TO THE INDEPENDENT BURGESSES OF Patrick-street Ward. GENTLEMEN—Having been waited on by a considerable number of highly respectable Gentlemen, Burgesses of your Ward, and encouraged by the kind and unanimous support voluntarily given me on my canvas, I am induced most humbly and respectfully to offer myself as a candidate to fill the vacancy of a TOWN COUNCILLOR, caused by the regretted retirement of JOHN EGAN, Esq. In soliciting, Gentlemen, the honor, of your support and interest upon the present occasion, permit me to assure you, I shall, if elected, on all occasions use my best endeavours, honestly and conscientiously to discharge the duties of the office, in promoting the best interest of my native city, and the regeneration and independence of our beloved country. I have the honor, Gentlemen, to remain with sentiments of the highest respect, your most faithful and obedient humble servant, PATRICK LYDDY. Denmark-street, June 2.

DEATHS. Yesterday, at his house, 116, George-street, George O'Connell, Esq. for several years proprietor of the principal drapery and mercery establishment in this City, the business of which he conducted with a degree of respectability honorable to the trade, and upon a principle of undeviating integrity that ensured general confidence and respect. Happy, and beloved in his family circle, esteemed and regretted by his friends and fellow-citizens, he died the death of the righteous man, trusting in God, the SAVIOUR, for eternal peace. In Dawson-street, Dublin, after a protracted illness, supported with the utmost fortitude, and deeply and sincerely lamented by his family and friends, Sir William FitzGerald, Bart., Carrigoran, county of Clare, aged sixty-eight. Yesterday, of fever, caught in the discharge of his official duty as revising officer of St. Mary's parish, Mr. Stephen Bourke, City High Constable, to the deep regret of his family and friends. On Sunday, at his brother's residence, Sexton-street, Mr. Robert Bernal, aged 23—beloved by his relatives and regretted by those who knew him.

L. O'KEEFFE & Co., 122, AND 123, GEORGE'S-STREET, LIMERICK. BEG leave to inform the Nobility and Military that they have just received a large consignment of CIGARS of Superior Quality, having been selected with the greatest care expressly for them, and imported direct from Havannah of this port. Always anxious to gratify the wishes of their kind patrons, they have, at considerable expense imported the above Case direct from the island of Cuba, being the first ever taken out of bond here, and offered for sale in this city. The lovers of a real Foreign Cigar have now an opportunity of procuring an article, which for flavor and excellence cannot be surpassed. To Gentlemen not having traded to the West Indian Islands, the Foreign Case itself will prove highly interesting, and will amply repay them for viewing it, which can be seen at the above Establishment. Real Ecume-De-Mer Pipes, Foreign Tobaccos, Snuffs both plain and perfumed, of the richest flavour. Lambkin's Cork Snuff, Lundy Foot, Dublin, &c. Hyman's Fuzees for lighting Cigars in the open air. All articles belonging to the Smoking department to be had at this Establishment. June 2.
