... her mener. PROCEEDINGS AT THE FUNERAL ist, Esq.—On Friday, the Church s the scene of a curious proceeding, confusion in the town. It having the country people that this resad died a convert to the Catholic ermined he should be interred acs of their church. This impression ed by the Rev. Mr. Verling, a the deceased, and who alleged that im of his errors of the faith which professed. Mr. Gilkrist's family haddied a Protestant; they accordotestant clergyman of the parish to ment, at the same time inviting the to attend. The Rev. Mr. Verling at it was his intention to officiate Blood, brother-in-law to the detly excited, and insisted that he Perceiving that the family were Mr. Verling officiating, and that if vould ensue, the Rev. Mr. Collins Regan represented to him that e, and he consented to forego his ngly the funeral moved on to the he Protestant clergyman prepared service; but he was interrupted eople, who were determined that ad should be read according to the olich church. This excited Mr. re he resisted the people the more ame to carry out their intention. Rev. Mr. Verling stepped in, and for ying the people, read a few short in. But while in the act of doing d every intention of stopping him. concluded, the coffin was then urch, where the service for the dead testant clergyman, and the interoncluded, all the parties left the d that this circumstance will be judicial inquiry .-- Cork S. Reporter.

peared in part of last impression: .-Counsellor Devitt was chairman neeting to-day, at which a letter sioners was read, enclosing the opinion relative to the 16th sec. Act, to the effect that where the in any union exceeds the number , the Magistrates qualified to serve ers are those who are rated highest ig the aggregate of their rates oral divisions into account. The ections to make out the list, in e opinion given. Through some dians resolved to dismiss James the Castle connell district, but r. De Courcy O'Grady, seconded by as unanimously reinstated at an in the pound on the amount of the paupers for admission, principally her in fever, or had been discharged al-the greater number were ree 1551 inmates in the institution during the week, 140; admitted, of each pauper, 2s. 21d.

o. one the regist of the control of the control of the pany's Service, and grand daughter of the late Vice Admiral Lock, of Haylands, Isle of Wight.

At Brighton, T. B. Shoobridge, Esq. of Tenterden, to Mrs. Ball, widow of James Hine Ball, Esq. of the India House.

DEATHS.

On the 16th June inst. at De Vesci House, Kingstown, the residence of her son-in-low, the Rev. John Delmege, the Hon. Maria Juliana Barry, widow of the late Thomas Barry, Esq. of Leighsbrook, county Meath, and daughter of the Rt. Hon. John, fifth Lord Carbery. At Killaloe, yesterday, rather suddenly, Susanna, widow of the late Rev. Henry Allen, Rector of Kilrush.

At the Vicarage, Ottery St. Mary, Devon, aged eight years, Croker, eldest child of the Rev. George E. Deacon, and grandson of the late Sir Joseph Barrington, Bart. of this City.

On Tuesday last, at Ballybrood Glebe, in this County, the Rev. W. H. Bagnell, Rector and Vicar of Ballybrood, Precentor of the Diocese of Emly.

In Parsonstown, on the 16th inst. Georgina Maunsell, the beloved child of John Buncan, Esq. S.I.

In Tralee, of water on the chest, Miss Ellen Quill, daughter of the late John Quill, of Tirimore, Esq. Mary, daughter of James Alcock, Esq. Waterford,

In Tramore, Mrs. Duckett, the lady of Richard Duckett, Esq. J.P.

At his residence, King street, Cork, of fever, the Rev. Patrick Wm. Coffey.

At Clarence street, Cork, the wife of Uriel Humphrey. At Cove, Mrs. Ellen Connor, relict of the late Denis Connor, Esq. of Merchant's-quay, Cork.

At Rockdale House, county Tyrone, James Lowry, Esq. At Feera, county Roscommon, O. J. Reynolds, Esq. brother to Lieut. Reynolds, late Stipendiary Magistrate at Jamaica. Suddenly, at Ballymena, Henry Tomb, Esq. M.D.

At Prospect Hill, Dunmanway, after five days' fever, caught in the discharge of his duties, Thomas Bryan, Esq. P. L.

Guardian.

In Tralee, at an advanced age, Mrs. O'Leary, relict of the late Mr. Connor O'Leary.

John Armstrong, Esq. of Springmount, Newtownmountkennedy.

At Liscormick, Longford, William Lowther Crofton, Esq. In Nassau-street, Rose Margaret, wife of Arthur Browne, Esq. daughter of Arthur Browne, Esq. Newtown, Roscommon. Christopher Hoey, Esq. of City-quay.

At Grantham-street, Clementina, relict of the late William Hampton, Esq. C.E. and County Surveyor of Wicklow.

At her residence, Mountpleasant-square, Mrs. de Baviere. At the Dargle Cottage, Enniskerry, Henry, son of the Rev Hamilton Madden.

At Dungannon, Mr. William Rodgers, merchant, At Belturbet, of typhus fever, James Finlay, Esq.

At Belfast, in her 74th year, Hannah, wife of John Pim. At Belfast, Annabella, wife of John Wilkinson, Esq.

In Newry, Mr. Hans Baird. At Bath, George Moore, Esq. of Kilbride Manor, county

Wicklow. At Great Malvern, Worcestershire, Maria, relict of the late Walter Faulkes, Esq. of Farnley Hall. Yorkshire, and daughter of the late John Vernon, Esq. of Clontarf Castle.

At Liverpool, of fever, Rev. Mr. Grayson, R. C. Clergyman. At Kennington, Martha, relict of the late Thomas Shaw,

Esq. of her Majesty's Customs, aged 86. At Newcastle-on-Tyne, Richard Hutton, Esq. barrister. At Lympstone, Devonshire, John W. B. Reynolds, Esq. son of the late William Reynolds, Esq. Mr. George Drummond Stewart, of Braco, Perthshire.

At Brixton hill, Caroline, relict of James Bowes, Esq. At Rosebank, Falkirk, James Wardrobe Dickson, Esq. Sheriff Substitute for East Stirlingshire.

At Croydon, Magdalen, widow of Colonel R. Sutherland.

At Edinburgh, Catherine, daughter of the late Major General Beatson, of Henley House, formerly Governor of St. Helena. At Harnden, Margaret, wife of Henry Wise Harvey, Esq. Mr. John Gibson, Canteen, Paisley Barracks.

In Gray's Inn, John Perry, Esq.

Sir Richard Plasket, K.M.G. of Hampton House, near Torquay, Devon. At German-place, Brighton, Amelia, wife of Major General

Sir Patrick Ross, Governor of St. Helen's.

At Hampton-court Palace, Allan, eldest son of the late

Lieut. General Sir J. Maclean, K.C.H. At Litchfield, Connecticut, United States, Mrs. Sarah M'Curdy Gould, wife of the late Hon. James Gould. Judge of he Supreme Court, and daughter of the late General Tracy.

reduct tranc, Di John P. Molony, James Robb, Kits Wm. Macrae, Bor Thomas B. Burke Michael Rochford Pat. Scanlon, For Wm. Scanlon, do Michael Little, P. James Quigly, Aff John Rochford, L

The above was transmi Molony, accompanied by a

"My dear Mr. Brew-I mitting to you the following owners and occupiers of la and remain with great regar 'Sign

"The Rev. R. Brew, the

The following is Mr. Brev

"My dear Sir-I have recation, and most sincerely other owners and occupiers Tulla, who have signed the r

" It is very grateful to n twenty-five years among the of esteem from my parishior be so kind as to convey to the same.

"I remain, m " Y

" Sig

"James Molony, Esq. Kil

Outrage as THEREAS, on the ever in the party of arm of my Steward, MICHA County Clare, and ruelly about to take supper with discharge from a gun, which I hereby offer the sum of £2 of One Hundred Pounds offe such information as may le conviction, within six calend hereof, of the said murderers the equally guilty conspira perpetrate this bloody act. THOM

Rathmines The Reward list is posted NICLE OFFICE for additional

OLD

TO BE SOLD, a few To HAY, a sample of wh LANGLEY's, 24, Cecil-street, where required.