DEATHS.

On Friday last, Frances Mary, aged 13, eldest daughter of George Furnell, Esq. J.P. and County Treasurer. She bore a lingering illness with resignation and firmness. An interesting child—much beloved and regretted by a numerous circle of relations.

At Mallow, on the 19th instant, after a tedious illness, which he bore with patience and resignation, Mathew Seward, Esq. aged 65. In him society has lost an upright and high-minded member—his tenants and dependants a kind and considerate landlord and master—and those with whom he was intimately acquainted, a warm and attached friend.

At Clyda, near Mallow, the Rev. Michael Henry Becher, Prebendary of Couline, and Rector of Kilshannig, which parish he had served as Curate for 47 years, having been presented only to the living since January last.

Yesterday, at Ennis, of fever, John Cullinan, Esq. secretary to the Relief Committee.

At Catherine-street, of measles, Marquette Ryan, daughter of Mr. Patrick Ryan, master cooper.

At Nessagh Barracks, of fever, Mr. Michael Moran, Quarter Master Sergeant 77th Regiment.

At Molesworth-street, in his 18th year, John F. Lloyd, Esq. late Royal Navy, eldest son of the late Rev. J. C. Lloyd, Chaplain to the Molyneux Asylum.

At Scariff Workhouse, on Friday, the 19th inst. Marcella, the beloved wife of Wm. O'Brien, Esq. She has left in sorrow and tears a long and interesting little family, with a bereaved and disconsolate husband, to deplore her premature loss. In all the relations of life, as wife, mother, and friend, she could not be excelled. In her capacity as Matron of the Scariff Workhouse, she performed the onerous duties that devolved upon her with kindness and unwearied attention to those placed under her charge; and when her remains were being removed to their last resting place, the cries and lamentations of the poor inmates were loud and heart-rending. She died as she lived—a true Christian—and resigned her spirit with that calmness and composure which distinguished her through life. By fever and inflammation, caught in the discharge of her duties, her earthly career was terminated.

At Ennistimon, of fever, Sarah, wife of Mr. John Flanigan, of that town.

At Eyre-square, Galway, at an advanced age, Mr. Patrick Newell.

At the Clanmaurice Dispensary, Kerry, Mr. Thomas John O'Flaherty, of typhus fever.

At her residence, South Abbey, Youghal, in the 84th year of her age, Margaret, relict of the late Thos. John, Esq.

In Sligo, Miss Catherine Parker, aged 76 years.

At her residence on Summer Hill, of rapid consumption, Anna Georgina, wife of Mr. Arthur M. Day.

George, son of the late Sir George Hill, Bart. St. Columb's, county Londouderry.

At Kingstown, Catherine, eldest daughter of the late Walter Rooney, Esq. of Dublin.

At his house in Leeson Terrace, Benjamin Adams, formerly Captain in the 17th Lancers, and lately Major in the 78th Highlanders.

At her residence, Mayfield, Dundrum, county Dublin, aged 75 years, Rose Purdon, relict of the late George Purdon, Esq. of Currinstown, county Westmeath.

J. K. Dickinson, Esq. of Westbourne, Rathfarnham.
