It is our painful duty to record the death of Edward Henry Arthur, eldest son of the Rev. Edward Herbert, Prebendary of Kilpeacon, of fever, aged 17 years. His many amiable and ennobling qualities had won the most affectionate regard and estimation of a numerous circle of acquaintances; and the heartfelt tears of rich and poor-old and young-mingled over his grave—attesting their appreciation of the loss sustained by his sudden and unexpected removal. In this sad bereavement his sorrowing parents possess the consolatory assurance that the principles of Christian truth, which they so zealously and carefully instilled, have produced their blessed effect, in imparting to their beloved child a peaceful transition to a happy immortality, enabling him, when lying on the bed of death, to confess the LORD CHRIST as his only hope and the only way of salvation. He lived in the fear of God, and died Waterford and Mr. Disney won most the plates crown the labors of parents who bring up their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
