KILMALLOCK UNION.
CAPTAIN KELLETT.
Ballynanty, Nov. 15th, 1847.
MY DEAR SIR—I feel much pleasure in being the medium of conveying to you, from the Finance Committee of the Kilmallock Union, the accompanying Snuff-box, which we hope you will receive as a small mark of our regard for you personally, as well as of our unanimous approval of your conduct while among us as Inspecting officer. You have lived among us for a short but very critical period, during which, by your great assiduity and perseverance, you have unravelled the tangled meshes of the Commissioners instructions so continually pouring in on us in every form, and thus rendered very light the labours of the committee, by whom I am desired to thank you; and to assure you of their admiration and approval of the firmness you displayed on every occasion (often before violent mobs) in trying to carry out the act of Parliament in its integrity, in endeavouring to prevent abuses and needless expense to the Union, and above all for your anxiety to relieve every really deserving person.
United by the Committee in best wishes for your future welfare,
I remain, my dear Sir,
Faithfully your's,
JOHN LOW,
Chairman Finance Committee.
To Captain A. KELLETT, R.N.

Great Clonard, Wexford, 28th Nov.
MY DEAR SIR—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, and of a Snuff-box, presented by the Finance Committee of the Kilmallock Union. To you, and each member, I have to return many thanks, for your uniform kindness and attention. I went to the county Limerick a stranger to all. I soon found that it only required a zealous performance of duty to entitle a public officer to the attention I received so generally; but whatever of success attended the carrying into effect the admirable Relief instructions was, in a great measure, to be attributed to the cordial and perfect unanimity of the Finance Committee.
I beg you will receive and express to each member my thanks, for their kind expressions to me, and the beautiful mark of their regard, which I this day received. I trust, should I again be so fortunate as to be employed in the public service out of my profession, I may be equally fortunate in being associated with such members as those who composed the Finance Committee of the Kilmallock Union.
Believe me to be,
My dear Sir,
Very faithfully, your's,
ARTHUR KELLETT,
Late Inspecting Officer,
Kilmallock Union.
