

prices to the public.
 Killeen, a native of Thurles, died at Banagher Wednesday of starvation.
 Entry is most fatal in Tralee.
 Benson and O'Malley are appointed Pay-by the Board of Works for Clare and Dunmore es, county Galway.
 grand fancy and dress ball for the benefit of the ic female orphan asylum, takes place this even-Cork.
 addition to the contributions elsewhere acknow-, Lieut. Lowe, commanding H. M. S. Pluto, has Mrs. Rosslewin, of Rosshill, £6 for the relief of ighbouring poor.
 Mayor of Sligo presided at a meeting in that to petition Parliament for means to enable the omployed artisans to emigrate to some of her Majes-onies, and W. S. O'Brien, M.P. was requested port the prayer of their petition.
 re are several vessels announced to sail from y for New York and Philadelphia, next month, assengers.
 hard Greville, Esq. has subscribed a second £100
 e poor of Granard, Longford.
 Great Southern and Western Railway company omence building next month store houses at illins, Newbridge, Kildare, and Athy stations.
 late revision of the burges list cost the Town
 cil of Cork £468, of which £152 was to the town
 John O'Connell, of Great George's-street, Cork, ntracted to lend the Corporation of that city
 , at 5 per cent.
 John Brennan is sworn Sub Sheriff of Kerry.
 ee market is full of "bread stuffs," several pro-vessels having arrived in the last week.
 John Donnelly, of Newry, merchant, dropped t Liverpool, on Saturday. He was after procurarge sum in gold at one of the banks, before sailor Boston, on commercial business, when the of death struck him in the streets.
 Dublin relief committee allocated, on Saturday, the Rev. Godfrey Massy, for Bruff poor, and to eale, per J. Hall, Esq. £30.
 Boyle, county Roscommon, the price of 4lb, ' bread is 13d. In Derry, the same quantity of uality is only 8½d.
 Goldsmith's Company of London have contri-
 £50 to the Glendermott Relief Committee.— Company also subscribed £500 to the British ation for the relief of Distress in Ireland.
 gow has become a station for a regular line of record, that "the end of the upright man is peace."

 Letitia, wife of John Edge, Esq. of Clonbrock, Queen's County.
 In Dublin Castle, Emily d'Anyers, only daughter of Captain and Mrs. Frederick Willis.
 At Upper Mount-street, Maria Sarah, eldest daughter of James West, Esq.
 At the patriarchal age of nearly 87 years, the Rev. William Walker, Vicar of Drumreilly, diocese of Kilmore.
 At Ballysimon, David Kelly, Esq.
 At his residence in Carrick-on-Suir, John O'Neill, Esq.
 At the Convent, Rahan, King's County, aged 73. Mrs. M.
 A. Bigger, for many years superior of that establishment.
 In Carrick-on-Suir, Mr. Peter O'Connor.
 On Monday, at her daughter's residence, Great Globe Hotel, Clonmel, at an advanced age, Mrs. Kempston, mother of John Kempston, Esq. Proprietor of the Nenagh Guardian.
 At Castle Downeen, Dora, daughter of Richd. Smyth, Esq.
 At his residence in Cork, Francis Curtayne, Esq. h.p. 17th Light Dragoons.
 In Killarney, Mrs. Murphy, relict of the late John Murphy, Esq.
 At Kilkenny, of fever, Surgeon Burnham.
 At the Glebe House, Strokestown, the Rev. Edward Mahon, Rector of Kilmeen, diocese of Tuam.
 At the advanced age of 79 years, Mary, daughter of the late
 E. Roche, of Garrylough, county Waterford, Esq.
 At Carrigans, Sligo, John Farrell, Esq.
 Mr. John Culbertson, son of the late David Culbertson, Esq.
 of Sligo.
 At Meath-street, Mary Anne, wife of Mr. Patrick Collins.
 At Spring Garden Parade, aged 82 years, Rebecca, relict of James Coutry, Esq. of the Royal Navy, and sister of the late Sir Edmond Stanley, of Richmond, Surrey.
 At Martello Terrace, Sandymount, Pierce Lloyd, Esq.
 At Garville, Rathgar, Christian, wife of Mark Kerr, Esq.
 aged 80 years.
 At her residence in Dublin, aged 83 years, Miss Battersby, eldest daughter of the late Robert Battersby, of Bobsville, Esq. county Meath.
 At Elm Lodge, Richmond, Ellen, wife of Charles Bourrain, Esq.
 At Merrion avenue, Mr. James Wyon, of Lower Ormond quay, aged 73 years.
 At his house, Lower Grangemorgan, Mr. William Gill.
 At Collooney, Mrs. Elizabeth Benson, relict of Mr. Charles Benson, Postmaster of that town.
 At Derrybrusk Glebe, county Fermanagh, the Rev. George Harris.
 At Cottage Grove, near Bundoran, Emily Susanna, daughter of the late Captain Armstrong of the 71st Regiment, and Sub Inspector of the Constabulary, Strabane.
 At Nu-Limavady, in his 82d year, Paul Spencer Huey, Esq brother to the late Collector Huey, of Drogheda.
 At Castle-street, Edinburgh, Marianne, wife of R. Stein, Esq. of Kennetpans.
 In London, Martha Matilda, eldest daughter of Major General Sir Charles Pasley.
 In Plymouth, aged 76 years, Captain William Adams, late of the 3d Royal Veteran Battalion.
 At Streatly, Beds, the Rev. James Hadow, aged 90.
 At Shiphay, aged 77, the Rev. Wm. Kitson, Rector of North-well and Vicar of Abbotskerwell.
 At Chester, in the 83d year of his age, the Venerable Unwin Clarke, M.A. Archdeacon of Chester.
 Darragh Osborne, Esq. formerly of the 38th Foot.
 son of Captain E. G.

have every facility afforded them in the delivery of their Goods.
 M'AULIFFE, Auctioneer.
 58, William-street, Feb. 10.
 N. B.—An early attendance is solicited.

TO BE LET,
 From the 25th of March next, for such terms as may be agreed on,
 About 13 Plantation Acres of the Lands of FAIRY-HALL,
 INCLUDING the Hurling Fields, now in the possession of JOHN GOING, Esq., adjoining Mont-Pellier, on the River Shannon. The Land is in the very best heart, and well adapted for a Dairy or Tillage Farm. It is all good Grass, except seven Acres, which was highly manured last year, and is now fit for Corn. There are three good Slate Houses attached to it in the Village of Mont-Pellier, also a Turf Quay, with many other advantages.
 Application to be made to JOHN CANNY, Esq. Cor-bally, Glanmire, Cork.
 February 10.

Wanted,
 A N Assistant to conduct a Medical Establishment in the Country. He must be fully qualified to Retail and Compound Medicine.
 Application to be made to Doctor ELLIOTT, Kilrush, county Clare.
 Feb. 10.

TO BE SOLD.
THE PROPERTY OF A GENTLEMAN.
 A BLACK MARE, 5 years old, (nearly thorough bred), with hunting action and speed, combined.
 None need apply who are "not" in want of a Horse.
 Price, in accordance with her value—is with Mr. PARIS, Veterinary Surgeon, Thomas-street, Limerick.
 Feb. 10.

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE.
 PATRONS,
 The Hon. the Incorporated Society.
 VISITERS AND EXAMINERS,
 The Deputation of Fifteen of the Hon. Society.
 WEEKLY VISITER AND CATECHIST,
 The Rev. J. M. HIFFERNAN, A.M., Rector of Newport.
 Principal—J. H. GARVIN, A.M., Assisted by resident and highly-efficient Under-masters, some of whom are Prizemen of T.C.D.