t. Michael's parish, in Limerick, , the surplus ought to be fairly apporpart of it which should be allocated to ought to be placed under the adminisistees, free from all control of the Counasy to determine by what standard or urplus is to be apportioned, for the o this, and it will be for the council agree on some principle of appointthey cannot, and that a bill in nade necessary, it will be for the ecree a proper mode of dividing the should say that the amount contributed of the Borough to the borough rate onal principle or measure of the division. art of the case about which the court much difficulty, having all the facts amount contributed to the borough pendent on the valuation for public r the amount of rate or the amount of danswer as a rate of proportion, and ne to the same end. On this statement at the number of the wards would not onals likely to be adopted. ne Council had no right to annex the lying the powers of the trustees transferred ted in this case. The act clearly vests in e discretion whether they will or will eir powers, and this is to be exercised the free and unbiassed opinion of the trustees; and the act does not make ne surplus or to their fa ir proportion of dant on the will of the council; but that surplus exists. The vote of urplus on the condition is, in my y strong evidence if not conclusive on at a surplus does exist, and the proper oill in equity at suit of the trustees against G. F. G.

-If the Commissioners are right in inferparish of St. Michael is entitled to its fair of the surplus borough fund after the eady alluded to, does it not thence follow oration cannot on any account approprier division of the Borough more than its estimate, and what species of receipt or ent should the Commissioners give the uncil for the sum so obtained from them? l am of opinion that the Chancellor a fair proportion to the trustees, assuming of a surplus to be admitted by the council evidence. The form of the receipt is t may be thus-" Received from the e Borough of Limerick, the sum of £--portion of the surplus of the Corporate rly applicable to the paving of that part of called St. Michael's parish, under the adof the trustees appointed under the acts and which said trustees undertake to apply Dated, &c." G. F. G. s.—Should the Town Council refuse, mit to hand over to the credit of the Come fair proportion (say) three-fifths of the ugh fund, or any portion of same, on the such surplus money shall be disbursed by d Town-Council's control and management, please advise what remedy the Commisd parish have, and what steps or proceedor ought to be adopted to procure payment on Council of their due share of the surplus

In my opinion the safest course is a bill at suit of the trustees against the council, acts as in this case, and praying a decree ation of a fair proportion. This is a more se than a mandamus, which, I think, would tain remedy.
