liminary meeting of the club had been broken through, and resolutions introduced and spoken to, of which no one had previous knowledge. For Mr. O'Brien he entertained feelings of respect and attachment, as a devoted friend of Ireland, and a sincere advocate of the people's rights. He regretted the expressions used from the gallery of the city court-house, in reference to that high-minded and honourable gentleman, but as he had withdrawn himself from them, they were now assembled to select two Repeal Candidates, for the purpose of excluding the man, who was burned in effigy.

The Rev. Mr. Fogarty seconded the resolution. Mr. Russell O'Shaughnessy said, the address contained the feelings of the electors of the county to the fullest extent. Captain Kane objected to the portion of the address which cast a stigma on the late city meeting, and those who took a part in the proceedings.

The Rev. T. O'B. Costelloe gave his entire concurrence to the address, and said, the vile expression of "murderer" to Mr. S. O'Brien, the most pure, honourable, upright, and faithful follower of the Father of his country, should not have been permitted by the Mayor, as chairman, nor be recorded on the minutes of their proceedings. All honest men should trample upon the base expression, and upon the author of it. It did not look well of the Mayor not to have repudiated the expression, as it was not long before he had presented Mr. S. O'Brien with an address from the citizens of Limerick.

Capt. Kane said the observations of Rev. Mr. Costelloe were not calculated to conciliate. Rev. Mr. Costelloe—Let those who sanctioned the expressions used at the city meeting condemn them manfully.

Mr. Russell O'Shaughnessy also censured the epithets used in reference to Mr. S. O'Brien, and said the Mayor ought not to have sanctioned them. Had the hon. gentleman come forward as their representative at the ensuing election, they would have brought in such a multitude from the country as would crush Limerick!

The address was then agreed to, Capt. Kane alone dissenting. On the motion of Mr. Stephen Hayes, seconded by Mr. James O'Shaughnessy, the chairman was requested to forward the address to Mr. S. O'Brien. The Rev. Mr. Costelloe said it now devolved upon them to nominate a candidate in room of Mr. S. O'Brien. He eulogised the services of Mr. Caleb Powell for the past seven years, and felt much pleasure in proposing as his colleague a "Garryowen boy"—the son of a man who in his (Rev. Mr. C's) days, carried all before him, (hear and laughter.) He was no new Repealer, but a staunch member for many years, and who on every occasion attended public banquets and political demonstrations for Ireland—He stood side by side the late revered Liberator at the great Clare election, and in him the Liberal cause ever had a strenuous friend, and he has evinced his patriotism in the City by giving £50 to the election fund, in order to secure the return of Repealers—(cheers.)—Along with other qualifications he was a cousin of his own, and he therefore begged to propose George John O'Connell as the representative of this County, in conjunction with Mr. Powell. Both gentlemen would advocate the Tenant right—(applause).

Capt. Kane seconded the nomination which was unanimously approved of. Mr. R. O'Shaughnessy said all necessary preparations for a contest had been made by the Club, who had ample funds subscribed to defray expenses. The meeting then broke up,
