

in the same tion wall for Ecclesiastical nuisance to the steps will the subject yearly meet-in the Pres-nesday last.
in the morn-evening, Wm.
ce was large addresses were ions" by the
-on "Sab-
" by the Rev.
Christi-
Rev. John eedings were
e Rev. Wm.
the necessity ing out the from John his poor.
Society has,
Association 11s 10d. from collection at Gloucester, ected to the the Cathe-Church, to design, and of Killaloe, no have also late Joseph late Thomas
of Tulla. rior of the Wednesday e of Cork, as
t. Rev. Dr.
three names
gnissimus;
T. Barry, the three is athew to the city with the l creeds and y, who has fluence that the blessings of ty to which this county, October to out of 800
The Rev. T. number of the increat 600
P. Klenora, me time, at McCarthy, of deaths in famine.—
deaths, of nevara, 50
Rev. J. B.
P. Clonruss
nine occa-ation of the
to the 3rd
se of Lime-ociety will riday next,
s resolved is sold in first cost s been re-ue steeply illed.
re carried ns.
smith was out payast year, sum of berhaven
0 Wednes-
m "Ano-

of the late Rev. Gabbett, Esq. of Corbally House, Anna Maria, second daughter of the late Capt. John Gabbett, of Shepperton, county Clare.
On the 31st inst. at Athlaccra Church, Henry, son of the late Rev. William Lee, Rector of Emly, county Tipperary, to Maria, daughter of the late Robert Holmes Levers, of Castle Levers, county of Limerick, Esq.
At Fermoy Church, Ralph, son of the late Rev. Ralph Wilson, of Kilkumner, to Ellen Rose, youngest daughter of the late Thomas Barry, of Castletyons, Esq. M.D.
Robert Spankie, Esq. of the Bengal Civil Service, to Mary Stewart Blackie, daughter of the Very Rev. the Dean of Down.
At the Parish Church of Athy, the Rev. Robert Francis Wilson, son of Thomas Wilson, Esq. formerly M.P. for London, to Maria, daughter of the Rev. Fredk. S. Trench and Lady Helena Trausa, of Kilmoroney.
At Magheracloony Church, county Monaghan, Samuel Usher Roberts, Esq. eldest son of Edward Roberts, Esq. of Weston, county Waterford, to Emily Isabella, daughter of Sir George Foster, of Coolacry, Bart.
James Lawrence Wise, Esq. of Fitzwilliam place, to Elizabeth Sarah, daughter of the late John Berkeley Deane, Esq.
In Zion Chapel, King's Inns-street, the Rev. H. Torrens, Independent Minister, Maryborough, to Margaret Jessie, eldest daughter of the late Francis Sherlock, Esq.
Henry, son of the late Samuel Spencer, Esq. of Dublin, to Harriette, daughter of Rodolphus Burke, Esq. Rathmines.
At All Souls Church, Langham-place, by the Very Rev. the Dean of Winchester, the Marquis of Sligo, to the Hon. Ellen Sydney Smythe, daughter of Viscount Strangford.
At Portsmouth, Louis J. A. Armit, Esq. of the Royal Engineers, eldest son of John Lees Armit, Esq. of Ashle Lodge, Surrey, to Bessie, daughter of the late Major General Bredin, of the Royal Artillery.
At St. Peter's Church, Pimlico, the Rev. Jermyn Pratt, to Mary Louisa, daughter of the Lord Bishop of Rochester and Lady Sarah Murray.
At Marylebone Church, Georges Maximilian François Baron de St. Mart, to Emma Kate, only daughter of the Countess Grabowski.
At Birmingham, Robert Benson, Esq. of Sussex-square, London, to Eleanor Sarah, daughter of Capt. Moorson, R.N.
At Kussowick, C. S. Dawson, Esq., 29th Regt., to Annie, eldest daughter of Thomas Kneebone, Esq., of the same corps.
At Sukkur, Capt. C. Du Pre Townshend, 9th Regt. B.N.I., to Mary, eldest daughter of the late Major Hunter, 28th Foot, and niece of Major General Hunter, C.B. At Sukkur, O. J. McLeod Farrington, Esq., 4th Regt. B.N.I., to Margaret Douglas Murray, second daughter of the late Major Hunter.

DEATHS.

At Market Hill, county Armagh, Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Stuart, Esq. of Limerick, and niece to the late General Charles Stuart, of the East India Company's Service.
At his residence, Blackrock, Robert Grove White, Esq. aged 77 years.
At Gleneavy, county Wicklow, Caroline, only surviving daughter of the late G. M. J. Drought, Esq. in her 18th year.
At Newcastle, in the 24th year of his age, Mr. John O'Leary, universally regretted.
At Tarbert, Mr. Charles Trousdell, sincerely and deservedly lamented by his relatives and friends.
At Ballynocken, the residence of her son, Walter Asper, Esq. in the 70th year of his age, Mrs. Asper.
At Clonmel, Miss Mary Gordon, daughter of the late Samuel Gordon, Esq. and sister to Dr. Gordon, of Cork.
At Myrtle Hill Terrace, Lower Glanmire road, Philip, son of Thomas James Fitzgerald, Esq.
At Lancaster Terrace, Montenotte, Bridget, wife of Richard Daunt, Esq. and daughter of the late Wm. Hughes, Esq. of Beechmount, near Cork.
At his residence, Grand Parade, Cork, Patrick Rogers, Esq. At the Provincial Bank House, Bandon, Melville, daughter of John J. Thompson, Esq.
At Uringford, Miss Catherine Hely, late of Kilkenny.
At Tonduff, near Abbeylick, Andrew Galbraith, Esq.
At the College House, Galway, Rev. Mr. Fynn.
Anne, widow of the late Mr. Mathew Keane, of this City, master cooper.
In High-street, Mr. Thady Mulcahy, victualler.
At her residence in High street, Kilkenny, of fever, Elizabeth, relict of the late Louis Anderson, Esq.
At Abbeystre-et, Galway, at the age of 82 years, Charles D'Arcy, Esq.
At Tralee, John, son of Mr. Thomas O'Reilly, tobacconist. At the Block House, New Ross, Mary Bealy, wife of William Graves, Esq.
In Kilkenny, in the 20th year of his age, of fever, William Empson, Esq. A.B. candidate for holy orders in the Established Church.
David Canley, Esq. Barrister at Law, educated for orders in the Church of Rome.
John Willian, only son of Mr. John Hogan, foreman of the Telegraph newspaper, Castlebar.
At Tomacork, county Kilkenny, the Rev. Michael Murphy, P.F., in the 71st year of his age.
At her residence, Essex quay, Frances Maria Keane.
Fanny, daughter of John Walsh, Esq. of Newtownbarry.
The Rev. Francis MacGennis, P.P. of Clones, of fever.
At Cavan, on the 2nd inst. Ellen, the beloved wife of Mr. Robert Jones Mervyn, in the 65th year of her age.
Near Clonard, William Pigott Piers, only son of Richard Young, Esq. of Dublin.
At Seville-place, Andrew M'Dowell, Esq. late of the Bank of Ireland.
At Rutland square, Hannah, wife of John H. Kelly, Esq. Charleville, county Westmeath.
At Cullinstown terrace, Frederick John Highmore, only child of A. McCulloch, Esq.
At Stonyhurst College, the Rev. John Hearn, of the order of Jesus, brother to the Rev. D. Hearn, late of Manchester.
The daughter of Capt. McIntyre, 78th Highlanders.
The wife of Major Lewis Benn.
In Upper Grosvenor street, aged 76, Juliana, daughter of the late Henry and Lady Juliana Dawkins.
At his seat, Beaumont Lodge, Old Windsor, in his 71st year the Right Hon. Henry Jeffrey Viscount Ashbrook.
Henrietta, wife of Joseph Maberley, Esq. of Harley street.
Mr. George Wigney, of Brighton, brewer.
At Greyshot House, near Stroud, Gloucestershire, Emily, daughter of the late Right Rev. Dr. Alexander, Bishop of the Anglican Church in Jerusalem.
At Kew-green, George Pepper, Esq.
In Cannon-street, Captain Alexander Weynton, elder brother of the Trinity House.
At the Grange, near Stroud, in his 78th year, George Watkin, Esq.
At Woodchester, aged 83, Jane, widow of the late Colonel Cox, R.A.
The Hon. Mrs. Milnes, wife of Robert Milnes, Esq.
At Highfield House, near Liverpool, aged 74, Thomas Littleale, Esq.
Mr. William Christmas, of Gower-street, Bedford-square.
At Holton Park, Oxon, William Henry Biscoe Earle, Esq.
Miss Fisher, sister of Mr. Fisher, Old Bond street, Bath.
At Houlton, aged 74, Ann, widow of the Rev. Richard Lewis.
[The report of the death of James Kivan, Esq. of Hindwell, Galway, is premature.]

successful theatrical season in this City, took their farewell benefit on Tuesday evening, and next morning left this by steamer for Kilrush, where they embarked on board the Emily Furnham, which sailed same evening for the West Indies, there to pursue their profession.

CHEAP SUGAR.

W. M'SWINEY being about removing to his New Concerns, and clearing out all old stock, offers for Sale to Relief Committees, or any persons interested, 6,720lbs. of SUGAR, being scrapings of Hogsheads; by very little trouble in picking, it will be found extremely cheap—Price, 1d. per pound, taking the lot together.
5, GEORGE'S-STREET, LIMERICK. May 8.

THE NEXT GREAT SALE

AT HARTIGAN'S REPOSITORY, CECIL-STREET, LIMERICK, Of Horses, Vehicles, &c., will take place on SATURDAY the 10th of June, 1847. A. Auliffe AUCTIONEER.
120, George's-street, May 8.

NEW SUMMER GOODS, NOW IN COURSE OF ARRIVAL TO Revington, Higginson, & Co.,

- EXTRAORDINARY LOW PRICES.
- 5 Boxes of French and British Millinery.
- 4 Cases of French and British Flowers, VERY CHEAP.
- 12 Boxes of French and English Ribbons, PRIME VALUE.
- 17 Cases of Dunstable, Rice, Tuscan, and Leghorn Bonnets, WELL WORTHY OF ATTENTION.
- 10 Trusses of Paisley and Norwich Shawls and Scarfs, GREAT BARGAINS.
- 10 Packages of Laces, Muslin Collars, Habit Shirts, &c., &c.
- 1,000 Dresses, all full lengths, considerably under First Cost.
- 700 Pieces of Printed Calicoes, none but fast colors engaged.
- 5 Bales of Long Cloths, Scotch Hollands, &c., &c.
- 3 Boxes of Genuine Irish Linens,
- 3 Boxes of Lawn Handkerchiefs,
- 7 Bales of Plain Goods,
- 6 Cases of Haberdashery, Stationery and Perfumery.
- 1 Case of Jewellery,
- 1 Case of Fancy Soaps.

Particular attention is most respectfully directed to the present stock of

WOOLLEN GOODS,

Purchased under peculiar circumstances. SHIRTS, &c. Ready, or made to order, on an improved principle. REVINGTON HIGGINSON & Co. encouraged by that large amount of Public Patronage which they have experienced during the Winter months (notwithstanding the general depression in trade) have made the above very extensive purchases, and beg respectfully to announce their intention of disposing of them at Very Low Profits.

15, & 16, GEORGE'S-STREET. Limerick, May 8.

NOTICE.

I HEREBY Give Notice, that I shall not be accountable for any Debts contractible by the Crew of the Barque "CLARISSA" of New York, United States, under my command.
JAMES LUNT, Commander.
RYAN BROTHERS, Agents.

May 8

POSITIVELY THE LAST WEEK OF THE Splendid Annual Sale.

TO CLEAR OFF THE WINTER STOCK OF BRITISH AND FOREIGN FANCY GOODS.

TREMENDOUS REDUCTION OF FOUR SHILLINGS IN THE POUND, From the usual Low Prices, which is literally giving Goods away, AT THE CIVIC CAT, 17, Patrick-street, 16, Dame-street, Dublin, 24, Castle-place, Belfast.

SUCH AN OPPORTUNITY OF PURCHASING BARGAINS SELDOM OCCURS.

THE Stock comprises an elegant assortment of Work Boxes, Writing Desks, Tea Caddies, Bagatelle Boards, Blue and White Enamel Goods, Ladies' and Gentlemen's Dressing Cases, American Clocks, China Vases, Writing Papers, Envelopes, Umbrellas, Silver Mounted Canes, Toys, Snuff Boxes, Jewellery, Japan Trays, Ladies' Companions, Combs and Brushes, Cutlery, Backgammon Boards, Chess Men, Leather Travelling Desks, &c.
A Liberal allowance to Shopkeepers.

tion in prices has taken place:
TURNIP SWEDE, of sorts.
" BULLOCK, " (in
" ABERDEEN, "
Dales Hybrid, Norfolk, Globe, St Wurtzel, Long Red, Yellow and Glol approved sorts, Vetches, Gray-Field P Dutch Rape.
Imported Chevalier and Home-gro Oats, Rye, with a fine assortment of GRASS SEEDS.
LINED MEAL, and OIL CAR
Carolina and Patna Rice, Spitt Pea Caraway Seed.
Draining Tools, Measuring Tapes and Bass Mats, and every article in the Limerick Se 8, GEORGE'S
Limerick, May 1.

SKIRVING IMPROVED SWEDISH TURNIP

TO those who are desirous of Growing TURNIP, we wish to state that SEEDMEN in Ireland, who can now Genuine as Imported from Mr. W. Liverpool, as will be seen by the following letter received by us from Mr. Mearns, of Liverpool, 1st, 1847:—
"I have not Sold this Season a Improved Swede Seed to any Person in Ireland, although I have had a great number of enquiries for it. In short, I am of all Trade Orders for my sort of Swede not likely to have enough for my Retail I was most anxious to serve you with a from the handsome manner you have me in your transactions."
Also, another from the same, dated 11th, 1847, in reply to a letter complaining that Parties offered his Seed for Sale, notwithstanding his stating to S., had not supplied any to the Trade in Ireland, of course may offer my sort of Swede as man in the Kingdom now does; all I can say is the Seed they offer is not grown by me or I
The Subscribers also beg leave to state to continue to supply Landowners' who supply their Tenantry with First-class Seed, on as good terms as they can Church-st
P.S.—SKIRVING's (so called) Improved imported from London, Sold by us at Common Swede.—Clovers Grass-Seed, Mangol Wortzel, Field Carrot, Spring V Wheat, &c., &c.

Murder and Reward

WE, the undersigned, deeply sympathizing with the loss occasioned to his family by the murder, on the 21st of MARCH last, of the late O'DONOVAN, of Millview, in this county, mark our detestation and abhorrence of the outrage, do hereby undertake to pay, in the £100 Reward offered by Government, the sums annexed to our names, to the party who will give such information as shall, within three months from this date, lead to the apprehension and conviction of the actual murderers.

- Stephens, Roche, Esq. £10
- James D. Lyons, Esq. 10
- Carroll, Cash, J.P. 3
- Stephen E. Collins, J.P. 3
- William Sandes, J.P. 2
- Boatke White, J.P. 2
- Michael O'Donovan, 20
- James O'Donovan, 10
- John O'Donovan, 5
- D. O'Donovan, 3
- George Wm. Massy, Creaves, 5
- Richard Coplin Langford, 3
- Julius Delmege, 3
- Hugh Massy, Stoneville, 2
- Robert Lloyd Rose, M.D. 2
- Arthur Vincent, 2
- Thomas Bourke, 1
- John Hewson, 1
- G. M. Maunsell, 1
- D. M. Maunsell, 1
- John Hanigan, 5
- Martin Sheahan, 3
- John Madigan, 2
- Denis Sheahan, 2
- Pat O'Brien, 2
- William Whelan, 2
- William Hogan, 1
- Mathew Morony, 1

In addition to the above, I will pay the sum of £100 to any person or persons who will give valuable information as may lead to the conviction of the parties concerned in the murder of my Husband
ELLEN O'DONOVAN
May 10