REVISION OF THE BURGESS ROLL.

EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

The proceedings at the late "Court of Revision," calls for a few words from me. The was not "unanimous," in admitting parties the burgess roll, who had not paid their taxes "on the 31st August." I opposed it, as I conceive there is no controversy as to facts, nor ambiguity we have no discretion. 'Tis true, the Tax are directed to keep an office open one month the 31st August, but the legislature, foreseeing they would not obey, devised a remedy—that Mr. Blackall. With regard to the "Joint-tenants," the statement which appeared calculated to misinform. We were "unanimous" that "joint tenants" who "occupy," and sufficient for the joint qualification, entitled to the franchise, but we differed a resolution to be put on the word "occupier." I should be interpreted in the same extensive given in the Poor-law act The Mayor, and my assessor, confined it to mere personal occupancy. It is quite correct as to the cases where the tenant, by agreement, pays all taxes. The tenant is not held by the law, he neither being "rated," nor paying taxes; and the majority of the Court ousted the franchise in this case too, the means.
