of humane and zealous gentlemen, who cheerfully devoted their time and leisure to the interests of the poor, and whose services, united with your own, were mainly instrumental in establishing the order and good management which prevailed in this district.
 With unfeigned regret at our early separation, and earnest good wishes for your future prosperity and happiness, believe me, dear Captain Skinner,
 Yours truly faithful,
 CARROLL NAISH.
 REPLY:
 Rathkeale, 27th August, 1847.
 MY DEAR NAISH,
 Truly pleasing and gratifying has been your friendly communication of to-day, enclosing the very complimentary resolution of the Askeaton Committee.
 Assure them, individually and collectively, how much I value their good opinion, and how sincerely I can testify to their singleness of purpose in the cause of charity, by the sacrifice they made of all personal considerations, in their exertions to work out the Relief measures, under trials and difficulties of no ordinary cast, in even the Union of Rathkeale, and I feel that the qualifications your Committee have been pleased to give me credit for have been elicited more by the example you and others acting with you have set me, than by any innate preponderance of them, and has contributed to the very satisfactory termination of our labours, so far as the act for the relief of the destitute enabled us to carry them.
 To your own valuable and friendly assistance, both as Chairman to your Committee, and as a member of the Finance, I have been greatly indebted.—Accept my best thanks, and be pleased to express for me the interest I must always feel in the welfare and prosperity of each individual of these with whom I have been for nearly a period of five months so intimately associated.
 I remain, very faithfully, your's,
 And truly obliged,
 COURTLAND MACGREGGOR SKINNER,
 Government Inspector.

 Chairman Relief Committee.

Croagh Relief Committee
 Rathkeale, August 1847.

MY DEAR SIR,
 ON taking leave of you for the last time; allow me to express to you my sense of the courtesy and kindness towards me, as a private individual, and the respect and attention I have to acknowledge that you Sir, your respected Treasurer, and every member have shewn me at all times in my official position. In the discharge of the onerous and trying duties you have been called on to discharge as an Executive Public body I have the gratification of stating that the Croagh Committee have ever acquitted themselves with an earnestness, perseverance, and zeal, that has entitled them to my warmest approbation; and I beg to will assure every member of them that I shall always dwell upon my communion with them with the most satisfactory and pleasing recollection.
 With best wishes for the prosperity of the country, and that of every member of your Committee, I remain, my-dear Sir,
 Yours very faithfully
 And gratefully obliged,
 COURTLAND MACGREGGOR SKINNER,
 Government Inspector.
 Samuel D. Power, Esq. J.P.
 Chairman Relief Committee, Croagh.
 Clonshire, August 19, 1847.

MY DEAR SIR,
 I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind letter on taking leave of the Croagh Relief Committee, and feel much obliged for the flattering terms in which you are pleased to convey your approval of the manner in which we discharged our most trying and onerous duties, which it was our desire to do, so as to avoid imposing any unnecessary burthen on the landed property of the country, while we paid due regard to the wants of the really destitute. Allow me to assure you, how fully sensible I am, in common with every member of the Committee, that whatever degree of success has attended our exertions, was in a great measure owing to your valuable co-operation.
 Your uniform courtesy and kind and conciliatory manner, united with firmness and good temper in the faithful discharge of duties of no ordinary difficulty, has justly won for you the respect and esteem of all classes; and permit me to express our unfeigned regret at the departure from our neighbourhood, of one from whose society whether as a private individual or a public officer we have experienced unmixed pleasure.
 With best wishes for your happiness and prosperity.
 I remain, my dear Sir,
 Very faithfully yours,
 SAMUEL D. POWER,
 Chairman of the Croagh Relief Committee.

 Government Inspecting Officer, Rathkeale.
