ected with the resignation of the Rath-Guardians, which do not appear in the for publication, in order that you and fully understand the causes that led to xious to make provision on a more than is at present permitted for the of out-door relief, and for that purpose ndispensable preliminary) for what is order to the Commissioners, which they refused, suggesting or rather ordering in extension of workhouse accommodation, t is in reality divested of all power, ling serious responsibility as well as onsiderable sacrifice of time and tranjustice to the Board, of which I had the ing Chairman, I deem this explanation at the public may attribute to other and onsiderations an act springing solely from make immediate and ample provision for and this becomes the more necessary quency with which charges of selfishness gness to tax themselves are so universally dedly brought by the Times, and other st such Boards generally. I deem it also that the Board was quite unanimous on of resignation, the document to that effect ved the signature of every Guardian present ng, which comprised some of the most zealous members of the Board.
