MAGISTRATES OF P. SESSIONS.

Dublin Castle, 1st Sep. representations having been made, that many persons are guilty of dangerous practices, as dangerous with those requirements enacted with the view to investigation, and the imprisonment of any person, by warrant under the Statutes 1 V. 107, under which alone the Magistrates are empowered to deal with cases of this nature.

COUNTY PETTY SESSIONS—YESTERDAY.

Presiding—William Howly, Esq. D.L., Henry Watson, Christopher Delmege, Richard Kane, Pierce G. Barron, and Esqrs. The case of importance investigated was that of Richard Moore v. Patrick Heffernan, in which the Bench had only the summons as they found it on the book. Richard Moore, Rector of the parish, deposed that St. Patrick's church was the reputed burial ground of the parish, and a gate keeper's lodge erected; he appointed a care taker, and put him into possession of the church on the 29th August he went to the church for the purpose of having the body of a female who had been interred in the church; he called on Heffernan, for the key of the gate which he was not altogether culpable, but perceived from the course pursued in defence of others behind the scene, who, through motives, and for the purpose of annoyance, placed him in a position to maintain himself in comparative independence.

DEATHS.
