

DEATHS.

Yesterday, aged 62 years, to the inexpressible grief of his family, Thomas Tracy, Esq. late of Patrick-street. Through life he maintained the character of an upright citizen and true Christian. His end was peace.

On the 31st ult. to the inexpressible grief of his afflicted parents, Garrett O'Moore, aged 10 years, second son of Capt. Creagh, R.N. of Caherbane, county Clare.

In Clare-street, on Saturday night, John Bowles, Esq.—a gentleman very generally and deservedly regretted.

This morning, in Catherine-street, Mr. Michael Alps O'Brien, Printer, aged 46.

Officer in Tipperary, Edward Dalton, Esq. M.D. eldest son of William Dalton, Esq. Abby Athassel.

At Abbeyfeale, Mr. Constantine B. Collins.

At Merchant's quay, Cork, Mr. John M'Auliffe, ship agent.

At St. Alban's, Rathgar, Mary, relict of Richard Hawkshaw Esq. of Millbrook, county Tipperary.

At Garbally, of influenza, the Dowager Countess Clancarty in the 77th year of her age.

At Ballinasloe, Mrs. Catherine Martin, sister to the late Rev. Henry Martin, Surrogate, and Rector of Aughrim.

At her lodgings, Patrick street, Cork, Miss Ellen Nagle, aged 91 years, daughter of Athanasius Nagle, Esq.

At Bandon, T. C. Flaxman, Esq. Pro-Collector of Excise.

At Blackrock, Cork, Mr. John Horgan.

At Sunday's Well, Mr. Rodolph M'Carthy, in his 70th year.

At Merrion avenue, Blackrock, Amelia, wife of Henry B. Warner, Esq.

In Upper Baggot street, Mr. Stephen Dallen.

At the residence of his son in Carlow, Martin Tuomy, M.D. ex Professor of the Practice of Medicine, T.C.D.

On the 30th ultimo, at Bellaghey Castle, county Derry, the seat of his son, aged 34, John Hill, Esq. on half pay Royal Marines. His commission bears date January, 1782. He served as Captain in the Londonderry Militia, and, with his light company bore an active part in suppressing the disturbances of '98. He was for some years Brigade Major of Yeomanry for the county Armagh and part of Tyrone, also a magistrate for his native county. He sunk after an illness of only two days, esteemed and regretted.

Ellen, eldest daughter of Mr. Thomas Hanton, Waterford.

At his residence, Millbrook, county Mayo, L. Glynn, Esq.

At Dunmore East, Mr. John Wilson.

In Wexford, Mrs. Maddock, relict of the late Mr. Richard Maddock.

At the hotel of Dingle, Mr. W. Walsh.

At Loughrea, at an advanced age, William Lewis, Esq. County Inspector of the Eastern Division of Galway.

At Maryboro, Mr. Richard Houston, Printer.

Miss Mary Frances Lenahan, only daughter of John Lenahan, Calcotta, county Dublin.

At Waltham Terrace, Blackrock, Anne, relict of the Rev. Cuthbert Fethetston H., Rector of Hacketstown.

In Dublin, Mr. Samuel Moore, formerly a respectable mill owner in Kerry.

At Essex-lawn, near Roscommon, John, second son of John Kelly, Esq. County Surveyor.

At Prince Edward's Terrace, Blackrock, Jane, child of the Rev. F. H. Thomas, aged 9 years.

At Upper Camden street, Mr. Henry Macklin, Officer of Excise.

At Woodvale, near Dundalk, of influenza, Louisa Amelia, only daughter of the late Rev. Alexander Lindsay, Rector of Rathfrummin.

At the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Marcus Bryan, son of the late Thomas S. Bryan, Esq. of Castleknock.

At his residence, Mountjos-square, North, in the 58th year of his age, Major Edward Cottingham, second son of the late James Henry Cottingham, Esq., of Summerville, county Cavan.

Frances, wife of Mr. Benjamin Perrin.

At Sandford Hill, Elizabeth, wife of Joseph Bewley, Esq.

At his residence in Grantham street, Joseph Staveley, Esq.

In London, of decline, James Ephraim Grant, aged 19 years, son of the late James Sackville Grant, Esq. of Tralee.

At Markly, Sussex, aged 91 years, Mrs. Darby, relict of John Darby, Esq. of the Leap, King's County.

In London, aged 83 years, Maria, daughter of the late Andrew Hearne, Esq. of Hearnebrook, county Galway.

At Hinckley, Thomas Hodnett, son of the Rev. Geo. C. Hingston.

At Plymouth, William Marshall, Esq. aged 90 years; and Charles Marshall, Esq. only son of William Marshall.

At Devonport, Mr. John Benn, of H. M. Dockyard.

At Cheltenham, Captain Judd, R.N. late of Holyhead.

At his residence, Gloucester road, Regent's park, Lieut. Colonel J. Babington, late of the 14th Light Dragoons.

At his residence, Buckworth Rectory, the Rev. Slingsby Shatto.

The Rev. Howel Hughes, Rhoscelyn Rectory, Anglesey.

At Beauchamp Lodge, Leamington, George Walsh Digby, Esq. eldest son of the late Captain Digby, R.N. and nephew of Sir John Walsh, Bart. M.P.

At Bath, Henry Sockett, Esq. one of the Senior Benchers of Gray's Inn, in his 82d year.

At Colehsterr Mrs. Brady, mother of Lieut. Brady, R.N.

Mrs. Mary Magdalen Sargent, foundress of the Presentation Nunnery, Manchester.

At Southsea, in his 79th year, Benjamin Lara, M.D.

In Paris, Isabella, relict of the late Hon. James Wolfe Murray, Lord Cringliffe.

At her residence at the Hague, in the 72d year of her age, the Right Hon. Lady Christine de Reede Ginckel, daughter of Frederick, fifth Earl of Athlone.

At Quebec, of typhus, Colonel Calvert.

At Barbadoes, J. B. Nurse, Esq. Adjutant General of Militia and Aid de Camp to the Governor, Lt. Col. Reid, R.E.

MONTHLY MILITARY OBITUARY.

Lieut. Generals—Sir Chas Dalbiac, Colonel of the 4th Dragoon. Sir J. Cameron, Royal Artillery.

The departments just sup-Cord, Linen, Plain, and P-derable arrival of Shawls, & wears.

WE, the Mortality Soc-SIONERS, formed in
do hereby give Public Noti-Society are Dissolved on an 1847, through the means of
to meet the exigencies of the President
Vice-P-

34

Limerick, Jan. 5.

PHILOSOPHICAL

HORSE

GREAT AT

A NEW AND UNCOMM

To be See

PHILOSOPHICAL

On TUESDAY and WEDN

and 12th Insta

A BAZ

FOR THE SICK AND L

HELD

Gardener

A NY Nobleman or Gentle

Gardener, or Steward a

a person to suit them in eve

THE SEED WAREHOUSE,

addressing J. F., the Grang

Advertiser can furnish as

and abilities as can possibly recommended by gentlemen

parts of Ireland.

TO ROAD CO

T HE COMMISSIONERS OF

of receiving Tenders

and Maintenance until nex

part of the Mail Coach Roa between Wellesley Bridge a

Copies of the Specificati

strict Office of Public Work will be received addressed o'Clock on FRIDAY, the January 5.

GREAT SOUTHE

RAIL

(IREL

N OTICE is hereby give

BOOKS will be Closed

the 6th of January, 1848, t

of February, 1848, both day

By O

WILLIA

3, College-green, Dublin,

24th Dec., 1847.

TO THE E

The Limerick

Medical

M R. EDITOR—I feel it

that you will give pu

of your valuable Paper, to a be of universal benefit. Ha some time past with violent to have the offending tooth

RYDING, Dentist, Malloy

Chloroform, which was ap

did not suffer any pain; inc able feelings, and knew very

the operation, which did no

I am, Sir, &

LAUC

P. S.—I am the more an