 18th OF JAN. INST.

- THE FOLLOWING PROPERTY:—
- 12 In-calf Cows and Heifers in choice condition.
 - 1 Yearling Heifer.
 - 2 Calves.
 - 1 Well-bred Two Year Old Bull.
 - 3 Ponies.
 - 3 Donkeys.
 - Strong Farm Mare.
 - Promising Yearling Colt, got by "Friar."
 - Highly-bred Yearling Colt.
 - 20 Tons of superior upland Hay.
 - Large Rick of Prime Oats suited for Seed.
 - Saddle and Bridle.
 - Several articles of Farming Implements.
 - Planks, Deals, and Dairy Vessels.

Also, a quantity of good strong FURNITURE consisting of Tables, Chairs, Press, Desk, Cupboard, Clock, Dresser, Bedsteads, Kitchen requisites, Delf, Glass, &c.

The Farm contains 70 acres of Highly manured Land suited for Tillage or Meadowing, and 100 acres of Commonage, with abundant Turbary; comfortable
Farm House, with well built Out Offices, and extensive Barn, and is held for a term of one life, and 17 years, at the low rent of £60 per annum.

Accepted Bills, with Stamp and Interest added, will be taken for any sum over £20, but they must be approved of prior to Sale by

JAMES MARSHALL, Auctioneer, 96, George-street, Limerick.
Sale at 11 o'Clock sharp. January 13.

Springfield House School.

ENNIS.
Under the patronage of the Right Rev. Dr. KENNEDY, Bishop of Killaloe.
Mr. FITZSIMON, and Mr. POWER, Ex Scholar, T.C.D.
PRINCIPALS.
Business will be fully resumed in this Establishment on THURSDAY, the 14th inst. January 13.

TO BE LET,

FROM THE 1st OF MAY NEXT,
FOR SUCH TERM AS MAY BE AGREED ON,
THE HOUSE, OFFICES, and LANDS of SHANBALLARD, containing 184 Acres Plantation Measure, and situated within 5 miles of Clonmel.
The Lands are in a highly improved state—the House and Offices lately built, and finished in the best manner.
N.B.—A fine will be expected.
Application to be made to JAMES SCULLY, Esq.
Tipperary. January 13.

TO ANGLERS.

TO BE LET.
FOR THE ENSUING SEASON,
THE ROD SALMON FISHERY OF DOONASS.
THIS Fishery is acknowledged to be the best in the United Kingdom. The Falls of DOONASS are within Six Miles of Limerick, on the Upper Shannon, and the beautifully situated Village of Castle-Connell (on the spot), affords every accommodation that can be required.
Application to JOHN WESTROPP, No. 1, Lower Glentworth-street, Limerick. January 13.

SHIRTS, SHIRTS, SHIRTS.

And General Outfitting.
SHIRTS cut on scientific principles, of KING's celebrated Water-twist SHIRTINGS, with Linen Fronts, Wists, and Collars, at 2s. 4d. 2s. 8d. 3s.
3s. 3d. 3s. 6d. 3s. 9d. 4s. 4s. 6d. 5s The very best that can be produced
SIX SHILLINGS.
Gentlemen's Suspenders, Scarfs, Stocks, Joinvills, Opera ties, Mufflers, Military Doe, Cloth, Dress, and other Gloves, with every article in the Hosiery line, in great variety.

Revington, Higginson & Co.

15, AND 16, GEORGE-STREET, LIMERICK.
R. H. & Co. will dispose of BLANKETS and other articles purchased solely for distribution among the Poor, at cost price. December 23.