

meal; ton; visions over sell to F. tons.
tion of erney, to the alway, e, and chairn 250 in the then,
diture, se this ide the atment
, and George
reland.
ng yea-
union.
by the ardians
e work-on the
on the ble to in the house.
day to own by e cause
e Fernich the ermoy, avour-scarcely ent, in-Dorney
to the ow the t to the ead.
nday of sting a fatality ot, and nations
Nancy
e name ertain rhelius ndland, now at Ussher, Galway.
nphires, for the he sale on Fri-n, the e works ere not Kerry. lin and the ine.
as con-
Journal has been y, in the of the house of ed over received reet, for has re-5; also, ntity of osed of,
ose.

Wednesday, a party attacked the house of John Purcell, of Doonane, Queen's County, and after demanding admission in the name of the police, they forced an entrance and rushed into the bedroom, where Purcell's wife was sleeping (her husband being from home) and demanded £50 which she had received. Constable Conroy, of Newtown with a small party, who was lying in wait pounced on the robbers and secured them. The robbers were committed to Maryborough gaol. One of them, Patrick Nash, was overseer in the Colliery at 2s 4d. per day.

Mr. John Kelly, a respectable farmer, of St. Mullins, Carlow, was murdered on Sunday last, after returning from Church, by a man of the name of Helihan, who has absconded.

One hundred and eighty gentlemen obtained various degrees in Trinity College, Dublin, yesterday. The Provost, Judge of the Prerogative Court, and several Fellows presided.

The Society of Friends in this city sent on Saturday a ton and a-half of Indian meal to Ballybunnion, for the relief of the poor. Four of the Society are now on a mission through Clare, to ascertain the wants of the destitute and to afford relief.

A respectable farmer of the name of Hogan, riding home to Rathcannon, in this county, fell from his horse into a dyke or drain at the road side, and was suffocated.

Mr. T. Haines is elected a town-commissioner of Mallow in room of Mr. Corbett.

The Odd Fellows branch Society of Cork have given £50 to the relief committee of that city.

Mr. O'Shaughnessy is appointed clerk of the reorganised Cork relief committee.

The magnificent iron bridge at Monastereven was yesterday set up, in presence of the Directors of the Great Western Railway. A splendid dejeuner was given on the occasion.

Sir John Nugent Humble, Bart., of Cloncoskoran, Dungarvan, High Sheriff of the county of Waterford, has appointed Edward Foley, Esq., of Lismore, his Under Sheriff.

On Monday, an inquest was held at Patrick's-well, by James Bennett, Esq. Coroner, assisted by Clement Peat, Esq. M.D., upon the body of a man named Enright, who, it appeared in evidence, came from near Cappamore, and trusted to charity for support; that he was exposed to great hardships this inclement season, which brought on dysentery, and caused death, immediately after arriving in Patrick's-well. Doctor Peat was examined, and a verdict returned in accordance with his testimony, that deceased came by his death from insufficiency of food.

On Friday, a bailiff, Robert Hynes, a pensioner, laid a seizure on a man named Brennan, who resides in the Pollerton road, Carlow. He attempted to force an entrance, when Brennan stabbed him with a pitchfork near the eye, the wound penetrating the brain, and proved fatal.

Income of the Cork library society for 1846, James Roche, Esq. president, £460; expenditure, £412.

Sale of Damaged Flour, FOR ACCOUNT OF WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

M'AULIFFE

WILL Sell by Public Auction, for the benefit of whom it may concern, at O'Connell's Corn and Leather Stores, LOCK-QUAY,

On Friday, the 19th inst.,

AT 2 O'CLOCK PRECISELY, 45 SACKS OF WHEATEN MEAL,
more or less damaged, landed from on board "The ANN," M'Fie, Master, from Glasgow. To oblige purchasers they will be sold in lots convenient, and delivered without delay.

M'AULIFFE, Auctioneer.
58, William-street, Feb. 17.

AUCTION OF POTATOES.

H. N. SEYMOUR

WILL offer for Sale by Auction, on SATURDAY next, the 20th inst., at One o'Clock, at his Store, PATRICK-STREET, about 35 Tons of St. Malo SEED POTATOES.

Landed proprietors should not let this opportunity pass of procuring a portion of this small quantity of Seed for their Tenantry.

JOHN SEYMOUR, Broker.
Limerick, Feb. 14.

WHITEHAVEN Best House Coals.

MULLOCK & SONS are now discharging from on board the "Express," from Whitehaven, a Cargo of the best HOUSE COALS; the quality needs no comment, and will be engaged genuine. Early application is requested as the vessel must be discharged in a few days.

Apply on Board the Vessel at Spaight's-quay, or at their Office, HENRY-STREET.
Limerick, Feb. 17.

At Bombay, G. A. Harrison, Esq. of the 33d Madras Native Infantry, son of Lt. Col. Harrison, Royal Artillery, to Annie, daughter of W. Miller, Esq. late Royal Artillery.

DEATHS.

In William street, on Saturday, Thomas Crips, Esq. eldest son of the late Robert Crips, Esq. of this City. His departure at the close of an illness, which, though tedious and painful, was borne with meek submission. He died in the certain hope of a glorious resurrection, through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ.

At his residence on the Canal, on Monday, John Blair, Esq. Pro-Collector of Excise for this district—sincerely lamented by his family and numerous friends.

On Saturday last, at her lodgings in Thomas-street, in the 66th year of her age, Mrs. Julia M'Callagh, an old and respectable inhabitant of this City.

Yesterday, in Bolterbooy, Mr. John Lucas, house painter, formerly Secretary of the Congregated Trades of this City.

At his lodgings in Sexton-street, Mr. James Bright, piano-forte tuner and regulator.

On Sunday last, at Glanworth Glebe, the Rev. John Brinkley, A.M. son of the late Bishop of Cloyne, aged 54 years.

On Monday, 15th, in Mecklenburgh-street, Dublin, deeply lamented by her family, Frances, the beloved wife of Captain Elias Pearce, of the City of Cork Militia.

Saturday last, at his residence in Donohick-street, George Blood, Esq. M.B.C.S.I. for many years connected with the Netterville Dispensary, and on the medical staff of the Richmond District Lunatic Asylum.

At Clonmel, Mrs. Samuel Davis, one of the Society of Friends.

On the 13th instant, aged seven months, of hooping cough, Thomas Harris, son of George G. Williams, Esq. Aigburth Vale, Liverpool.

At Kinsale, aged 87 years, Miss Margaret Furzer, daughter of the late John Furzer, Esq.

The Rev. P. J. O'Sullivan, P.P. of Ballymartle, co. Cork.

At Tipperary, Miss Frances Taylor, aged 84 years.

At Rose-hill, Cork, William Peard, Esq. in the 76th year of his age.

At Summer-hill Cottage, Catherine Morris, daughter of the late Nathaniel Evanson, Esq. of Four-mile-water Court, co. Cork.

At his residence, Kingston Cottage, Mitchelstown, Mr. Edward Bury, aged 84.

At Kilkenny College, John, son of the late William Roe, Esq. Lismore, Queen's County.

At Clonmeen, Miss Sheehan.

At his residence, York-street, Cork, Mr. John Seymour.

In Tuam, at an advanced age, Celia, wife of the late John Ford, Esq. of Jamaica.

Ellen, eldest daughter of Mr. Michael Mahony, Dungarvan.

At Drogheda, Captain R. H. Riordan, Barrack Master.

At an advanced age, Mr. William Mercer, of Clonmel.

At Vesey-place, Kingstown, Mr. Thomas Doyle, of the Linen Hall.

At North Frederick street, Duke Haughton, Esq.

At George's-place, Robert Gourley, Surgeon, R.N.

At Hillsborough, Monkstown, aged 78, Anne, wife of James Pim, Esq.

At Ballinvealeigh Cottage, near Fermoy, Edmond Barry, Esq.

Eliza, wife of Richard Peter, Esq. of North Cumberland street.

Aged 47, the Rev. Robert Carpenter, Rector of New Ross.

At Bangor, the Rev. Robert Campbell, Presbyterian Minister of Saltersland, Derry.

Mrs. Robert Crossley, of Upper Sackville-street.

At Upper Donohick-street, Captain Roderick Macdonald, formerly of Coynneville, county Westmeath.

At Rathangan, Mr. Michael Morrill.

At Denzille street, (twelve days after the death of her elder child,) Jane, wife of John O'Neill Brenane, Esq. of Lincoln's Inn, and daughter of the late William Hyland, Esq. of Dublin.

William Maguire, a faithful servant for a number of years in the office of Saunder's News Letter.

At his residence, Rathmines Terrace, Mr. John Snowden.

At her residence, Longford Terrace, Monkstown, Mary, relict of the late James Martin, Esq. of Cappagh, co. Dublin.

In Hillsborough, aged 92 years, John Jefferson, Esq. one of the oldest inhabitants.

At Belfast, Jane, wife of Mr. William Gwynne, Sergeant 77th Regiment.

At Dungannon, William Boardman, Esq. son of the late Thomas Boardman, Esq. Laurel-hill.

At Liverpool, Jane, wife of Captain Gillespie Dunlevie.

At Ashburton, Robert Abraham, Esq. solicitor, at the age of 86 years. Deceased was the oldest attorney in Devon.

At Lower Swainswick, near Bath, in the 76th year of her age, Mary Ann, widow of Lieut. Colonel Patrie.

Major General Sir James Wilson, K.C.B.

At Charlton Kings, near Cheltenham, Lieut. Col. Meall, late of the 12th Bombay Native Infantry.

At Plymouth, Captain Adams, of the Veteran Battalion.

At Belle Vue House, Chelsea, Charles Hatchett, Esq.

At Bishop's Teignton, Devon, Lady Frances Stephens.

At her house, Teddington, Middlesex, aged 71, Jane, widow of the late Colonel Richard Ellison, M.P.

At his residence, Denmark-hill, Surrey, in his 86th year, Vice Admiral William Young.

At Bath, Mrs. White, widow of the late Charles White, Esq. of Abernethy, Breconshire.

In her 94th year, Elizabeth, relict of the late William Dillon, Esq. of the Mythe, Tewkesbury.

The Rev. Nathaniel Colville, D.D. of Lawshall, aged 76.

At Pittville Lawn Villa, Cheltenham, Col. Michael White Lee, late of the 96th Foot, aged 77.

At Castle-street, Edinburgh, James Butler Williams, Esq. Secretary to the Caledonian Railway Company.

At Gilbert-street, Grosvenor-square, Frederick John Pigou, jun. Esq.

Lieut. Colonel Ratcliffe, K.H. late of the Inniskilling Dragoons.

At Oakfield, Hornsey, George Buckton, Esq. of Doctors' Commons.

Macvey Napier, Esq. Professor of Conveyancing in the University of Edinburgh, well known in literary circles for his connection with the Edinburgh Review, of which he was editor for twenty years. Mr. Napier was also one of the principal Clerks of the Court of Session.

At Clifton, aged 83, Hilary Dobrée, Esq. of Guernsey.

At Dumfries, Henry Fergusson, Esq. brother to the late Right Hon. Robert Cutlar Fergusson.

At Tonbridge-wells, in her 82d year, Abigail, relict of St. George Ryder, Esq.

At Blackheath, Maria, wife of Rowland Money, Captain R.N. CB

At Bath, Mrs. Emma Blaquiere, widow of the late Edward Blaquiere, Esq. R.N.

At Kensington, Susanna, relict of the late Lieut. General Charles Barton, aged 72.

William Thornton, Esq. late Surgeon of the 99th Regt. and also of the West Middlesex Militia.

At her residence in York place, Mary Lushington, daughter of the late Sir Stephen Lushington, Bart.

At the advanced age of 92, Henry Allen, Esq. of the Lodge, Breconshire, many years chairman of the quarter sessions, and deputy lieutenant of the county.

Captain Dillon, the celebrated navigator.

In Devonport, John Norman, Esq. banker.

In her 73d year, Sophia, wife of Jonathan Crocker, Esq. of Hanover Park, Peckham.

At Paris, the lady of the Viscount de Chateaubriand.

- 150 Choice One and a-half year-old bred Heifers.
- 30 do. One and a-half year-old bred Bullocks.
- 50 Superior Heifer Calves.
- 20 do. Bullock do.
- 6 Good half-bred Milk and in-calf Cows.
- 2 Pure bred Durham Bulls, one and half year old.
- 4 Ditto Bull Calves.
- 150 In-Lamb Ewes, of the pure Leicester breed.
- 150 Ewe Hoggets, ditto ditto.
- 180 Wedder ditto, ditto ditto.
- 5 Three year-old imported Rams.
- 11 Hogget Rams.
- 6 Strong Farm Horses.
- 800 Stone of first quality Wool, principally Hogget.
- 600 Tons of Old and last year's Hay.
- 1 Stack of Oats.

A Pair of very handsome well matched Grey Carriage Horses, rising five year old, 16½ hands high, perfectly trained to Single and Double Harness, in hard condition, very gentle.

The Breeding, quality, and condition of this valuable Herd is beyond praise, having been procured regardless of expense, and with undoubted judgment from imported Stock, and at the principal Fairs of counties Carlow and Meath, and their being reared on the "Golden Vein," (the best land in the world), where distemper or unsoundness of any kind has never been known, should enhance their value very considerably.

The Sheep are bred from the Flocks of Messrs. Burgess, Stone, Going, and other equally esteemed breeders—they possess that early maturity, wool and great thrift for which the Leicester are so remarkable.

The Heifers and Bullocks will be Sold in Lots of 10 each; the Sheep in Lots of 20; The Cows and Rams singly; the Wool in One Lot, or in Lots of 50 Stone, to accommodate Buyers in attendance; the Hay, most of which is three-year old, will be Sold as it now stands on the various Farms, in Lots of about 50 Tons each.

Terms, Cash.—The Commission of 5 per Cent. to be paid by the Purchasers, in addition to the Bidding.

Any other Information will be given, by applying to JAMES MARSHALL, Auctioneer.
96, George's-st., Limerick.

WRECK AUCTIONS. JAMES MARSHALL

WILL Sell by Unreserved Auction at KILRUSH, on FRIDAY, the 26th of February instant, FOR ACCOUNT OF WHOM IT MAY CONCERN, the Wrecks of the Barque "CIRO," and the Brig, "CAROLINE," both Copper and Copper-fastened, and built of the best materials, with all their Standing and Running Rigging, Masts, Spars, Boats, Hemp and Chain Cables, Sheet Copper, Sails, &c. &c.

The Hulls will be sold on the Strand where they now lie, and the materials, &c. at Mr. Irwin Paterson's store at Kilrush, where they will be arranged in convenient lots to suit purchasers.

Terms—Cash, the purchasers to pay the commission of five per cent. in addition to their biddings.

JAMES MARSHALL, Auctioneer.
Feb. 6. 96, George's-street, Limerick.

To be Let,

For such Term as may be agreed on, or the Interest Sold,
THE DWELLING-HOUSE, OFFICES, and 25 Acres of choice LAND of MILLFORD, within Two Miles of Limerick, on the Dublin Road.

MILLFORD HOUSE is perfectly modern, very commodious, and in thorough repair, not requiring the most trifling outlay. It is beautifully situated on the River Shannon, of which it commands a grand view. It contains Drawing-room, Parlour, Dining-room, Study, Spacious Hall, 7 principal Bed-rooms, Servants' apartments, Water Closet, Wine and Coal Vaults, Pantry, Dairy, Arched Kitchen, with Range and Ovens; Green-house and Grapes fully stocked.

The Furniture of the House which is very elegant, can be had at a valuation if required.

The Out Offices which are at a convenient distance from the house, consist of two large Coach-houses, Stabling for six Horses, Granary, Cow-house for 10 Cows, Piggery, Calf and Fowl houses, Harness-room, Car Sheds, Dung Pit, Pumps, &c.

The Ground consists of 25 Irish Plantation Acres of choice sound Land; it is nicely divided by wooden and iron paling, and is in pasture, with the exception of one and a-half acre in Wheat, now grass-corn; half an acre in Potatoes, and a well stocked Garden. It is tastefully planted, and has a right of passage through Plassy to the River, by which there is a most pleasing walk to Limerick.

This delightful Suburban residence and grounds, on which the late proprietor expended over £2,000 in lasting and judicious improvements, is held for a term of two young healthy lives, at the low rent of £210 per annum, and is not chargeable with Borough rates.

Rent and every other information may be known by application to

JAMES MARSHALL, Auctioneer,
96, George's-street, Limerick, who will give orders to view the premises to such persons as may be likely to become tenants. No admittance without an order.

February 6.