

works to the amount of £10,000. Captain Wynne, Chairman of the Board, threatening to make him a Court, as he was passing expressed his indignation of the villain who would presume to Court. The letter bore a death's head and was written with red ink. The Chairman expressed his indignation. He was ready to give for his apprehension, and would give £50. After the interruption, the business of the Board with, and presentments sent—For unfinished works, £10,000. Captain Wynne, in a menacing threat, proceeded to Miltown. Mr. Henry Vereker, Esq. of this week were awarded by the Royal Humane Society. and Bandon workhouses, admission of paupers. taken 1000 shares in the at city. Portadown, on Friday, the for value of land required by way company, and compensation of £4,016. Verdict of the of Kylepark, Borrisokane, drainage for that district. Mr. Sir Robert Shaw, Bart. for the County of Down. was refused the demurrer of the company to Rev. Mr. for compensation for loss by land at Ballinderry, West- of the Society has engaged the the vocalist, and Mr. Levy, presented £300 to flag the people contributing £50. £1,000 to the general relief for parochial charity. Mr. Conway, Timothy and sentenced to transportation for Treasurer of Bruff soup- institution £60, collected 100, and £9 from Arthur given £50 to the poor besides £100 to Cork. The committee has allocated the wards for fever patients, is to be called in. The fact, that east, west, and small farmers have de- their small holdings during referring the prospect of an labour on the public works. that should they venture on landlords would, early in the their crops for the rents of Regt. son of Lt.-Col. Diggle, K.H. late 52d Regt. and equerry to her Majesty, to Jane, daughter of Mr. George Holman. At Auckland, William Plummer, Esq. barrack-master, to Sophia Sewell, daughter of Major Marlow, commanding Royal Engineers, New Zealand.

DEATHS.

On Thursday night last, at Brook Lodge, county Clare, Bessy, the beloved wife of Thomas Sampson, Esq. and daughter of George Walton, of Ballysheen House, Esq. Though young in years, she possessed, in an eminent degree, those virtues that adorn the domestic circle. Her death has caused a void among her sorrowing friends which cannot easily be filled up; but their solace is—that God has called her pure spirit to Himself, to reap the fruit of her unceasing charity and truly religious life, in the enjoyment of eternal bliss. At his house in Mary-street, Mr. William Kelly, spirit retailer. At Newtownstacpoole, county Clare, Mr. Michael Clanchy, Apothecary. Mr. Daniel Burke, of Bank-place, tobacconist. At Gort, in an advanced age, William Tyrrell, Esq. Rev. Bigoe Henzell, Rector of Kilmahon, diocese of Cloyne, and Killelagh, diocese of Kilfenora, in his 79th year. James Alexander St. Clair, son of St. Clair O'Malley, Esq. Samuel Scott, Esq. of Parnall-place. In Charlemont-street, Elizabeth, relict of the late Captain Charles Smyth, formerly of the city of Limerick, aged 78. At his residence, Square, Fermoy, Andrew Sullivan, Esq. At Cove, Miss Eliza Kinnears, aged 76 years. Charlotte, wife of Mr. John Day Surflen, Tralee. At Mulgannon House, Wexford, Sybil, daughter of the late William Hughes, Esq. At Parsonstown, Mr. John Dooly, proprietor of the Royal Arms Hotel. At Waterford, the son of Daniel Carigan, Esq. At her house in Hatch-street, Mrs. Frances Hamilton, daughter of Doctor Hamilton, late of Dublin, aged 88. At Peppard's Castle, the residence of her grandson, Thomas White, Esq. Jane, relict of Henry White, of Clonganny, co. Wexford, Esq. At Waltham Terrace, Blackrock, Katherine, wife of Richard B. Blackwood, Esq. and sister of the late Colonel Madden, of Hilton, county Monaghan. At Market Drayton, Anne, wife of Captain John Horner, late 55th Regt. At Victoria, Hong Kong, Francis Dill, Esq. M.D. Colonial Hospital Surgeon, son of the late Rev. Samuel Dill, of Donoughmore, county Donegal. In London-street, Fitzroy-square, Margaret, relict of the late Captain O'Connell, aged 75. At Frogmore, near Ross, Herefordshire, William Bridgman, Esq. F.R.S. aged 80. At Ashcroft, Cirencester, Joseph Cripps, Esq. late M.P. for that borough, aged 81. James Vere, Esq. of Oxford-terrace, Hyde Park, aged 75. Isaac Stickney, Esq. of Scarborough, a member of the Society of Friends, and an Alderman of the borough. Suddenly, Emma, daughter of Wm. Gregory, Esq. Bristol. Sarah, relict of Captain Joseph Vernon, formerly of the 22d Light Dragoons, and daughter of the late Rev. Bernard Fowler, Rector of Wormley, Herts. At Canterbury, the Rev. William Sherlock Carey, Rector of Lezant, Cornwall. At Hastings, aged 74, John Acton, Esq. late of Ipswich. At Stonyhurst, aged 20, John, son of Robert Berkeley, Esq. At St. Helier's, Jersey, Mary, wife of Capt. James Keating, eldest son of Lieut. General Sir Henry J. Keating, K.C.B. Mrs. Byrne, of Fore-street, City. At Assembly-row, Mile-end, Captain John Fisher. At Clifton, the Rev. Edward Trafford Leigh, Rector of Cheshire, Cheshire. At Ormiston, Mrs. Douglas, widow of the late Lord Reston, Scotch Law Judge. At Oundle, William Newsom, Esq. formerly of Leighton, At Douglas, Isle of Man, the Rev. F. B. Hartwell. At Demerara, suddenly, Richard Daly, Esq. only brother of Colonel Daly, late of the 4th Light Dragoons. At Toronto, Upper Canada, Jane, relict of Lieut. C. Jones, of the Royal Engineers, and daughter of the late Col. Jones, of the 71st Light Infantry. At Naples, Robert Beadle, Esq. late of the 81st Regt. At Genoa, the Hon. Isabella Stafford Jerningham, daughter of Lord Stafford. At M'Carthy's Island, Sierra Leone, G. Muttiebury, Esq. Lieutenant 3d West India Regiment. At Belize, Honduras, Henry Augustus Gray, Esq. public treasurer. At Genoa, Anna Maria, relict of the late Major General Frederick Bowes. At Delhi, Lieut. James Evans, of the 67th Native Infantry.

Apply to SAMUEL BELLI...

NOTICE

THE AUCTION which was to take place at the LODGE, on the 19th instant, the first page of CHRONICLE, is unavoidably postponed in consequence of the melancholy death of THOMAS SAMPSON—particulars shall appear in the next issue. JOHN STANLEY

Ennis, 15th January. AT WESTGATE NEAR DOUGLAS MRS. SEXTON RECEIVES a limited number of Board and Educate upon assisted by the best Masters, in every branch. Vacation will terminate on Monday, 15th January.

Springfield House ENNIS. Under the patronage of the Right Hon. the Bishop of Killarney, Mr. FITZSIMON and Mr. POWER, PRINCIPALS. Business will be fully resumed on THURSDAY, the 14th inst.

COUNTY OF CAHERFADDA and BALLYBARONY of Inchiquin, and County of Wick (before advertised,) will, pursuant to the will of the late Captain LUCIUS O'NEILL, Esq. be sold by Public Auction, in the PUBLIC SALES ROOM, UPPER ORMOND QUAY, DUBLIN, on the 19th January, Instant, at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon (unless previously sold by private contract). Lot No. 1—Caherfadda (fee-simple) 2R. 27P., statute measure, let to Mr. O'Loughlin, Esq., (who has a valuation of £1,000, 1833, for three lives, at a rent of £100 to quit rent 1s. 1d., and title rent 1s. 1d., leaving net profit rent of £218 8s. 6d.) Lot No. 2.—Ballycasheen (lives) by lease dated 1698, contains 33 statute acres, let to one tenant, William O'Connell, Esq., (who has also a very valuable lease for three lives, of which one is now worth £348 18s. 6d., subject to head rent of £100 and rent charge £4 15s. 3d., leaving net profit rent of £100 per annum. The Two Estates produce a clear net profit of £1,000 per annum of the most solvent tenants in Clare, at the rate of £100 per annum. Ballycasheen is subject to a Hereditary Rentcharge on death of each chief tenant, and the finest pasture farms in Clare. For rentals, with conditions of sale, as to title, apply to ROBERT O'BRADY, Esq. Lisnagry; or GEORGE DARTNELL, Esq. 48, Lower Sackville-street, Limerick, and 48, Lower Sackville-street, Limerick, who will treat for a sale by Private Auction. JOHN LITTLE

Dated 15th January, 1847.