ST. JOHN'S FEVER HOSPITAL.

Dr. Geary has given us following return, which shews the continued increase of fever in this City:—

Remaining in Hospital, 1st June, 405
Admitted to 15th June, .. 333—738

Discharged Cured, 297
Died, 14
Remaining in Hospital this day, 427—738

Of this number 38 were admitted on Monday last. Under these circumstances we cannot too forcibly impress on the Relief Committee the necessity of at once opening the new Hospital, and taking contracts.

The following appeared in part of last impression:
